

$75,000 IN THREE YEARS PROMISED TO REED COLLEGE

Reed college has been promised an annuity of $25,000 for three years by the general education board at New York city, following the recent visit in Portland of Wallace Buterick, secretary of that board, and Dr. Abraham Flexner of the Rockefeller foundation.

A proviso of the gift announced Wednesday by the board of trustees of the college is that the institution post an additional $25,000 annually to match the gift of the board. That this will be done is promised by the trustees, who declare that they already have been assured $20,000 a year.

The gift of the general education board, which follows very close upon the heels of the visit here of the trustees, makes possible the enlargement of the scope of Reed's work through the employment of much needed instructors, the college trustees declare.

In connection with the announcement of the gift the trustees have revealed plans for the construction of a cottage for women at the college from the $25,000 fund, which comes to the school from the Anna M. Mann estate. The fund will provide the cottage and a social service center.

Passenger Trains Endangered by Man Supposedly Insane

The Dalles, June 3.—Passenger trains might have been wrecked when coming into The Dalles Tuesday night if John Madden of Portland, believed to be a former soldier of the Ninety-first division, had not been nabbed while breaking switch lights in the east end of the railway yards. His detention led to the discovery that he already had broken every light for three miles west of town. Madden was led to jail. He made no resistance, only jabbering insanely to the officers.

"There are forces working against me," he cried, "to prevent me from working where and when I want to. I made up my mind to get even by making somebody else suffer."

He will be examined for his sanity.

S. P. & S. Officials Visit Astoria; Plan New Station There

Astoria, June 3.—A party of S. P. & S. officials, made up of L. C. Gilmah, president; A. J. Davidson, general manager, and G. E. Botaw, superintendent, arrived Wednesday in the president's private car.

The visitors spent the afternoon with J. H. Corbett, the company's local agent, making an inspection of the local terminal in connection with plans for improvements, which will include increased trackage in the yards to more than double the present capacity, and the preliminary work for the proposed new passenger depot.

Albany High School Students Graduated

Albany, June 3.—Wednesday was the final day of school for 51 graduates of Albany high school, who were presented diplomas at exercises in the First Methodist church before a large audience. Dr. Wallace Lee Howe, ex-president of Albany college, delivered the

Newlywed Flees for Life When Old Fire Station Is Burned

A Portland fire station nearly burned down Wednesday evening, the damage being roughly estimated at $2000.

There wasn't a company at the old building at Mississippi avenue and Shaver street, however, the place having been turned over to Fireman Frank Todhunter and his wife, newlyweds.

Just as Mrs. Todhunter rushed out of the front door the hot water tank on the second floor exploded and the concussion was so terrific that windows in the front were shattered. A few seconds slower and she would have been scalded.

The first started from the stove, spreading to the walls and climbing to the belfry, where the bell used to hang that in the old days summoned the volunteer fire fighters.

Todhunter is an inspector of hydrants and fire fighting apparatus for the department.

Astoria Elks Coming With Special Train

Astoria, June 3.—Arrangements are about complete for a special train to carry Astoria Elks to Portland Saturday, when they and the team of the local lodge, by special request, will initiate a large class of Portlanders into the mysteries of Elksdom. From present indications more than 250 Astorians will make the trip.

DR. MORRISON WINS PLEADINGS POINT IN LAND HEARING

The fourth amended complaint of the Episcopal school board against Dr. A. A. Morrison, rector of Trinity church and a member of the board, cannot be filed in its present form. So Circuit Judge McCourt held this morning.

He declared that the school board waived its right to pursue the property which it alleges was secured through the use of a trust fund when it elected in its first complaint to demand a personal accounting. He indicated, however, that with some eliminations, the new complaint might be admissible, but attorneys for the school board did not state definitely what action they would take.

This is the suit in which the school board charges that Dr. Morrison manipulated a trust fund of $25,000 so that 100 acres of land for a school for boys was purchased for the board and in the same deal Morrison became possessed of 915 acres adjacent. The board sought the return of the $25,000 and also reimbursement for $30,000 of outlay in building, etc., on the 100 acres. Its latest move was to have all the property connected with these transactions placed in the custody of the court to be administered for the benefit of all parties.

Seaside Attracts On Memorial Day

Seaside, June 3.—Saturday, Sunday and Monday were big days for the beach. A record crowd came down by auto and train. The rooming houses were filled and restaurants did a big business, some of them being obliged to shut down, owing to lack of supplies and help. The gasoline shortage was the cause of a great number of cars being stalled here and as high as $1 a gallon was offered.

Soviet Peace Offer Accepted by Finns

Washington, June 3.—(I. N. S.)—Finland has accepted the offer of the Russian soviet government to inaugurate peace terms, according to advices received by the state department this afternoon. The peace conference would be held at Dorpat, on June 10.

Amended Inheritance Tax Law Is Upheld

That in amending the inheritance law, it was not the intention of the state legislature to change the law so as to make the state liable for the inheritance tax, and that the $10,000 exemption applies to every heir under the law, was the ruling made Wednesday afternoon by Judge Tawell in the proceedings to determine the amount of inheritance due the state on the estate of John Clark, who died in Multnomah county, leaving an estate of more than $652,000.

Woman Hurt When Gasoline Explodes

Mrs. R. W. Montague, wife of R. W. Montague, Portland attorney, received severe burns on her hands, arms and face Wednesday afternoon at her residence, 251 North Thirty-second street, when gasoline, with which she was cleaning a coat, exploded. Friction caused the explosion.

Finds Stranded Salmon
Baker, June 3.—Joseph Kling, a Burnt river farmer, who lives near Andrey, reports that while he was irrigating a meadow last week he discovered a large salmon floundering on the grass, gasping for water. The fish was 3 feet long, he says, and must have become entrapped in an irrigation ditch that leads from the main stream. Andrey is 50 miles from Snake river, of which Burnt river is a tributary.

Will YOU Profit by the Experience of the Truscon Steel Company?

The Truscon Steel Company of Youngstown, Ohio, is using 45 Dictaphones. The result is that a greater volume of correspondence now passes through the several departments. Mr. G. Kahn, Sales Manager, says: "We ascribe this to the ease with which our dictators can dispose of all matter that calls for immediate attention."

Your office may be large or small. No matter. We are ready to install Dictaphones and let you see for yourself, on your work, how The Dictaphone speeds up correspondence and how much time and money it will save for you. Say the word and we will give you a demonstration.

THE DICTAPHONE

"The Shortest Route to the Mail-Clute"

Western Union Telegraph Company, J. H. Webster, Vice-President in charge of Commercial Department, says: "The Dictaphone is in extensive use in our various departments and is giving good satisfaction. After The Dictaphone was tried out experimentally in the first instance, a short experience showed it to be a time-and-money saver. Our use of The Dictaphone has grown steadily."

Hartford Accident and Indemnity Co., Hartford, Conn., A. V. Cornell, Supervisor Audit Department at Chicago, says: "The 14 Dictaphones in our Audit Department at Chicago speed up letter production. They make it possible for our executives and their assistants to dictate every detail of an important subject while it is fresh in their minds. For after-office-hour dictating, The Dictaphone is indispensable."
