

FARMS FOR SALE or TRADE

1250 acre stock ranch, near Eugene, about 200 in cultivation, about 700 mighty fine plow land when cleared, balance seeded down to grass, well watered; close to railroad, store, churches, etc. Old bldg. This place has the making of a first class stock ranch. Only $25 per acre. Any kind of terms or will trade.

Mission Bottom

500 acres in mission bottom, near Salem, 400 in cultivation, old buildings, on main road. This is gilt edge at $110 an acre. Will sell on very easy terms, or will trade for good building and assume some.

Stocked and Equipped

233 acres, near Sheridan, 140 in cultivation, 40 acres young orchard; new, modern bungalow, bath, toilet, etc. Another good 6 room house, splendid water system, good big barn. Personal property: 13 cows, 10 yearlings and some calves, 2 spans mules, 1 team, hogs, chickens and all equipment and crops. Everything goes for $30,000 and it is cheap at this price. Will sell on very easy terms, or will take some trade for part of purchase price.

Clarke County

320 acres, near Vancouver, 120 in cultivation, strictly modern set of buildings. The show place of Clarke county. Price $35,000. This is just about what the buildings cost.

Another Good One.

262 acres, Troutlake locality, almost all in cultivation, full set bldgs. This is first class bottom land worth every cent asked for it. $100 per acre. Want city property.

Irrigated

Several 40 acre tracts located in Teal irrigation project at Echo, highly recommended by Farmer Smith of the O-W. R. & N. Co. These are some of the choicest tracts in the entire project at only $60 per acre. Terms to suit.

If you are wanting anything in the farm line no matter kind or size, write or call on

NEW TODAY
Caldwell, Idaho, June 5.—Business men of this city and farmers of the community have gone into the railroad business. They have purchased the Schreie Electric railroad, extending from this city to McNeil and the far famed Deer Flat potato belt. The purchase was announced by W. R. Schreie that he would discontinue operation of the line early in June, as it has been a financial failure. The purchase price was $250,000.

Pressure up to $75,000 pounds to the square inch is employed in a new machine for squeezing beets into place and forming heads on them.

G. R. Hitt of Boise Chosen President Of Idaho Bankers

Moscow, Idaho, June 5.—The Idaho Bankers association closed its sixteenth annual convention this evening and adjourned, leaving the place of holding the next meeting to the executive committee. The session, covering two days, is said to have been the best in its history. More than 150 bankers attended, including some from New York, Portland, San Francisco, Seattle and Spokane.
G. R. Hitt, cashier of the Overland National bank of Boise, was elected president; E. M. Ehrhardt, president Empire National bank, Lewiston, vice president; J. W. Robinson, Boise, secretary (re-elected for the fifth time); and G. R. C. Painter, cashier of State bank of Middleton; treasurer. These, with P. M. Gardner, cashier Fruitland State bank, Fruitland, and J. S. Heckathorn, cashier First National bank of Moscow, form the board of directors.
