MRS. DAVID HUNTER GOWANS, who was Miss Helen Morgan before her marriage Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Shelly Morgan, in Irvington. Mrs. Edward A. O'Neil was matron of honor and Miss Sara McCully, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. There were six bridesmaids.

Birthday Tea Held at Home Of Mrs. Hilton

THE women of the White Temple were charmingly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Hilton, the occasion being a birthday tea. The hostesses were the Mesdames James Felling, W. E. Pearson, Peter Marsden and Hilton. The house was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms in pleasing variety.

The grounds surrounding the Hilton home are especially lovely and were much admired. A delightful musical program was given, including vocal selections by Miss Ruth Collier and violin and piano solos by the Mesdames Violet Cherry and Reynolds, respectively.

The tea table was graciously presided over by Mrs. F. C. Knapp and Mrs. William Waldo.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian McCallman and son, Adrian Jr., left Sunday evening for Canada, where they will spend the summer months.

Miss Mary Hennessy was called to Spokane Thursday on account of the death of her brother, John J. Hennessy. Mr. Hennessy was well known in Portland and throughout the Northwest, having lived in Spokane for 25 years.

Miss Gilbert's Wedding Is of Wide Interest

OF WIDE interest in the city was the marriage of Miss Dorothy Gilbert of Chicago, who became the bride of Earl S. Tully of Medford Thursday at high noon. Simplicity of detail marked the wedding of the young couple, for which Dr. A. A. Morrison officiated in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church, in the presence of a few close friends.

The wedding followed a brief courtship and is one of the charming romances of the season. Miss Gilbert came west from her home to visit Mrs. Gerald Soosmith in Portland, stopping for a short stay in Medford, where she was much entertained as the guest of Mrs. William Soosmith. Her husband is one of the prominent young bachelors of Medford, and is engaged in the automobile business.

For the wedding Mrs. Charles C. Gilbert, mother of the bride, arrived in the city Wednesday evening. There were no standbys at the wedding, which was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Portland hotel, for which places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Tully, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Soosmith, Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. Smith, Mrs. Charles C. Gilbert and Harold Soosmith.

Miss and Mrs. Tully will leave on a brief wedding trip, and will return to Medford to make their home.

One of the large affairs planned for the pleasure of the younger girls who are returning from school for the summer vacation is the tea to be given Saturday afternoon in the gardens surrounding the home of Miss Doris Henningsen at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Henningsen, in Scott avenue. Assisting hostesses for the affair will be Miss Frances Baker and Miss Elinor Simpson. Guests will include a group of the classmates from St. Helens Hall and other friends home for the vacation period. Later in the month Miss Henningsen will be hostess to a dancing party at the club house, honoring a number of her young friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Henry, who have been visitors in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Grell, left for their home in Stockton, Cal., Thursday. Since their arrival in the city Mr. and Mrs. Henry have been the inspiration for a number of affairs. During the past week Mrs. William C. Alvord asked a dozen friends in for dinner and bridge Monday evening. Mrs. George T. Gerlinger presided at an informal luncheon at the University club Monday for Mrs. Henry, and on Wednesday Mrs. D. L. Macdonald entertained a small number for the tea hour as a farewell to Mrs. Henry.

Mrs. W. B. Beyer entertained at a bridge tea at her home in North Nineteenth street Friday afternoon. Tables were placed for 16 guests for bridge during the early afternoon, with additional guests at the tea hour. Assisting with the serving of the guests were Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. John C. Almsworth, Mrs. George Good, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis.

Miss Dorothy Hunziker, whose wedding to A. Bruce Bailey will be an event of Saturday, entertained at a supper dance for the bridal party of Miss Helen Morgan and David Hunter Gowans, following the rehearsal for the wedding Friday evening. The affair was given at the Arcadian grill.

Mrs. P. T. Buckley, who makes her home at the Hotel Portland, was hostess for a small party of friends Friday evening, when she entertained at dinner in the main dining room. Covers were placed for six.

General and Mrs. Charles F. Beebe were hosts for an informal dinner Friday evening honoring Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, who is a visitor here.

MRS. EARL S. TULLY, who before her marriage at Trinity Episcopal church Thursday was Miss Dorothy Gilbert. Mrs. Tully is a Chicago girl and came west on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Soosmith.

Miss Buckley Names June 21 Wedding Date

MISS HELEN BUCKLEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buckley of Irvington, has chosen June 21 for the date of her wedding to William H. Daughtrey Jr. She is at present out of the city for a few days, visiting Miss Ruth Bamford in Seattle. Miss Bamford will be maid of honor for Miss Buckley. The bridesmaids for the wedding will include Miss Margaret Versteeg, Miss Janet Peters, Miss Elisabeth Wiggins and Miss Lucile McClung. Raymond James Buckley, brother of the bride, will be best man.

The ceremony will be performed at 2:30 o'clock at the Westminster Presbyterian church, Dr. E. H. Pence officiating. Ushers who will seat the guests include Richard Ransom, Robert Whitehead, Fulton Magill and Glen Francis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham Fithian have taken the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Van Schuyver are domiciled for the present at the Mallory hotel, and Mrs. Van Schuyver will leave in the near future for Gearhart for the summer.

Tea Given by Mrs. Fithian Is Event of Week

ONE of the smart events of the week was the tea for which Mrs. O. H. Fithian was hostess Tuesday at the University club for the pleasure of Mrs. William Bertram Watson and Mrs. Robert Graham Fithian. Mrs. Watson, who was Miss Pauline Fithian before her marriage, has recently returned with her two children, Ruth and Pauline, from Harrogate, England, where she has been making her home.

More than 100 maids and maidens called during the tea hour to erect the guests of honor Tuesday. For the occasion palms, hydrangeas and brilliant-lured poppies adorned the women's card room, where the guests were received. Mrs. Robert Tucker, Mrs. James A. Ciolek and Mrs. John T. Stonerod assisted in receiving.

In the dining room, where a daintily appointed table was centered with an artistic basket of lavender sweetpeas combined with orchids, Mrs. J. C. Olds and Mrs. Frank Wood presided. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Clifford Marshall, Mrs. Roland Chapman, Mrs. C. A. McKenna and Mrs. Frank McCauley. Mrs. Watson has been the guest of honor at several other functions since her arrival in the city. Last week Mrs. Clifford Marshall was hostess for a luncheon in her honor. Mrs. J. C. Olds gave a smart bridge luncheon for her Wednesday and Mrs. Robert Tucker entertained at an afternoon of cards followed by tea, Thursday afternoon.
