

W. P. STRANDBORG VICE PRESIDENT OF WORLD AD CLUB

Camp Curry, Yosemite, Cal., May 23.—(U. P.)—The transcontinental mail service and the government's thrift campaign were approved in resolutions passed by the Pacific Coast Ad Men's club at the closing session here. The delegates from all parts of the Pacific coast started homeward today.

Tacoma was chosen as the next place of meeting.

The city of Stockton was thanked for the successful manner in which it handled the convention, which had adjourned to Camp Curry.

To add interest to the final session, the annual reliability run of the San Joaquin Auto Trades association checked in at the Curry control late yesterday.

and the run back to Stockton was resumed today.

The ad men feasted at a banquet last night.

Harry S. Carroll of Los Angeles was elected president of the Pacific Ad club. W. P. Strandborg of Portland, who organized the big caravan tour, was elected vice president of the Associated Advertising clubs of the world. There was great competition for this position.
