Smith were dinner hosts for a party of seven at the Waverley Country club Tuesday evening.

Recent Wedding Of Miss Hoban Is Charming Event

THE wedding ceremony which united in marriage Miss Josephine Andretta Hoban and Commander Charles J. Swenson Tuesday evening was one of the charming functions of the week. The service was read in the rose room of the Benson hotel by the Rev. E. S. Olson at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives of the bridal couple. The wedding gown was of Duchess satin, cut short length and fashioned with full train and adorned with iridescent bead trimmings and draperies of tulle. The wedding veil was fastened with a coronet cap. Orchids and gardenias were used for the bridal bouquet. Miss Josephine Burns Hoban, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and wore a frock of cloth-of-gold veiled in yellow tulle. Miss Virginia Brown was bridesmaid and was gowned in pink organdy, Eleanor Nordstrom was the dainty flower girl, and Master Lawrence Hobbs was ring bearer. Ushers for the wedding were Dr. Anderson, Melvin John E. O'Shea, S. J. Ryer, Walter von der Werth, Dr. D. O. Anderson and Jack Hoban. The wedding march was played by Miss Alice Genevieve Smith, harpist. Following the ceremony the wedding supper was served in the Tyrolese room, for which the tables were centered with bride roses and lilies of the valley. A stringed orchestra, dispensing music throughout the evening for dancing. The bride is a daughter of Captain Andrew Hoban. Captain Swenson is from Mobile, Ala. Captain and Mrs. Swenson will make their home in San Francisco for a short time. Mrs. George Flavel and Miss Nellie Flavel are in from Astoria and are domiciled at the Hotel Portland.

Miss Buckley Is Guest of Honor At Many Affairs

MISS HELEN BUCKLEY, whose marriage to William H. Daugherty Jr. will be solemnized June 21 at Westminster Presbyterian church, has been the guest of honor at a number of delightful functions during the past fortnight and this week's program of pre-nuptial festivities include several teas, luncheons and supper parties. Miss Elizabeth Falton presided at a tea and trousseau shower for Miss Buckley Thursday afternoon, guests including Mrs. John M. Bruhn (Pauline Wolford), Mildred McClure, Helen Houghton, Mrs. Richard Wood (Marion Akers), Louise Walker, Lenore Blaesing, Edna Penn, Katherine Lockwood, Jeanette Wiggins, Grace Evans, Margaret Marvin, Margaret Versteeg, Katherine Laidlaw, Mabel Wood, Katherine Burnside, Bernice Burke, Agnes Black, Janet Peters and Elizabeth Peters. Miss Louise Walker of Oregon City was hostess for a tea honoring Miss Buckley, Saturday afternoon. Miss Buckley will share honors with Miss Margaret Marvin at a large tea Wednesday afternoon, for which Miss Margaret Versteeg has sent out invitations. The Misses Jeanette and Elizabeth Wiggins will be luncheon hostesses on Thursday, honoring the bride-elect. Friday evening William H. Daugherty Jr. will be host for a supper dance party at the Arcadian grill, honoring his fiancée and the members of their bridal party. The Misses Janet and Elizabeth Peters will entertain Miss Buckley at luncheon Saturday at their home in Irvington. Richard Ransom will entertain the members of the bride party at a dinner dance at the Waverley Country club the evening of June 19, and the wedding rehearsal will be held at the church Sunday at 5 o'clock. Miss Adele Buckley of Los Angeles will arrive in Portland Tuesday, to be present at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Buckley, to Mr. Daugherty.

Day-Defries Wedding Held On Wednesday

MISS MABEL C. DAY became the bride of Clarence A. Defries Wednesday evening. The service was read by the Rev. William L. Elliot of the Church of Our Father, Unitarian, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Guy Robinson at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Robinson was her sister's only attendant and Donald Stewart attended the bridegroom. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Day. For the ceremony she was smartly attired in a tailor of tan broadcloth worn with chic hat to match and a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas. Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Adamson of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Labor of Philadelphia will be visitors in Irvington this week, arriving Tuesday, to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Bonn and son William of The Dalles are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Thompson at their country home near Greesham.

Miss Marvin to Wed This Month To A. P. Knapp

ANOTHER bride-elect who has chosen June for her wedding is Miss Ruth Marvin, daughter of Mrs. E. L. Marvin, whose marriage to Addison P. Knapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Knapp, will take place June 25. The service will be read by the Rev. William Wealthy Howard of All Saints Episcopal church at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles Thomas, at 9 o'clock. An informal wedding reception will follow the ceremony. Mrs. Thomas will be her sister's only attendant and Eugene Kelly will be best man. The Harlequin club enjoyed an outing trip over Decoration day, making one of the most beautiful points on the Clackamas river their camping ground. Fishing, fishing and out of door sports along with some happy hours around the campfire were the many pleasures enjoyed. This club is making plans for many of these trips, among which will be a three day trip to Seaside over July 4. Mrs. George P. Baxter of Berkeley, Cal., is a visitor in the city at the Malloy hotel for a month.

Miss Sellwood To Be Married Next Thursday

THE marriage of Miss Ruth Sellwood to Edward Werlein of The Dalles will be an event of Thursday at the home of the bride's cousins, Dr. and Mrs. John Sellwood. The ceremony will be read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. W. A. M. Brock of St. Matthew's church. For the ceremony Dr. Sellwood will play the wedding march on the pipe organ. Miss Vivian Johnson will be bridesmaid and Frederick Higgins will attend the bridegroom. Little Mary Louise Smith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold S. Smith, will be flower girl. Miss Sellwood is a daughter of Mrs. Charles Stanburrough of Bend, Or. She is also a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Amedeo M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Betts of this city. She has been attending school at the Oregon Agricultural college, where Mr. Werlein has also been a student. Mr. Werlein is a member of a prominent Portland family, the son of J. E. Werlein. Following their wedding, Mr. Werlein and his bride will motor to the summer home of the bridegroom and will later make their home in The Dalles, here he is engaged in the automobile business. Miss Harriett Mardall, bride elect, a agreeably surprised Tuesday evening by the Echo girls of the Neighbors Woodcraft, who planned a kitchen supper in her honor. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Refreshments were served later. Those present were: Mesdames Hiner, Mardall, Smythe, Linn, Misses Florence Linn, Margaret McNaughton, Minnie Skinner, Edith Dennison and Harriett Mardall. Miss Eve Sturdevant was hostess for an informal dinner last week at her home in the Irving apartments. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Herlihy, Milton Reed Klepper, Dorothy Fox, and C. C. Gaines of Seattle.

Equestriennes to Be Entertained By Local Hosts

ENTERTAINING soon will begin for the numerous fair equestriennes who will exhibit in the coming night horse show, as many of the maids and matrons will arrive here about the middle of next week. James McCleave and his daughter, Doris, who will show their string of horses, will arrive Wednesday, and Mrs. Wayne W. Keyes of Tacoma and Mrs. Harriett Mardall also will accompany their husbands, and participate in the social festivities of the week. The younger contingent will be well represented in the horse show by the Junior Hunt club. Their part of the program will be the feature on two evenings, as the girls and boys, many of whom are members of Portland's leading families, are among the finest riders in the Northwest. Miss Harriett Breyman and Miss Mary Helen Spaulding will be hostesses for a smart dancing party at Portland Heights club on the evening of June 21. Mrs. Joseph J. Frankel and daughter of Centerville, Iowa, are among recent arrivals at the Hotel Portland.

Pacific College Romance Ends In Nuptials

MISS MARY MARLETT and Charles E. Lewis, were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie A. Marlett, in Multnomah. The wedding was witnessed by a few friends and the ceremony was of the old Quaker form, or "Friends' avowal." President Mills of the Pacific college in Newburg, officiated. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have been teaching in the Pacific college the past year. The bride was graduated from Reed college, class of 1919, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the Earlham (Quaker) college of Richmond, Ind. Mr. Lewis will be an instructor in the Y. M. C. A. of this city during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside at Multnomah for the present.
