

SOCIAL CALENDAR

TUESDAY, MAY 25
Woman's Advertising Club dinner at the Hotel Benson 6:15 p. m.
Housewives' Council at 2 p. m., Central library.
Mount Taber Parent-Teacher Association at 2:30 p. m.
Advertiser club, branch 2, at 1:30 p. m., at Central library.

Scott Classics Go Big at the Orpheum

By E. C. B.
HENRI SCOTT is a treat! In all the world a human counterpart, in physical sense, of the pouter pigeon, this "greatest of American baritones" puts over a pot of musical classic as a headliner on the current Orpheum bill, that is extremely easy to the road, grand opera and makes large, variety loving audiences like it.

A music master must express tribute to Scott's art. Here it may only be said that he sings powerfully and beautifully to the accompaniment of A. Wynter Smith, and makes you glad, for once, that grand opera leads a vaudeville bill. Sharing honors in the headline position is that diverting comedy, a domestic, perhaps, called "Married," by Homer E. Baker, who returns with Marguerite Keeler, a bewitching maid in a nightgown, to draw smiles, giggles and full-throated laughs. Mason's "The Masterpieces" is a rare's story of inspiration in this pretty Keeler person. The scene is a bedroom in the Hotel Beveridge, New York city. The act is one of genuine humor.

The bill opens with Rudinoff, who paints in smoke and whistles "The Courtship of the Nightingale" in a perfectly pleasing way. His versatility takes him from the production of a trio of marine views, done in smoke, to a display of shadowgraph. With music, both sublime and ridiculous, the Rosellas entertain with some new stuff in a skit called "A Musical Show." They are good! Next comes his tom-tollery augmented by Evelyn Wells and Frank Herbin, put over some welcome nonsense. Stewart and Mercer have some new to their aerial act.

The East found a new dancer in the West in the person of Beth Berl, a California girl, and has sent her back to the West with her graceful contortions. She is cleverly assisted by Jay Velie and Paul O'Neill, thin thespians, who dance and sing.

Home talent jazz that ranks with the best of the visiting entertainment is offered in a jazzy trombone solo by Burns Powell, chair the number of George Jeffery's orchestra pit crew, who thus fills in between numbers.

The Oaks
Music was the order of the day at the Oaks amusement park on Sunday and the Elks band played two concerts that proved thoroughly welcome additions to the entertainment.

The band filled in the only uncharted Sunday of the park season, for at the auditorium next Saturday Manager John F. Cordray has announced that the Adolphus Musical Comedy company opens with an adaptation of one of its popular eastern successes.

Cursed by a Sunday hallstom, the Oaks nevertheless proved a popular playground and its pleasure facilities were widely employed.

Lyric
Music and vaudeville dance specialties make up an artistic introduction to "Fads and Fancies," a revue show which opened Sunday at the Lyric theatre. Ben Dillon and Al Franks have much chance for eccentric comedy, and other Lyric principals sing and entertain in the characters of the musical comedy.

The prelude takes the place of the usual opening chorus. Leona Wahlmann, Marie Collins, Annie Rice, Jessie Reed and Lillie Lytell are featured in song and dancing solos, duets and ensemble bits, and Billie Bingham, Clarence Wurdig, and Charles H. McDonald Raymond had solos. Will Rader wins applause with his musical tribute to Roosevelt.

What plot there is in the revue has to do with Ike and Mike in Paris. They break two valuable statues and are ordered to pay for them. A collector can get the money from a rich American woman who has bought them.

Columbia
New York is a made attractive even in the scenes portraying its wickedness in "On With the Dance," the picture at the Columbia. The offering is in its second week.

The story brings to the front the dramatic talents of Mae Murray, the erstwhile dancer on the Follies, a screen player of charm and ability, and the affable David Powell. The plot concerns a Russian immigrant girl, selfish and pleasure-loving, who suddenly is injected into the atmosphere of New York "high life."

"On With the Dance" is described as the first personally produced picture bearing the name of George Fitzmaurice. The scenario, adapted from Michael Morton's stage play, was written by Guida Bergere.

Majestic
A story of the immediate after effects of the world war is "Duds," which opened at the Majestic theatre Saturday with Tom Moore in the stellar role. The story centers about a military discharged captain of the army, out of a job and balking at a return to the routine of the office he left for war.

Moore, as Captain Phoebe Donkett, is rescued from despair to aid in finding the famous Sultana diamond, stolen in the quest. Plunkett, the chief of the office that a return to office work did not offer, and he finds even more in his romance with Olga Karakoff (Naomi Childers). There are smugglers, villains and all to compose the picture. Moore gets a hand from the audience when a mere amateur as a detective, he successfully outwits the experienced sleuths and recovers the diamond and the girl.

Star
A story with plenty of thrills and excitement, and a pretty romance to give it color, is being presented at the Star theatre in "Bullet Proof," Harry Carey's latest production.

The popular star has an excellent supporting cast and the story, written by John Frederick, is carefully filmed. Kathleen O'Connor has the role of the girl with whom Carey as Pierre falls in love.

Beatrice Burnham plays well the part of the little tomboy who was

MISS AURELIA FRANZ, a participant in the May festival to be held Thursday, May 27, at Cathedral hall by the Daughters of Isabella.

Nazimova Has Scored in a New Role

NAZIMOVA reaches the emotional depths in her latest screen presentation, "The Heart of a Child," which is showing at the Liberty theatre. The picture is an adaptation from the novel by Frank Danby.

"The Heart of a Child" is a picture of the struggle Sally Snape made against the world's sinister and alluring attack, armed with an inherent sense of right. Sally is a cockney lass of Limehouse village but her career ventures far afield—from Limehouse to the theatre and the world of gorgeous fashion. Through it all the heart stays true, giving Nazimova a role that has met with widespread enthusiasm all over the United States.

Benefit Vaudeville Wednesday Evening
Managers of Portland theatres are now putting the finishing touches to plans for the season's greatest vaudeville revue to be staged at the Heilig theatre next Wednesday evening. Funds to add to the entertainment of visitors to Portland during the Shrine convention next month. Advance sale of tickets now at all the theatres indicates a sell-out for the big show.

Managers expect to make this the biggest show of any they have ever attempted in all the theatres. The vaudeville and musical talent at the Lyric theatre, which is now at all theatre box offices.

JOLSONS "MAKE UP"; ALL SEEMS TO BE SERENE
Oakland, Cal., May 24.—(U. P.)—Al Jolson, famous comedian, and his wife, Marie Collier, who have been separated for some time, are reported to have effected a reconciliation, friends of the pair declared today, following reports that Jolson had been seen with his wife several times in the past few days.

Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden has been appointed state chairman for Oregon to complete plans as formulated at the recent convention of the National Woman's Suffrage association at Chicago, to place as a joint memorial to the life and work of the late Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, a foundation in politics by Burn Mawr college and a chair in preventive medicine at the Woman's Medical college of Pennsylvania.

Parisians Reveling In Their Glad Rags

Paris, May 23.—The nationwide wave of economy which is reported to be sweeping America has not reached Paris so far. The leading Rue de la Paix dressmakers say they cannot turn out zowns quickly enough to satisfy the demand. American buyers representing New York and Chicago firms are buying up everything regardless of price on the theory that "only the middle class" in America are economizing, while the wealthy people are just as extravagant as ever.

Pierre's pal during his career as an outlaw, and Robert McKim gives one of his heavy characterizations. Fred Astaire, in "The Sign of the Cross," Charles Le Moyne, Bob McKenzie, Fred Gamble and W. Y. Ryno.

Rivoli
"The Sagebrusher," picture of Emerson Hough's novel, is the attraction of the day at the Rivoli theatre, in which several stars are revealed in performances.

The photoplay is one of a new school, which depends upon winning sympathy, joy and tears rather than, by wild thrills, exciting the nerves. It is true drama, always human and always familiar, true to life. But many a scene, nevertheless, raises a thrill of excitement. And behind it is the background of a heart story of pathos and humor.

The picture depicts the life of Mary Warren, blind girl, forced by circumstances to marry a shiftless rancher, who proves his metal in a thrilling way by sacrificing himself to save the life of his wife.

Tuesday Club's Annual Tea Success

By Vella Winner
THE annual lecture and tea of the Tuesday afternoon club was given on Wednesday at the Laurelhurst clubhouse. A large number of friends and clubwomen were present. The room was attractive with yellow spring flowers.

One of the best meetings of the school year was held Wednesday by the Couch Parent-Teachers association. The subject of gold fish was won by the pupils of Miss Thompson's room for having the largest number of parents at three meetings during the year.

The Parent-Teacher circle of Troutdale arranged a delightful community picnic as a school-closing festivity. It was held in the camp grounds on the bank of the Sandy river, and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The May meeting of the Creston Parent-Teachers circle was held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. From 1 p. m. to 2:15 had been the Visting day and many parents, who had gone to see the work their children had done and to meet the teachers, remained to hear the excellent program.

The Multnomah county institute was held in the Arletta Baptist church Thursday. The morning service was opened by Mrs. M. A. Harris, who read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

Johnny Chuck's biggest Cousin
up on the sides of great mountains, often so high up that no trees grow there, is the biggest and roughest cousin. He digs holes down in between the rocks.

Parsons' "The Spinsters Return," which was given by the Camelia Social club under the able direction of Mrs. Thaxter Reed. The amusing experience and songs, as well as the quaint costumes of the spinsters, together with the appropriate selections of the orchestra caused much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fiegl are visitors in the city, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegl. Mrs. Fiegl was Miss Barbara Steiner, before her marriage. She is a daughter of Dr. E. L. Steiner of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary. The table was decorated with a large birthday cake adorned with tiny pink gaudies in cascading borders.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Club, Society and Features

Parent-Teacher's association was held Tuesday afternoon. Pupils of Miss Wright, Miss Berens and Mrs. Cheney assisted with the program. Much credit is due them and their teachers. Mr. Merton of the school for the blind spoke in behalf of the blind school tax bill and Mrs. Beamer the other educational measures. These measures were unanimously endorsed by the organization.

The Wallowa Women's club, at its meeting on Monday night, made arrangements for a lecture to be given at the Wallowa public school on Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture is "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

The May meeting of the Creston Parent-Teachers circle was held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. From 1 p. m. to 2:15 had been the Visting day and many parents, who had gone to see the work their children had done and to meet the teachers, remained to hear the excellent program.

The Multnomah county institute was held in the Arletta Baptist church Thursday. The morning service was opened by Mrs. M. A. Harris, who read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

Johnny Chuck's biggest Cousin
up on the sides of great mountains, often so high up that no trees grow there, is the biggest and roughest cousin. He digs holes down in between the rocks.

Parsons' "The Spinsters Return," which was given by the Camelia Social club under the able direction of Mrs. Thaxter Reed. The amusing experience and songs, as well as the quaint costumes of the spinsters, together with the appropriate selections of the orchestra caused much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fiegl are visitors in the city, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegl. Mrs. Fiegl was Miss Barbara Steiner, before her marriage. She is a daughter of Dr. E. L. Steiner of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

Visitors in City To Be Honored At Functions

By Helen H. Hutchison
OUT-OF-TOWN visitors will share in honor with brides-elect this week and the social calendar offers numerous functions of interest as the closing ceremonies for clubs and school organizations. Miss Dorothy Hunziker, whose marriage to A. Bruce Bailey will be an event of June 5, will be guest of honor at a tea Wednesday at the home of Miss Margaret Hawkins on Portland Heights, sharing honors with Mrs. Starrett Dinwiddie (Bernice Lucas) of San Francisco, who is a visitor here.

The Wallowa Women's club, at its meeting on Monday night, made arrangements for a lecture to be given at the Wallowa public school on Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture is "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

The May meeting of the Creston Parent-Teachers circle was held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. From 1 p. m. to 2:15 had been the Visting day and many parents, who had gone to see the work their children had done and to meet the teachers, remained to hear the excellent program.

The Multnomah county institute was held in the Arletta Baptist church Thursday. The morning service was opened by Mrs. M. A. Harris, who read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

Johnny Chuck's biggest Cousin
up on the sides of great mountains, often so high up that no trees grow there, is the biggest and roughest cousin. He digs holes down in between the rocks.

Parsons' "The Spinsters Return," which was given by the Camelia Social club under the able direction of Mrs. Thaxter Reed. The amusing experience and songs, as well as the quaint costumes of the spinsters, together with the appropriate selections of the orchestra caused much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fiegl are visitors in the city, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegl. Mrs. Fiegl was Miss Barbara Steiner, before her marriage. She is a daughter of Dr. E. L. Steiner of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

Poor Old Lena In Revival at Baker

By C. T. H.
POOR Lena, they never do right by her, and the female villain who tries to vamp her "steady" is a monstrosity and no mistake. Mary J. Holmes wrote a thoughtful when Lena Rivers was thought up. Mary wrote it for comedy of the melodramatic kind, the type that flourished long before Old Kentucky and Shenandoah and Way Down East and almost of the period of East Lynn. But the Baker Players have attempted the revival.

The Wallowa Women's club, at its meeting on Monday night, made arrangements for a lecture to be given at the Wallowa public school on Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture is "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

The May meeting of the Creston Parent-Teachers circle was held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. From 1 p. m. to 2:15 had been the Visting day and many parents, who had gone to see the work their children had done and to meet the teachers, remained to hear the excellent program.

The Multnomah county institute was held in the Arletta Baptist church Thursday. The morning service was opened by Mrs. M. A. Harris, who read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

Johnny Chuck's biggest Cousin
up on the sides of great mountains, often so high up that no trees grow there, is the biggest and roughest cousin. He digs holes down in between the rocks.

Parsons' "The Spinsters Return," which was given by the Camelia Social club under the able direction of Mrs. Thaxter Reed. The amusing experience and songs, as well as the quaint costumes of the spinsters, together with the appropriate selections of the orchestra caused much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fiegl are visitors in the city, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegl. Mrs. Fiegl was Miss Barbara Steiner, before her marriage. She is a daughter of Dr. E. L. Steiner of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

WHO? WHAT? WHERE?

ORPHEUM—VAUDEVILLE. Taylor, Marlin, Rock, vaudeville. 2:30, 8:10.
PANTAGES—Broadway at Alder. High class vaudeville and playboy features. Afternoon and evening. Program changes Monday afternoon.

The Wallowa Women's club, at its meeting on Monday night, made arrangements for a lecture to be given at the Wallowa public school on Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture is "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

The May meeting of the Creston Parent-Teachers circle was held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. From 1 p. m. to 2:15 had been the Visting day and many parents, who had gone to see the work their children had done and to meet the teachers, remained to hear the excellent program.

The Multnomah county institute was held in the Arletta Baptist church Thursday. The morning service was opened by Mrs. M. A. Harris, who read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

Johnny Chuck's biggest Cousin
up on the sides of great mountains, often so high up that no trees grow there, is the biggest and roughest cousin. He digs holes down in between the rocks.

Parsons' "The Spinsters Return," which was given by the Camelia Social club under the able direction of Mrs. Thaxter Reed. The amusing experience and songs, as well as the quaint costumes of the spinsters, together with the appropriate selections of the orchestra caused much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fiegl are visitors in the city, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegl. Mrs. Fiegl was Miss Barbara Steiner, before her marriage. She is a daughter of Dr. E. L. Steiner of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

THE OAKS AMUSEMENT PARK

CHAT NO. 8—1920
You noticed how changeable the weather was on Sunday! But you must also have noticed that there was no change in the order of things at THE OAKS, where everyone thoroughly enjoyed a great day.

The Wallowa Women's club, at its meeting on Monday night, made arrangements for a lecture to be given at the Wallowa public school on Tuesday evening. The subject of the lecture is "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

The May meeting of the Creston Parent-Teachers circle was held Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. From 1 p. m. to 2:15 had been the Visting day and many parents, who had gone to see the work their children had done and to meet the teachers, remained to hear the excellent program.

The Multnomah county institute was held in the Arletta Baptist church Thursday. The morning service was opened by Mrs. M. A. Harris, who read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Americanization."

Johnny Chuck's biggest Cousin
up on the sides of great mountains, often so high up that no trees grow there, is the biggest and roughest cousin. He digs holes down in between the rocks.

Parsons' "The Spinsters Return," which was given by the Camelia Social club under the able direction of Mrs. Thaxter Reed. The amusing experience and songs, as well as the quaint costumes of the spinsters, together with the appropriate selections of the orchestra caused much interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fiegl are visitors in the city, house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fiegl. Mrs. Fiegl was Miss Barbara Steiner, before her marriage. She is a daughter of Dr. E. L. Steiner of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

The canteen girls of the American Red Cross, who are close to the hearts of the veterans of foreign wars because of the many services rendered during the war and since, are to receive a mark of appreciation this evening by being made honorary members of the women's auxiliary of the veterans.

The Royal Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Haycock, 630 Lombard street, Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Edwards entertained a number of friends at their home in Ninety-first street Sunday evening on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of their son-in-law, Winfred W. Walker, and their own wedding anniversary.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.

Advertisement for Heilig featuring 'The Spinsters Return' and 'The Heart of a Child'.