

Vaudeville for U-O Building to Be Social Event

JUNE 3, on the social calendar of Portland's social contingent, has been reserved for the society vaudeville to be given at the Helix theatre by a group of the city's most charming maids and young matrons and a few of the young bachelors. The program is far from that of amateur work and includes a number of most promising features which assure an evening of pleasure as well as a delightful opportunity to contribute once more to the cause of the woman's building of the University of Oregon.

Among those who will participate in the various acts are: Mrs. Cameron Squires, Mrs. Reade M. Ireland, Mrs. Alan Green, Mrs. Harry W. Metzger, Miss Rhoda Rummel, Miss Katharine Hart, Miss Louise Linthicum, Miss Katherine Hoyt, Miss Elizabeth Ducey, Miss Susan Chenery, Miss Marjorie Hall, Miss Katherine Laidlaw, Miss Mayne Helen Flynn, Miss Sally Adams of Seattle and Miss Jean Skene.

A number of Portland's most prominent musicians will also appear, among whom are George Natanson, formerly leading man with the Alcazar players. One number is supplied by the Portland Opera association, Mrs. Eloise Hall Cooke, Mrs. Mische Pelt, Miss Nina Dressel, Randolph Thomas and J. Ross Fargo. A group of well-known young bachelors will be hearers in various acts. The personnel of these players will be announced very soon.

The sale of tickets, in charge of the committee, which includes Mrs. Lawrence R. Wheeler (chairman), Miss Jean Mackenzie, Mrs. Arthur Mears and Miss Gladys Bowen, will begin Thursday afternoon in the hotels and department stores. This committee will be assisted by a number of society folk.

Mrs. Frank A. Freeman was hostess for a charmingly appointed bridge party of six tables at her home Wednesday afternoon. Spring blossoms were used in artistic arrangement throughout the rooms for the occasion. Card honors were awarded to Mrs. A. D. Gile, Mrs. W. S. Groh and Mrs. B. C. Darnall.

Mrs. Curly Bailey is spending a short time at the beach. Mrs. Meredith Bailey Sr. returned last week from a fortnight's visit at Sisters, Or., where she was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Bailey Jr. Mrs. Bailey will leave this week for the East, to be absent from the city until fall.

Mrs. W. T. Sexton and son Billy Jr. have arrived in Portland from Philadelphia. They are spending a few days at the Portland hotel, prior to making their home in Rose City Park. Mr. Sexton is traffic manager for the Columbia-Pacific Shipping company.

Mr. and Mrs. Varnel D. C. Beach are on their way East and will stop at Fort Worth, Texas, on their way to attend the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Menefee, a cousin of Mrs. Beach, and Theodore Burney Wilcox, which will be an event of June 9.

Mrs. Ruth M. Blake, who has been making her home with her mother, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell in Prospect drive for a time, left Sunday evening with her children for New York city where they will make their home.

A large number of young people of the Christian Endeavor society of the Vernon Presbyterian church, enjoyed a winner and marshmallow roast Tuesday night. They were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. E. Sink, Mrs. William Christie and Mrs. C. Hamilton.

MRS. THOMAS H. WEST and her daughters, Margaret and Kathryn, who left the city Friday for The Dalles, where they will reside. Mr. West is vice president of the Wasco County bank there.

Portland Rose Benefit Tea for Society to Hold Patton Home Is Private Showing Set for Friday

OF INTEREST to the members of the social contingent who are flower lovers will be the rose show given by the Portland Rose society on the opening day of the Rose Festival, June 21, at the flower center. This year's affair will include a private and invitational showing of the blossoms for the members of the society, after which the public will be admitted. Special features will be the Oriental setting in the display with special lighting effects and an artistic musical program. Tea will be served by dainty Chinese maidens during the private showing. Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons will be in charge of the musical program. Patronesses for the affair will include Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. William S. Ladd, Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth, Mrs. William D. Wright, Mrs. J. H. Etheridge, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Edwin Caswell, Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, Mrs. Frank J. Cobbe, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Miss Henrietta Palling.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus A. Metzger have returned from a five weeks' visit in New York city and other Eastern cities.

PhiAlphaKappa Sorority Dance Charming Affair

ONE of the delightful dancing parties of the season was given by the Phi Alpha Kappa sorority at the Laurelhurst club Friday evening. The club was beautifully decked with spring flowers and ferns.

The hostesses of the evening were: Mrs. Pauline Granning, Mrs. Louise Butler, Miss Lucille Maier, Mrs. Elsie Forsythe, Mrs. Ted Emerson, Mrs. Florence Briggs, Mrs. Eva Hadden, Mrs. Marie Raymond, Mrs. Helene Armstrong, Miss Elvira Anderson, Miss Virginia Brown, Miss Genevieve Hoffman, Miss Lina Brown, Miss Fay Beaver, Miss Louise Teasdale, Miss Verda Walters, Miss Edie Tyrell, Miss Joneva Frank, Miss Edna Flood.

The guests included: Alan Cutler, Jean McQuade, Lucille DeWitt, Marion Hoban, Lucille Abbott, Ethel Enser, Beth Ludlum, Lillian Enser, Gladys Morgan, Esther Peterson, Clarence Jones, Harold Mingen, Nellie McKenna, Betty Burk, Walter Anderson, Ted Emerson, Harold Cess, Holt Eblevans, George Phillips, Lloyd Vermillion, Dick Field, Charles Hadden, Esther Matheson, Pete Sharp, Roy Slayson, Dr. Boyd, Roland Banks, Lee Seufert, Robert Haymaker, Kenneth Morrison, Paul Dickinson, Ray Keller, Peggy Hylander, Nina Cools, Frank Bosch, Stanley Northrup, Ross Foremyth, Esper Hansen, Howard Butler, Stewart Young, Ray Maier, Burt Graninger, Helen Ahern, Charles Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Belland, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ackerson, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Niles.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Cameron, the latter formerly Miss Lois White, are being felicitated upon the arrival of a son, born Tuesday morning at the Vernon maternity hospital. The new arrival has been named James William Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Word are leaving Portland in the near future for an extended trip through the Northwest and in California. They will be absent about six weeks.

Miss Adrienne Weiss was hostess for a surprise party given Sunday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Barell at her home in Laurelhurst. The rooms were beautifully decorated with the season's flowers. Games, dancing and music were enjoyed.

A feature number was given by a talented dramatic student, Miss Florence Cohen. At 7:30 a supper was enjoyed and at midnight refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Anna Runes, Florence Cohen, Frieda Israel, Haneta Asher, Sonia Wilton, Frieda Vines, Esdie Cohen, Ruth Barell, Adrienne Weiss, and Messrs. Al Kafka, Boris Rosenberg, Jerome Weiss, Samuel Greenberg, Douglas Maynard, Morris Rothkow, Ben Rothkow, Ted McGrath, Hymen Spiko.

Mrs. and Dr. J. B. Roth were hosts for a musical and social party last Sunday at their residence, 1108 East Main street, in honor of their sons, Archie and Edgar, who returned from France a year ago. Those present were: Professor E. O. Spitzner, F. E. Francisco, Dr. J. K. Kehrer and cousin, Dr. R. W. Benjamin and family, Dale Hunter and mother, A. H. Hine and mother and sister, R. Sutcliffe, Jake Zeller, Miss Elsie Lewis, Miss Jessie Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Roth, A. Storis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis.

Miss Letta Hays entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Jeanette Boyer, whose wedding to Elmer F. Xanton of St. Paul, Minn., is to be an event of June. The rooms were artistically decorated with pink tulips. Sixteen guests enjoyed an evening of music, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Miss Boyer is a daughter of Professor William Boyer.

Ashland, May 29. — The fortnightly meeting of the Ashland Women's Relief Corps took the nature of a party with additional guests last week at the home of Mrs. Cliff Payne with assistant hostesses: Mesdames Lulu Howard, Maude Evans, Ida Jennings, L. A. Moss, J. B. Harrell and Sayles.

Miss Margaret Metzger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Metzger of 666 Flinders street, was quietly married to Everett Schmieding at her home Saturday. The young couple will make their home in Eugene, where Mr. Schmieding is employed in one of the lumber offices.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Norris of 574 Spruce street announce the engagement of their daughter, Nina, to Paul Van Wyk. The marriage will be an event of early July.

Mrs. O. H. Pithian and her daughter, Mrs. William Bertram Watson (Pauline Pithian) and the latter's children, Ruth and Paul, are spending a few days at Gearhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris A. Bell entertained with a family dinner party Wednesday evening at the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for seven.

Laurelhurst Men Give Children's Party Thursday

THE Laurelhurst club Tuesday evening men's unit gave a children's party at the clubhouse Tuesday evening. When some 20 couples dressed in "bib and tucker" enjoyed themselves as only children can. The turning back of the hour glass for a score or more of years was a decided success and their hearts seemed as light and gay as in the days when they wore the knickers and pinafores.

The fortnightly card party was held at the clubhouse Thursday evening with Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Lamb as hosts. The honors in bridge went to Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fullerton and in five hundred to Mrs. L. D. Johnson and F. W. Wegner.

The women's afternoon card party will be held at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Nelson R. Jacobson and Mrs. Fred D. Weber as hostesses. This is for members and their friends.

The fortnightly dancing party will be held at the clubhouse Thursday evening and is for members only.

Mrs. Edwin Seeley Parsons was hostess for an informal luncheon of six covers at the Portland hotel Tuesday afternoon honoring Miss Genevieve Thompson, who recently returned from the South, where she has been spending the winter months.

Mrs. Everett Babcock presided at an informal bridge tea Saturday afternoon at Waverley Country club for Mrs. Perry. Tables for bridge were placed for 13 guests and a number of additional friends called at the tea hour.

Mr. and Mrs. John William Lane (Rose Irving) have returned to the city from their wedding trip and are making their home at 303 East Thirty-third street.

Mrs. Frederick S. Belcher and Mrs. Hicks Fenton entertained informally Thursday afternoon honoring Mrs. Edith Ward Ferry of Everett, who is a visitor in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cobbe for a short time.

Miss Audrey Lucile Cavender became the bride of Dean R. E. Wright Wednesday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Cavender at 821

East Eleventh street, the Rev. J. E. Thomas of Calvary Baptist church officiating. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, covers being placed for 18 guests at a table centered with sweet peas. The bride was graduated from Washington high school and has many friends in the city. Mr. Wright is a young architect now employed in Tacoma, where they will make their home at 808 South Yakima avenue.

The assembly room of the Hotel Portland was the scene of a large and delightful card party given Wednesday afternoon by the St. Anna Charitable society to commemorate its thirty-eighth anniversary. Mrs. P. J. Flynn is president of the society, and Mrs. Joseph McCusker acted as chairman of the committee. Mrs. A. E. King, Mrs. J. P. Kavanaugh and Mrs. Florence Sullivan won the prizes at bridge, and Mrs. L. Williams, Mrs. Greenwood and Mrs. Dooley were the winners at five hundred. Mrs. Dan McGill had charge of the refreshments and was assisted by Mrs. Hennessey, Elizabeth Hume, Ellen Costello, Rachael Clark, Lyla Harter and Dorothy Shea.

Miss Eugenie Holderman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holderman, 564 East Taylor street, entertained a number of friends recently, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The rooms were profusely decorated, lilacs predominating in the color scheme. Dancing was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. The little guests were: Louise Watt, William Carter, Margaret West, Lorene Wolff, Lucille George, Irving Jagger, Gilderey Holderman, Carrie Oliver, Lewis Wallin, William Watson, Frances Hare, Fern Mowrey, Dudley Kleist, Haldane Harned, Edith Bader, Daisy Gerber, Mary Bracher, Helen Simmons, George Akers and Margaret Griffiths.

Mrs. Evan McFarland has been a visitor in the city from Seattle at the home of her sisters, Mrs. R. B. Northrup and Mrs. E. P. Sims, for the past fortnight. Her husband is at present in the Orient, and Mrs. McFarland, who is at present in Seattle for a brief visit, will spend most of her time here until he returns late in the summer.

The marriage of Miss Helen Louise Hansen to the Rev. Nordahl Brunn Thorpe will be an event of Wednesday at the Lutheran church in Fortmouth at 8 o'clock. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernhart Hansen of 1731 Portsmouth avenue.

To announce the engagement of their daughter Sarah to Michael Hodas, Mr. and Mrs. M. Surro will give a reception at their home today from 2 to 5.

Eastern Visitor Is Inspiration of Many Functions

AN INTERESTING visitor in the city is Mrs. Charles E. Foster of Philadelphia, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Holohan at their home in Laurelhurst. Mrs. Foster has been the inspiration for several functions during her brief stay in the city and will again be entertained at a bridge party next week at the home of her hostess.

During the past week Mrs. Holohan entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon of eight covers. Seated at the table, which was centered with pink roses, were Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Charles Ellis Preston, Mrs. Edward Keller, Mrs. Paul Sullivan, Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. M. Kleist, Mrs. David Atkins and the hostess. Later in the week Mrs. Holohan entertained at a smart bridge tea, her guests including Mrs. Foster, Mrs. George H. Cowan, Mrs. Harvey Ball, Mrs. C. Dobson, Mrs. J. W. (Janet) Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mrs. H. E. Alger, Mrs. L. A. Spangler, Mrs. Edward Morris, Mrs. J. P. Ball, Mrs. George O. Wentworth, Mrs. P. E. Eshenshade, Mrs. C. Buchanan, Mrs. O. D. Elliott, Mrs. Charles Gram and Mrs. C. Lamb.

This week Mrs. Holohan will also have as her guest Mrs. Ralph Cox of St. Joseph, Mo., who will spend a few weeks here.

St. Rose court No. 947, W. C. O. F. of which Mrs. Kate Hawes is chief ranger, planned a pleasant evening Tuesday to celebrate its eighth anniversary. Mrs. Rose Rittman, past high chief ranger of Chicago, who came to Oregon recently and resides in Rose City Park, was present and gave an enjoyable talk. Cards were the diversion of the evening and Mrs. McMahon of St. Dominics court was awarded the prize.

The marriage of Miss Mary Bacon and Charles T. Oimsted of Cleveland, Ohio, will be an event of June 18 at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Dallas Bacon, in Spring street. Miss Elizabeth Bacon, sister of the bride, will be her only attendant.

Waverly Social club and friends enjoyed another dancing and card party last Saturday evening. Plans are being made for a bridge and "bow" party on the afternoon of June 4, at their hall at Twenty-sixth and Clinton streets.

Million Dollar Fur Sale

See Monday Papers for Reductions

Beginning Tuesday
A Sale Greater in Scope Than Any Ever Attempted
A Million Dollars
Worth of Stylish Made-Up Furs

Reduced
25% to 50%

Simultaneously at
H. Liebes & Co.'s Five Stores

Tuesday Morning
at 9:30

H. Liebes & Co
ESTABLISHED 1864 FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

Tuesday Morning
at 9:30

This Store Will Be Closed All Day
Monday in Observance of Memorial Day

A Disposal Sale of Dresses
Tuesday

See Price Announcements in Monday Papers

H. Liebes & Co
ESTABLISHED 1864 FURS 149-151 BROADWAY

ESTABLISHED 1864 FURS 149-151 BROADWAY