Clubs Respond Generously To Fund

By Vella Winner
ONE of the interesting reports given at the convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs held last week in Enterprise, was that made by the committee in charge of collecting funds for the woman's building at Eugene. The contributions for the year follow:

- Spokane Fairlylight club, $500; Dallas Women's club, $100; ...

THE Stroller notices

THAT after you've been home for a couple of days after a trip it seems as though you had never been away at all.

That downtown electric light posts are all wearing wooden overcoats.

That they will probably look more attractive after they get the rest of their decoration.

That the new arch of welcome at Sixth and Alder will make a nice shady retreat for the traffic officer on duty there.

That the paths in the woods, well defined and easy to follow in the winter time, are now nearly obliterated by new green growth.

That wild flowers are growing in profusion.

That the gooseberries are ripening.

That the Littlest One didn't realize that there are a dozen thorns for every berry.

That the inspiring conservation campaign is getting some results.

That there are fewer automobiles on the streets.

That there are more strap-hangers in the streetcars.

That a fine new baseball diamond has been laid out at Benson Park.

That we were the last victim for the first mosquito that attacked us.

That we hit him so hard that we're still black and blue.

That the grass in old postoffice square is going into temporary retirement.

That it no sooner gets well started than someone builds a grandstand all over it.

That the tattered and torn flag still flaps on the "Liberty pole" at the corner of Sixth and Morrison.

That it should surely be replaced by a new one before the visitors begin to arrive.

That some unknown friend of the column is glad we're back.

That he can't get us out of bed at half after midnight to tell us so.

That the little woman who catches up the "runners" in our "toes" is busy replenishing the family larder.

That she finds that the h. c. l. is just about as hot as ever.

That we'll knock the spots off it when the garden comes into bearing.

That the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hudson was celebrated Friday evening at their home in Troutdale.

That the Bend Study club met Monday at the home of Mrs. F. Demont with Mrs. R. Leary as hostess.

That the Woodburn Women's club held its last meeting for the year in the form of a picnic at the home of Mrs. H. F. Butterfield on the Pacific highway.

That the Highland Parent-Teacher association will hold its last meeting of the season in the assembly room of the Highland school on Wednesday evening, June 9, commencing at 8 o'clock.

That the Portland Women's Social Science club will hold its last meeting of the season Thursday, June 10, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. E. Cooper, 4815 Seventy-fifth street southeast.

That the Mount Scott Mental Culture club held its annual party and installation of officers at the home of Mrs. Janet Gesell, 6119 Eighty-ninth street south east, last Thursday.

St. Helens Hall Graduates To Meet

By Helen E. Hutcheson
THE Society of Graduates of St. Helens hall will hold its annual reunion at the University club Saturday.

A luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, to be followed by the usual business meeting, which will include the election of officers, who are chosen once in three years.

Miss Jocelyn Poulton, retiring president of the society, will preside at the luncheon. Miss Consuelo McMillan will extend welcome to the senior class.

The 1920 graduates, with Bishop and Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, will be guests of honor.

For Wednesday evening numerous line parties have been arranged for the society vaudeville, which will be given by local talent at the Helig theatre.

Under the direction of Mrs. David T. Honeyman the programs have been well arranged and the advertising space has been disposed of with unusual success.

Miss Rhoda Bumelin is in charge of the sale of boxes and has been most successful in her part of the work.

Among the box holders will be Mrs. C. H. Davis, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. Edmund L. Devereaux, Mrs. Cameron Spulter, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Mary Scarborough, Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs, Eric V. Hansen, Mrs. Thomas Sionas, Mrs. Joseph N. Neal and C. F. Swigert.

Members of the Portland Opera association, as well as a number of the local theatrical men of the Orpheum, the Baker Stock company and of the Helig theatre have lent their assistance for the success of the vaudeville, which will be given for the benefit of the woman's building of the University of Oregon.

Eastern Star members and their friends are looking forward with interest to the dancing and card party to be given by Portland Social club of Portland chapter No. 77, O. E. S. at Tryblan temple, Park and Yamhill streets, formerly the Masonic temple, this evening, J. E. Wallis is chairman of the committee.

Patrons for the affair are the worthy matrons of the city chapters.

The dance at the Irvington club, to be given Thursday evening by the girls of community service, is the first of a series of out-of-door parties planned for the summer.

The Women of Rotary and others interested in the community service movement are to be patronesses.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Olga Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Everett, and James Frankland of Seattle. The marriage will be solemnized at Piedmont Presbyterian church Saturday evening June 26, at 8:30 o'clock.

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hudson was celebrated Friday evening at their home in Troutdale.

Mr. Hudson is mayor of the little city and is well known in

Juveniles Will Have Real Rose Show

ALL AROUND Boyville and Girlville the news buzzed Monday evening.

"Did you read about it in The Journal? You know, the big rose show for the children at the time all the Shriners will be here."

"There are going to be prizes, too. Medals and money every day, June 21, 22 and 23."

"They're going to give us a whole section of the general rose show on the park block between Columbia and Clay streets. I'll bet the children's show will be the best of all."

The Journal has the same idea. That's the reason The Journal accepted the invitation of the Portland Rose society to arrange for the children's rose show. It will be a hummer. A thousand exhibits of a rose each for three days. No rules or regulations—just bring the rose, with the name, address and school written on the tag, which will be printed in The Journal in due time.

Then we'll see whether boys or girls bring the best roses; also whether the prizewinners live in Portland or some other town of Oregon.

The first prize each day is a medal made in the United States mint at Washington, D. C. The medals were secured by the American Rose society to encourage rosegrowing among boys and girls. Each will have engraved upon it the name of its winner.

The two second prizes each day are $5.00 each, and the five third prizes are $1 each, offered by The Journal.

The thing to do is to find the likeliest rose bushes and watch over them carefully. Don't let anything happen to the buds. Then, when the rose show opens, bring the finest to the children's exhibit and show the grown-ups what a regular show is like.

Veteran Advance Man Is in Town

E. W. Haynes, ahead of "Clarence," the Booth Tarkington show, booked for the Helig next Wednesday night for the rest of the week, is in Portland, this being, according to W. T. Pangle, Mr. Haynes' "one hundred and eighth annual visit to Portland."

Manager Pangle means, of course, only to convey the impression that Mr. Haynes is one of the old-timers in the theatrical advance game. "Clarence," which has been running in New York 18 months, featuring Alfred Lunt, who was seen in Portland two years ago in "The Country Cousin," is touted as one of the big comedy successes of recent years.

"Out on the Plains" Is Oaks Offering

"Out on the Plains," which is this week's bill by the Adelphi musical comedy company at the Oaks park theatre, is a musical comedy full of animated situations and songs. It is put over with a dash and spontaneity that pleases.

The bill, like all others produced by the company, is under the personal direction of Frank L. Wakefield, who also plays the role of Steve Curtis, deputy sheriff in an Arizona village. The features of the bill, which runs all week, are the songs and the rush of funny situations. Minerva Urelka sings "Rackety Coo" with animation and sweetness. Martha Stieble,
