

Blue and Gold Athletes Have Won Interscholastic League Honors Five Times

Jefferson Hi Athletes Set Record

Blue and Gold Team Have Won Track and Field Honors With Great Regularity.

By Earl R. Goodwin

JEFFERSON high school always has taken a prominent part in athletics in the Portland Interscholastic league since its entrance in the circuit in 1910, but there is one branch of athletics that the Democrats have proven to be champions in with uncanny regularity. The east siders have turned out track and field squads that have been able to show the way in the annual gathering on Multnomah field for the last five seasons.

The first track title was taken by Hopkin M. Jenkins school in 1915 and since then none of the other institutions have been able to wrest the banner from the holders. In 1917 the meet was called off because of the war activities.

Portland Academy, now a thing of the past, captured the first meet in 1906. The next two seasons the championship was won by the West Side high, now known as Lincoln high. The East Side high school, now the Washington high, took a fling at track for the first time in 1907 but only three points were awarded the colonials. Nothing was scored by Washington the following year, but Coach Veatch's aggregation came out with a bang in 1909 and romped off with the highest honors.

COLUMBIA HOLDS HONORS.

A close race for the team trophy was offered the fans in 1910. Portland Academy no longer was on the track and field points, 35 to 32. For the next two campaigns the East Siders held sway, in fact, they took everything in sight and there was little opposition. Washington made 62 as against 22 for the west side rivals in 1911 and one year later three of the 62 points were lost.

Then for two years Columbia university reigned supreme on the track and field only to have Jefferson high step in and grab off the easy winnings in 1915. Since then Jefferson has had some mighty well balanced teams to back up its reputation.

CLOSEST MEET IN 1911

The largest number of points scored by any team in the annual track and field meet of the Interscholastic league is 62, made by Washington high in 1911. The closest battle for first honors occurred in 1916 when Lincoln high made a desperate bid to break into the win column. The effort was too much for Jefferson who out, 39 to 28.

ONE RECORD BROKEN

One record was broken in the 1920 meet and it was overlooked at the time. Kenneth Scott of Washington high leaped the discus a distance of 119 feet 10 inches and it broke the previous mark of "Duke" Devonshire made in 1916. Devonshire was competing for Columbia university and threw the platter 117 feet 9 inches. Grilley of Jefferson high made a leap that broke into the 101.5 seconds and it tied the local league mark. L. Dart, Johnny Baker, Dick Grant, Oscar Gorecky and Maurice Snook have all broken the record books for making the same time.

Louis Coulter, the star Jefferson high sprinter, is going to attend University of Pennsylvania in September according to his present plans. Two or three other institutions of learning have been after his services but he is leaning toward Penn. While at Jefferson high he made his letter in baseball, basketball, football and track and was a big star in all branches.

BEST RECORDS OF YEAR

- Following are the best records made in interscholastic circles of Oregon for the 1920 track and field season:

Seattle Gun Club Sets Date for Shoot

The annual trapshooting tournament of the Sportsmen's Association of the Northwest will be held over the Fort Lawton traps of the Seattle Gun club during the four-day period beginning July 23. The shoot was originally scheduled to be held during the latter part of June, but was postponed because it was impossible to get the traps in shape. The new Seattle grounds are said to rank among the finest in the Northwest.

Lady Astor Wants U.S. Pro. to Coach Her

London, June 12.—(I. N. S.)—Lady Nantux Astor has cabled George Savers of Philadelphia inviting him to come to England to coach her at golf.

The American born peeress has entered for the Parliamentary golf competition at Sandwich, June 12, and wants to finish among the best six. With lessons from Savers, she believes she could win. He has replied that he is unable to make the journey.

RUSH RAZEE, famous Nebraska trapshooter, who will be a participant in the Shriners' tournament of the Portland Gun club, Sunday, June 20.

BRITISH GOLFERS IN EXHIBITIONS THREE SCHEDULED TO PLAY IN OPEN

NEW YORK, June 12.—(I. N. S.)—Harry Vardon and Ted Ray, crack English golfers who are coming to the U.S. to compete in the national open golf tournament at the Inverness club, Toledo, beginning August 19, will be kept busy during their stay on this side of the Atlantic.

In addition to playing in the national open the British stars will make an extensive tour of the country. They will leave England July 7, arriving here about the middle of the month, and their first appearance will be at the Siwanoy Country club either July 18 or 20.

From Siwanoy the English cranks will go to Shawnee to compete in the annual open tournament there and, as a majority of the golfing stars in this country generally participate in the Shawnee event, Vardon and his partner will have their first brushes with the cream of American club swingers.

THE JOHNNY BULL CHAMPIONS will visit Scarsdale Country club July 23, and will probably meet Tom McNamara and Jack Dowling, Woodmere and Apawamis will be visited in turn following the exhibition at Scarsdale, and then will come the big show of the tour, at Shenecott Country club, New London, Conn.

Vardon and Ray then will go to Springfield, Mass., after that to New Britain and then to the Belmont Spring Country club at Waverly, Mass., where they will tee off in a match with Francis Outmet, their conqueror in 1918, and Jesse Guilford. Great interest is already being shown in the contest, which will be staged July 30. The next day the English pair will face Outmet and probably Oswald Kirby at the Brookline Country club.

HARNESS AND HAGEN TO TEAM

The Hollywood Country club of New Jersey has the next call on the Englishmen from abroad, and it is likely that a purse of $1000 will be hung up when they appear there to play Barnes and Elton for the second time of their tour. From Jersey the Britons will start playing westward, taking in Scranton, Youngstown, Detroit (where they will probably meet Hagen and Brady), and arriving at Toledo for the national open tour.

CHARLES PADDOCK, the Southern California sprinter, may arrive in Boston about July 1, so as to be accommodated for the national track and field championships in the Harvard stadium, July 17.

Max Borland of the Paulist Athletic club of New York, former national cross country champion, has been granted final naturalization papers. He was born in Germany. He will be eligible for the 10,000 meter run of the Olympic games.

The national industrial track and field championships will be held in Carnegie Tech amphitheatre, July 2. It is an amateur body and will bring together many prominent athletes employed in various plants.

England has never been beaten in the international cross-country championship race since it was inaugurated in 1903. Usually Scotland, Ireland and France sent teams to the race.

Blaisy rifle competition in England will distribute $25,500 in prize money. The English will send a team to Australia to compete for the empire challenge trophy in August.

Princeton may send a track team to England this summer to compete against a combined Oxford and Cambridge squad.

University of Kentucky will erect a modern concrete stadium in five sections, a section each year for the next five years.

Ohio State university athletic department members will receive a 25 per cent increase, effective in September.

Jack Scholz of University of Missouri weighs 115 pounds. He will try for sprinting honors in American Olympic team.

Princeton has not won the Eastern intercollegiate track and field championship since 1876, the first competition.

England is raising $150,000 to defend the polo trophy against America in 1921.

Philadelphia boasts the largest ice skating building in this country.

COAST ATHLETES HANG UP GOOD MARKS RECORDS OF BIG MEETS ARE COMPARED

PACIFIC coast athletes showed their heels to their Eastern rivals in eight events of the track and field program of the 1920 season, according to a comparison of the records of the four big meets.

Two Oregon boys—Jack Merchant of Marshfield, Or., and Willard Wells of Portland, representing California and Stanford made the best marks in the hammer throw and 220 low hurdles, respectively, in the national meet at Philadelphia. Hendrixson, the California quarter miler, also beat the best 440 m. in the East.

N. W. SET TWO

Eldon Jenne of Washington State college hung up the best pole vault record, 12 feet 1 inch, and Hank Webster, captain of the University of Oregon team, made the best broad jump, 23 feet 10 inches.

The number of best marks made in each of the big meets follow: National, eight; Pacific coast, four; Big Ten, two, one trying made in Coast meet, and Northwest, two.

Faddock of the University of Southern California is credited with traveling the 100 yard dash in 9.4-5 seconds, which equals the best time made in any conference meet.

WINNERS IN MEETS

Following are the winners in the four meets, the cream of which will represent America in the Olympic games:

ELLER WON'T MISS HIS "SHINE BALL" DURING BIG RACE

New Pitching Rules Have No Effect on Work of Star Hurler of Champions.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 12.—(I. N. S.)—Hod Eller, star big league baseball twirler, who lives near Springfield and plays "back lot" games in the off season, will be unhampered by the recent decision of the baseball commission to ban "shine balls. Last year Hod was considered as the most proficient "shine" ball deliverer in the game.

"Here is what he says about the new rules: 'It's true I had a spot on my trouser leg soaked in paraffine and that I put a smooth spot on the ball by rubbing the pill on this paraffine, but that smooth spot was not worth anything less—there was a rough spot on the opposite side of the ball. 'This rough spot never was put there by me. It usually came through the ball hitting the stand or a rough surface on the field. I got so I depended too much on the "shiner" in the pinches. I bluffed with it a lot, but seldom threw one unless I was up against it. Now, if I had a rough spot on the ball I must have the ball thrown out. Nor can I any longer rub the ball on my clothing. 'To replace that brand of pitching I am going to try throwing the ball from different positions. I'll show them some real stepping around on the rubber this season and beat the bats in the batter's box at all angles possible. With my great speed I believe I'll be more effective than with the shiner, which never accomplished a great deal for me, anyway.'

INTEREST IN THE coming of the Britonners was enlivened a few days ago by the announcement from Toledo that Abe Mitchell is coming to America to take part in the national open tournament. Mitchell was originally scheduled to come across with Vardon and Ray, but the press of business at home forced him to cancel his trip. Since that time pressure was brought to bear by Lord Northcliffe, one of the officials of Mitchell's club, and by Ray, who is competing in the open tournament against Hagen, Barnes, Outmet, Evans and a host of others, the big event will have a decided international flavor and attract has been staged since the British players bowed to Outmet back in 1913.

Portland Gun Club To Erect New Home

Although plans for the new home of the Portland Gun club at Jenne Station are still in the making, the members of the organization at a special meeting last Wednesday afternoon practically agreed upon the construction of a one-story building.

The club room will extend the entire front of the building, with lockers in the main room. Living rooms of the superintendent of the club will be in back of the main club room. The plans also call for a covered porch in front and at the west side of the building.

Members of the club have subscribed nearly $4000 for the building fund. A meeting will be called in the near future to make a final decision on the plans.

Barrow Says White Sox Will Beat Indians

Manager Barrow of the Red Sox is not in line with the host of so-called experts who believe that the Cleveland Indians should win the American league pennant. Speaking of the race, he said: "I don't see how the Cleveland club is going to beat out the White Sox. It looks as though Eddie Cicotte is going to keep on pitching till he is 100 years old. 'Cleveland has a mighty good club,' he continued, 'but I can figure them beating Chicago, barring injuries to Gleason's men. The race may narrow down to the Indians and White Sox, for nobody will take Detroit seriously till they actually win a pennant. Every year they look good before the season opens—and then they blow up. 'As I said before, I'm making no predictions as to where the Red Sox will finish.'

Rosenthal Offered U. C. Coaching Job

Dr. B. A. Rosenthal, who assisted in whipping the Olympic club football team of San Francisco in shape last season, has been offered the position of line coach of the University of California eleven.

It is rumored that Rosenthal will replace Andy Smith as head coach as soon as the contract of the former Pennsylvania player expires.

Middleton Plan to Row

Coach Dick Glendon of the United States Naval academy oarsmen plans to send his varsity to the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen championship races at Lake Quinsigamond, in Massachusetts.

LEGLESS DIVING WONDER

Lieut. Fletcher, U. S. A., although legless as the result of wounds received in war, is becoming quite an expert high diver.

MUNICIPAL GOLF STARS MAY PLAY WITH CLUB TEAMS

Four-Man Team Match May Be Played Over Municipal Links This Fall.

MUNICIPAL golf links players will have an opportunity to play for the four-man team championship of the city this fall, if the plans of John Junor, professional of the Eastmoreland course do not miscarry.

Will Lipman of Lipman, Wolfe & Co., according to Junor, plans to offer a trophy for a four-man team event between players representing the Waverly Country club, Portland Golf club, Tuallin Country club and public course.

The match will be played under the same conditions as the Clemson Interstate and the C. H. Davis Jr. trophy of the P. N. W. G. A.

In preparation for this match as well as for the city championship tourney to be held during the latter part of August or the first part of September, Junor will schedule a series of sweepstakes for the municipal players.

There are a number of stars among the public course players, including Johnny Febstock, who defeated Dr. O. F. Wilting in the finals of the city tourney last year; Harry Brown, who learned the game in the East; Francis Simpson, formerly Waverly caddy; U. Grider, Walter Mackie and Clifford Campbell.

St. Louis permits substitutes in soccer games. Ben Miller's are national champions by reason of their defeat of Fore River, 2 to 1, in national cup.

Pittsburg football eleven, coached by Glenn Warner, won 21 games in succession from 1915 to 1919 before losing to Syracuse.

Seven of the eight football games scheduled by Yale this fall will occur in the bowl at New Haven, the exception being the game with Princeton.

Inognitti Croker club of England will compete against Philadelphia, New York, and other eleven in its tour in the fall.

Seattle Boy Harvard Net Leader

Leon DeTurenne of Seattle has been unanimously elected captain of the Harvard tennis team at a meeting held here this afternoon. He only lost one match out of 16 this year.

Gun Club to Hold Shoot For Shrine

Rush Razez, Famous Trapshooter, Will Be Honor Guest Local Leaves for Walla Walla.

RUSH RAZEE, the Curtis, Neb., professional trapshooter, who ranks among the 10 best in the United States, will be the guest of honor of the big trapshooting tournament for the Shriners, to be staged on the Evering park traps of the Portland Gun club Sunday, June 20.

Last year, Razez averaged 990 on 2100 registered targets. In the Wyoming state shoot last year, he shattered 100 straight. In addition to being an expert shooter with the shotgun, Razez is a fancy rifle shot and a good performer on the pistol range. He toured the United States giving exhibitions from 1907 to 1915.

200 PRIZES OFFERED

President Newland has announced a 100-bird program under the added Bird handicap system for the Shriners tourney. Twenty prizes will be offered to the various event winners.

Handicaps will be allotted by the following committee: J. S. Crane, Hoover, E. H. Keller, and Frank Teupleton.

Visiting Shriners are welcome to participate in the tourney. The grounds can be reached by Etacada or Gresham cars at First and Alder streets to Jenne station. Antelope cars reach grounds by going out Powell Walla road.

LEAVE FOR WALLA WALLA

A number of members of the Portland Gun club left last night for Walla Walla, Wash., to attend the revival of the Pacific Coast Handicap. This year's event will be the first under the supervision of the American Trapshooting association officials.

The Walla Walla event opens today and will continue until Wednesday night. An attendance of over 200 from all parts of the Pacific coast is expected.

Stoney McLinn, secretary-manager of the A. T. A., will conduct the tourney. McLinn will probably come to Portland after the tourney.

Among the local shooters to enter the event are: H. R. Everding, J. B. Troeh, Frank Teupleton, E. H. Keller, J. S. Crane, H. B. Newland, E. B. Morris, J. C. Morris, A. A. Hoover, Fred Peterson, P. J. Holohan, Abner Blair, Lou Rayburn, Frank Van Atta, Charles B. Preston and W. E. Kruse.

A number of Willamette valley experts will also participate.

Memorial Will Cost a Million

A New York firm of architects are at work on plans for the $1,000,000 Roosevelt stadium of Grecian pattern to be erected in Pelham Bay park. The board of estimate must approve the project, which is to be known as the Roosevelt Memorial playground. It is to be ready next year.

Boston Preachers Say Christians Should Be Sports

Boston, June 12.—(I. N. S.)—Can a man be a Christian and a sportsman? Boston clergymen answer in the affirmative.

"A man who plays baseball, golf, tennis or any other sport is a better citizen than one who stays at home and spends his time reading," said the Rev. Kelley Jeanees, Methodist minister.

Nap. Lajoie May Be Syracuse Leader

Napoleon Lajoie, once king of second basemen, who has been out of baseball since he retired from the management of the Indianapolis International league team in 1913, has received an offer to play first base and manage the Syracuse team of the new International league.

Ernest C. Landers, president of the Syracuse club, in announcing the offer says that Lajoie probably will accept.

Rosenthal Offered U. C. Coaching Job

Dr. B. A. Rosenthal, who assisted in whipping the Olympic club football team of San Francisco in shape last season, has been offered the position of line coach of the University of California eleven.

It is rumored that Rosenthal will replace Andy Smith as head coach as soon as the contract of the former Pennsylvania player expires.
