

Rosarians to Be Hosts to Queen At Festival Ball

TH HONOR of Queen Claire (Mrs. Cameron Squires) and her attendants, the Royal Rosarians will be hosts for their annual festival ball this year the evening of June 24. The affair will be given at Cotillon hall and guests will include many notables who will be visitors in the city during the week of the Rose festival and the Shrine convention.

The royal party for the Rose festival includes a group of Portland's most attractive society maids, who with their queen, Mrs. Squires, include Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Rhoda Rumlind, Miss Elizabeth Roschke, Miss Suzanne Caswell, Miss Nadine Caswell, Miss Louise Lintleum, Miss Elsie Meier, Miss Katherine Almsworth, Miss Elizabeth Shepard, Miss Virginia Mears and Miss Elizabeth Bacon. The last four girls returning are from schools in the east.

Mayor and Mrs. E. H. Dale of Vancouver, B. C., in addition to their active participation in the grand floral parade, will be guests of honor at the International patriotic concert and reception to be given at the Auditorium Friday afternoon, June 25.

The beautiful country home of Mrs. S. S. Montague was the scene of a delightful picnic luncheon Friday afternoon given in honor of the directors and nurses of the Visiting Nurse association. The affair is an annual event and is always much anticipated by those who have been present on former occasions. Mrs. J. P. O'Brien was in charge of arrangements for the afternoon. The guests included 19 of the nurses and the directors of the association, who are Mrs. Robert G. Dieck, Mrs. Lewis Mills, Mrs. S. Frank, Mrs. James B. Kerr, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Kate Mather, Mrs. R. J. Marsh, Mrs. James D. Honeyman, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. A. F. Biles, Miss Virginia Wilson and Mrs. Donald Spencer. The work of the association is one of the most interesting and helpful of the philanthropic organizations in the city. Hundreds of homes are each year visited by the nurses, who are available for any person who needs their services.

Mrs. Margaret Versteg will be hostess for a tea at her home in Irvington Wednesday afternoon, honoring two brides-elect whose weddings will take place this month. The guests of honor are Miss Margaret Marvin and Miss Helen Buckley. More than 150 invitations have been sent out for the occasion and the hours are from 4 to 6 o'clock. At the tea hour Miss Elizabeth Patrick and Miss Katherine Burnside will preside at the table. Those who will serve are Mrs. John Mortimer Bruhn, Miss Joann Wiggin, Miss Edna Pence and the Misses Janet and Elizabeth Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. O'Reilly entertained a group of young people at a dinner Saturday evening at the Hotel Portland for their daughters, Anne and Jane, the guest of honor being Miss Eunice Mays, who with her mother recently returned from Berkeley, where they spent the winter. Covers were placed for 12, as follows: Misses Eunice Mays, Solie Green of Sunnyside, Wash., Elizabeth Bodgard, Anne O'Reilly, Jane O'Reilly; Messrs. Duncan Shields, Rie Mowry, Homer Hayden, Harold Dagg, Gael Green, and Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly.

Mrs. Lawrence R. Wheeler asked a few friends in for the tea hours Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Paula E. Wolf of Philadelphia, who is a visitor in the city for a few weeks. Mrs. Wolf and her daughter, Suzanne, arrived in Portland Saturday evening and are at the home of her father, Dr. W. A. Cumming, at Ewahwa. Mr. Wolf will arrive in Portland early in July.

Mrs. Alice Benson Beach with her son, Benson, and daughter, Esther, are spending the summer at Seaside. They left Portland Saturday and will have as their guests during the summer months, Miss Ruth Guppy who arrives this week from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lines, Mr. and Mrs. Marian V. Dolph and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Winslow left last week for "The Willows," the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Ladd on North Beach, where they will spend a few weeks.

Mrs. John E. Cronan spent a few days in the city last week and returned Thursday to Gearhart where she is spending the summer.

Mrs. George L. McPherson was hostess for a luncheon at the Waverley Coun-

Popular Young Couple to Be Wed In Trinity Chapel

THE marriage of Miss Stella King to George Melvin McBride will be an event of Saturday at the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church. The service will be held in the presence of a few close friends of the bride and groom at 11:30 o'clock by the Rev. A. A. Morrison. Mrs. Cleveland Cate, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor.

Miss King is a daughter of Mrs. Sarah King of this city. Since the announcement of her engagement she has been the inspiration for several informal affairs. Both young people have many friends in the city.

Following their marriage Mr. McBride will take his bride to Tacoma, Wash., to reside for the present.

One of the attractive weddings of the week was that of Miss Clara Chalmers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Chalmers of Forest Grove, and Dr. David E. Wiley, son of Mrs. Robert Wiley of Hillsboro, which took place Thursday morning at the First Presbyterian church, Dr. John H. Boyd officiating in the presence of the immediate members of the families.

The bride wore a smart tailored suit, large picture hat and corsage bouquet of sweet peas and ferns. A wedding breakfast was served in one of the private dining rooms of the Hotel Portland immediately after the ceremony.

The table was decorated in a basket of choice summer flowers and greenery. Covers were placed for: Dr. and Mrs. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers, Mrs. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Chalmers, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Chalmers of Seattle, the Misses Ann, Christine, Isabel and Helen Chalmers, Donald Wiley and Earl John Chalmers.

Dr. Wiley, who is a cousin of Dr. J. O. C. Wiley of this city, was graduated from McGill Medical college of Montreal and is now practicing in Hillsboro. The bride is a stately and charming young woman of many accomplishments. She was graduated from Pacific university, Hillsboro, will be the future home of the young people.

Miss Tillie Keller became the bride of E. V. Morrow Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Keller, 307 Falling street. The ring ceremony was used, the Rev. R. E. Close, pastor of the Third Baptist church, officiating in the presence of a large company of relatives of the bridal couple. Mr. and Mrs. Morrow will make their home at Scofield, Or.

Tea Dansant in St. Helens Girls' Honor Is Given

ONE of the delightful functions given during the past week as a part of the program of the commencement week at St. Helens hall was a tea dansant at the Portland Heights club Thursday afternoon, for which five of the senior girls were hostesses. Guests for the occasion included the girls of the senior class and their friends, and the hostesses included the Misses Hazel Fairservice, Thelma Aaland, Philena Bartlett, Alice Prindle and Elizabeth Kelly.

Patronesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Jay Smith, Mrs. Prindle from Spirit Lake, Mrs. Brock Statter and Mrs. Fielding Kelly. The hours were from 4 to 6 o'clock and the afternoon was one of unusual interest.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Ray and Leo E. Chaffin was solemnized June 2 at St. Philip Neri's church. The service was read by the Rev. Father Ferry at 10:30 o'clock in the morning in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. The bride wore a gown of white satin adorned with pearl beads and worn with white veil. Her flowers were white carnations and bride roses. Miss Anita Ray was maid of honor and wore a frock of rose colored georgette crepe with a tulle hat to match and a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses. Miss Georgianna Bials and the Misses Alice and Lucy Chaffin were bridesmaids and were attired in pastel tinted satin gowns worn with black picture hats. A. M. Conover was best man. The bridal hymn preceding the ceremony was sung by Leonard Brady. Ushers who seated the guests were Adolph Wagner, F. H. Ray and J. T. Ray. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ray, at 701 Elliott avenue, and a breakfast was served to 40 guests, among whom were, Mrs. S. Loni, the bride's grandmother, and Miss Bials of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaffin left the city for Denver, Colo., for a short trip and will return soon to make their home in Vancouver, Wash.

A no-host dinner given at the Portland hotel Wednesday evening preceding the society vaudeville at the Helix theatre included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sharpe, Miss Audrey Lawson (sister of Mrs. Beverly, who is here for the summer from Illinois), Miss Joyce Parkins, Clarence Sewall and Ernest F. Swigert. Following the theatre the party enjoyed the supper dance at the Arcadian grill.
