MRS. EDWARD FERRY of Everett, Wash., who is a visitor in the city at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs, has been the center of much social attention during the past fortnight. During the past week she was the guest of honor at an informal dinner at the country home of Dr. and Mrs. Hicks Fenton in Tualatin valley on Monday evening. On Tuesday, Mrs. F. S. Belcher entertained the visitor at an informal luncheon. On Wednesday, Mrs. Cobbs entertained informally for her with a few tables of bridge. At the tea hour, Mrs. L. A. Thirty-five girls chosen from the classes of Miss Jean Wold participated in the dance pageant given in the gardens surrounding the home of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett in Sixth street Saturday afternoon to raise funds for the woman's building at the University of Oregon. Chopin waltzes and Hungarian dances from the studies of Brahms were interpreted by the flying feet and graceful forms of the young dancers who wore flowing robes patterned after those of the old dancers of Greece. Society was well represented in the number of guests who attended the affair and the early summer skies smiled down upon the young dancers who tripped to the strains of a stringed orchestra, beneath the trees. The MacDowell club, of which Mrs. Warren E. Thomas is president, acted as patroness for the affair and a number of women of the social contingent looked after details of the arrangements for the function.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Erwin were hosts for a delightful week end house party at the home of Mrs. Erwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Diteman, who own the Arbor Vitae stock farm near St. Helens. The party motored out Saturday afternoon, returning to the city Tuesday evening. Guests included Dr. and Mrs. William Fiebig, Mr. and Mrs. Leon H. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mrs. Arthur Myers, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hill, Mrs. Helen Hall Cudlipp, Miss Lucille Evans, Urban S. Diteman Jr.
