Lodge in Rhetorical Plea to Return Republican Party to Power

REPUBLICANS ARE HAILED AS PARTY

strike at the very life of the American principles upon which our government has always rested. The return of the Democrats to power with Mr. Wilson or one of his disciples still the leader and master of a great party, which before his advent possessed both traditions and principles, would be a long step in the lirection of autogracy for which Mr. Wilson yearns and a heavy blow to the santinuance of free representative government as we have always conceived ind venerated it.

NEED OF A FIRM HAND

We have watched and waited long enough. It is time that this condition, distraceful to us and ruinous to Mexico, should cease. We need a firm hand at the helm. We need a man who will think not only of the rights of the United States but of the welfare of Mexico. The Mexican people would not restricted by the states in the world and the bring them peace under a president of their own choosing. The great mass of the Mexican people wish to work and earn gnoney. They long to be able to sleep in peace and not to be subject to pillage and outrage. Thousands of them can group and upping the man who is friendly to the United States and determined to establish order and then let the United States give him a real and cordial support, and so strengthen and uphold him port, and so strengthen and uphold him civil war which has well night completely ruined one of the finest and most valuable countries on the face of the sarth. We must watch and wait me longer. We must have a man who have extended the same and the same to the United States that a shame to the United States that was not of hopeless failure in Mexico, the put an end to this Mexican site untion, which is a shame to the United States that who have search and professional the put and the put a
