senting Governor Lowden of Illinois; Angus McSwen, representing Senator Hiram Johnson; E. H. Moore, Governor Cox of Ohio; John F. Lacey, Herber Hoover, Howard M. Rice, Charles P. Poindexter of Washington, C. C. Carline, Attorney General Palmer, Rudolph J. Hersey, Senator Sutherland of West Virginia.

Senators Owen of Oklahoma and France of Maryland, two other presidential aspirants, and James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, have also been notified of the inquiry and are expected to send representatives.

Senator Kenyon said he hoped the investigation would be concluded before the anticipated recess of congress, June 5, or before the convention. It was not planned to have the sub-committee pursue its investigation at either San Francisco or Chicago, he added, and for the present no attempt would be made to investigate the state's delegates as provided in the Stinchfield resolution.

JOHNSTON FIGURES GIVEN Angus McSwen, Senator Hiram Johnson's eastern manager, said contributions totaled $68,130.

The largest was from R. E. Straberg, Morrilton, Pa., who gave $27,000. Among other contributors were Mayor James Couzens, Detroit, $5000; J. L. Callery, Pittsburgh, $5000; San Francisco headquarters, $3000.

McSwen said he went to Mayor Couzens of Detroit and William Flynn of Pittsburgh, a Wood supporter, and asked for money.

Disbursements for Johnson have amounted to $72,000, McSwen said, leaving about $3100 unpaid.

The New York campaign for Johnson, according to McSwen, cost $15,685; the New Jersey campaign, $13,207; Michigan, $4100; Indiana, $3730; Montana, $1300; North Carolina, $2800. Nothing was spent in Minnesota or Michigan, according to McSwen.

Multnomah Vote Summarized

The accompanying summary gives the complete count on the entire Republican-Democratic and special measures ballot in 412 of 513 precincts in Multnomah county. The missing precinct at Palmer, a remote location in the foothills in the northwest of the county, only had a registration of approximately 14 votes, so its returns will have no appreciable effect on the result.

NUMBER OF CLERKS IN U. S. SERVICE LESS SINCE WAR

Washington, May 24.—(WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—The wave of government clerks which inundated Washington in war time is slowly receding, and has at last sunk below the 100,000 mark.

As the number was less than 40,000 before the war, and at the highest point did not reach 120,000, it will be seen that there is still a large surplus as compared with pre-war days.

It is not expected that the number will ever again fall back anywhere near the old basis. Besides the normal growth of the departments, congress has added a number of new agencies and commissions which will be permanently maintained.

Some other departments are reducing, and while others are taking on new employees. The census work came along in time to absorb many of those who might have been dropped entirely.

REFERRED MANS AGAINS SOVIET PROPAGANDA HERE

William C. Redfield, formerly United States secretary of commerce and now president of the Russian-American Chamber of Commerce, was the principal speaker at the luncheon of the Portland Chamber of Commerce Monday noon.

To the business men of the northwest Redfield carried the message "Beware of Soviet Propaganda." Reciprocity for the assistance of Russia to the United States in the past was used as an argument to urge the lifting of the embargo now in force.

Benefits to Pacific coast exporters, as well as to the entire union, were pointed out. "To obtain this development China must depend upon the United States for finance, the same as this country looked to Europe in its infancy.

Following Redfield, Paul P. Whitham, trade commissioner to China, spoke briefly on stimulating trade relations between the Orient and ports on the Pacific coast.

Washington, May 24.—Miss Pearl Clark of Chicago, private secretary to Congressman Fred A. Britten of Illinois, saw her fiancé, T. Morgan Moore, of Alexandria, Va., shot down by a negro footpad who stopped their car on the Alexandria Pike early Sunday morning.

She was rescued by a party of motorists who heard her screams. Shortly after midnight Moore, an expert torpedo mechanic employed in the navy plant at Alexandria, was passing the national capital horse show grounds bringing Miss Clark home after a drive.

He fired two shots, one taking the tip off the negro's thumb and the other lodging in his chest. Turner turned and fired just one shot. The bullet struck Moore in the head and he died almost instantly.

Portland's Strides Impressed Chinese, Says Trade Seeker

Inauguration of steamship service between the Columbia river and the Orient and the remarkable war time shipping record of this district have placed Portland on the commercial map for China and its position is being strengthened every day.

Whitham has been in the countries of the Far East for three years and came to America to attend the national foreign trade convention at San Francisco. He addressed the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce at noon and will give an illustrated lecture on "China" at Library hall tonight.

"China is now exporting products valued at $1,500,000,000 annually," said Whitham, "most of the time in the Orient it studied transportation problems and have been assured that China with proper rail systems could export goods valued at $5,000,000,000.

Both Zeigler, who was a woodsman, had invented and patented a new bull hook for use in logging, and the men were on route to the Guerrier mill, south of Forest, to try out the hook. CAR SOMERSAULTS; SIX ARE INJURED

When an automobile loaded with Multnomah club hikers bound for Eagle creek lost the left front wheel near Dodson's station on the Columbia river highway Sunday morning, it leaped the bank, turned a double somersault end for end and landed in a heap of wreckage at the foot of the high grade.

All those in the car were injured, though probably none fatally. The four women in the car were carried by those in the other machines to nearby houses. Forster, a physician was rushed from Bridal Veil.

The injured follow: Mabel E. Heiser, driver, 650 Stanton street, severely bruised; Florence Gardner, Nortonia hotel, a wrenched hip and severe bruises and possible internal injuries; Miss Eugenie Paine, 433 Rodney avenue, injured chest, several teeth knocked out and laceration and bruise about the face; Ruth Gray, 401 Prospect drive, bruises and lacerations of the face and body; W. H. Marsh, 706 Flanders street, W. H. Fearner, 819 Belmont, and Ben Cassidy, 803 Flanders, at the Park building, were slightly bruised.

Henry Harlan, department manager of the J. K. Gill company, was passing a car full of the party at the time they backed and saw the Heiser car shoot over the bank.

The car struck a little knoll beside the road and then went end over end, turning two somersaults. Harlan said today: "It was the most remarkable thing I ever saw. The occupants were all thrown free of the wreck, which I believe accounts for the fact that they were not instantly killed. I picked up Miss Paine and took her to the cannery. Several of her teeth were knocked out.

We found the rim and the several hundred feet down the road, with one fragment broken out of the rim. It appeared that the tire had been put on just before the party started and evidently the lug or bolts were insecure.

Deputy Sheriff Wilson and Motorcycle Officer Anderson arrived at Dodson's station immediately after the accident. They were accompanied by the ambulance to Portland by the Arrow Ambulance company.

1 KILLED, ANOTHER HURT, WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTOMOBILE

Centralla, Wash., May 24.—W. D. Zeigler was fatally injured and Charles Roney badly hurt about 4:30 o'clock this morning, when an automobile in which they were driving toward Chehalis, was struck by a light Northern Pacific engine on the Chestnut street crossing in the south part of Centralla. The engine, which had helped a passenger train over the ridge to Napavine was running backwards.

Roney, who was driving, said the he stopped before driving on the track but that he neither heard the crossing bell nor saw the engine. The automobile was carried a full block and almost completely demolished. Zeigler and Roney were taken to the hospital, where the former died about two hours after the accident. Roney's condition is serious, but he is not believed to be in danger.
