Aesthetic Dance Fete to Be Given Next Saturday

A BRILLIANT spectacle is anticipated in the dance fete to be given Saturday afternoon in the gardens surrounding the home of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett in Sixth street. The program will be presented for the benefit of the Women's building of the University of Oregon, instead of for the Y. W. C. A., and the numbers will be offered under the direction of Miss Jean Wold, instructor.

Interpretations of musical compositions including several numbers from the Chopin waltzes and a group of Brahms' Hungarian dances will be features of the program. A five piece orchestra will furnish music for the dancers and the program will begin at 3:30 o'clock. Admission will be $1.

The MacDowell club, of which Mrs. Warren E. Thomas is president, will act as patron for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Steele of Chicago, former residents of Portland, will attend the Imperial council meeting, Nobles of Mystic Shrine, in June. They will accompany the delegation from Medinah temple of Chicago. Mr. Steele was formerly manager of Page Belting company, Pacific coast, now Western sales manager with headquarters at Chicago. Mrs. Steele was active in Portland club circles, being at one time recording secretary of the Portland Woman's club, vice president of the Portland Psychology club, member of the Laurelhurst club, Y. W. C. A. and other bodies. Their home was in Laurelhurst, and was one of the pioneer residences of that section. They are looking forward with pleasure at seeing their many friends again. Both their children, Richard and Dorothy, were born in Portland, and are loyal Oregonians.

Social, artistic and financial success have attended the various benefit affairs given within the past few weeks by the Daughters of Isabella. A goodly sum has been netted from the minstrel show, the rummage sale and the May festival and this money will be used in furnishing the cottage at Seaside, which the Daughters recently leased. The May festival, which was given Thursday evening, was a pretentious and beautiful affair and was witnessed by an audience which filled the hall to the doors. Every number was enthusiastically applauded. The Daughters wish to express their sincere appreciation to all of those who in any way assisted in making a success of their recent ventures.

William McKinley post, G. A. R., and ladies of the W. R. C. will hold their memorial exercises Monday at 9:40 o'clock, in the I. O. O. F. hall, corner Eightieth and Gisan streets. A good program will be given. The invitations are extended to all interested.

Mrs. A. D. MacIntyre (Dorothy Josselyn) and her husband (John J. MacIntyre) are making a visit in Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Josselyn at 786 Johnson street.

Mrs. Julius Louison left for The Dalles Tuesday evening to visit at the home of the Misses Lang.

TWO of the charming dancers who will appear in the dance fete at the home of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett Saturday for the benefit of the U. of O. women's building, are Mrs. Pauline Garrigues and Mrs. Hazel Fassett.

Many Affairs Are Planned by T.P.A. Auxiliary

MANY are the affairs being planned by the Travelers' Protective Association auxiliary, Post A, for the entertainment of the wives and families of T. P. A. members, who will attend the convention held in Portland, June 14 to 20. A luncheon for several hundred women will be held June 15 in the assembly room, Multnomah hotel, for the women guests. Mrs. Dudley Clark will be soloist on this occasion. On June 16 a "rose tea" will be held at Peninsula park in the sunken rose gardens. Stringed orchestras will provide music and a program consisting of singing and dancing has been arranged. Refreshments will be served and a number of pretty girls will be present with baskets of roses for the visitors. The Hellie theatre has been reserved for the evening of June 16, and the ladies will enjoy the comedy success "Clarence," while the men enjoy their annual "stag jinks."

Portland women who will attend the supreme convention of the Daughters of the Nile at Seattle Monday and Tuesday include Mrs. H. T. Hutchinson, Mrs. Hugh J. Boyd and Mrs. Walter J. Holman, delegates from Nydia temple. Mrs. Hutchinson, queen of the Portland organization, will make the response to the address of welcome at the convention.

The Iowa state society will hold its regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the Turn Verein hall, Thirteenth and Main streets. A good program will be furnished with dancing and refreshments to follow. All former residents of Iowa are invited.

The President's association of the Ladies of the G. A. R. will hold an important meeting Tuesday at 2 o'clock at Wall's hall, corner Lexington avenue. Woodstock car.

Memory Party Held in Honor Of Mrs. Albert

IN memory of her mother, Mrs. Jane G. Albert, one of the pioneer residents of Salem, Mrs. G. A. Rockwell of 131 East Nineteenth street, Portland, was hostess for a birthday party at the Patton home for the aged on the 100th anniversary of her mother's natal day, which fell upon May 21. This is an annual event at the home and much anticipated by the residents, who are assured each year of a delightful afternoon through the kindly offices of Mrs. Rockwell.

Flowers decked the rooms of the home for the affair and a program of varied numbers delighted the old people. Dr. Henry Walter Nugent opened the program with a delightful talk on "Mothers." Other numbers included songs by Rev. and Mrs. Alexander Long, the former making a brief informal talk to the guests, a dancing number by Miss Gene Alice Frazier, a recitation by Joy Rood, and a reading by Mrs. William Amos. Refreshments, served by Mrs. Rockwell and her friends, followed the program.

Miss Akers and Richard Word Wed Saturday

MISS MARIAN AKERS became the bride of Richard Word at a quiet wedding at the home of her mother, Mrs. George William Akers, in Wlataria avenue Saturday. The service was read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Oswald Taylor of the Grace Memorial Episcopal church in the presence of a small company of friends and relatives of the bridal couple. For her wedding gown the bride wore a smart tulle of white with a chic hat of taffeta to match and carried an arm bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Sue Akers, and preceding the ceremony Miss Emily Akers, another sister, sang the bridal hymn. Harry Word, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to 20 guests at the bride's home. Following a brief honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Word will return to Portland where they will occupy the residence of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Word, for six weeks, during the absence of the latter. Later the young couple will be located elsewhere in the city.

Mrs. Putnam of Eighty-seventh and Gisan streets entertained the women of the Hope Presbyterian church with a silver tea Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Richard Jones sang a group of songs with Mrs. Pepin at the piano. Mrs. Maud Gilman and Mrs. Neelan presided at the tea table. Mrs. H. E. Gies and Mrs. Pepin assisted the hostess. The rooms were decorated with tulips and poppies.

The members of the building committee of the Knights of Columbus met for luncheon in the blue room of the Hotel Portland Wednesday. Covers were laid for 30. P. J. Hanley was chairman of the committee in charge.
