

WILLAMETTE HAS ITS SEVENTY-SIXTH COMMENCEMENT

Willamette University, Salem, June 18.—The seventy-sixth commencement at Willamette university was opened with an address by President P. L. Campbell of the University of Oregon in which he expressed appreciation for the aid extended in the recent millage bill campaign.

The commencement procession formed at Eaton hall, with the board of trustees and members of the faculty in the lead, the latter in cap and gown, and with the seniors following. The exercises were held in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The march was played by Professor T. S. Roberts, the Scripture lesson was read by Dr. J. W. Gordon of Portland and the invocation given by President Henry J. Taft of the Kimball School of Theology. A solo by Miss Marguerite Cook of Portland preceded the address.

DEGREES CONFERRED
The address was followed by the conferring of the degrees on 35 students in liberal arts, six in law and three from the school of music.

ORATION PRIZES AWARDED
Paul Wapato of Wenatchee, Wash., and Ray Sken of Powell Butte, were awarded the oratory prizes of $15 and $10, given by Walter E. Keyes of Salem. Bernard Ramsey of Prineville and Sheldon Sackett of Sheridan won the B. L. Steaves debate prizes of $10 and $5. All members of this year's debate teams were awarded prizes by the university.

J. Fred McGrew of Idaho Falls, Ida., was presented with the Albert prize of $25 for making the most progress toward the ideal in character, service and wholesome influence. Ruth Taylor of Sunnyvale, Wash., was presented with a $10 prize for proficiency in Latin by Justice Charles Johns. Freda Campbell of Salem received a $10 prize, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Hollingsworth of St. Helens to the members of the graduating class who had won the highest scholastic honors during the senior year.

Preceding the benediction, by the Rev. T. W. McDougall, President Campbell announced a gift of $25,000 toward the loan fund for worthy students by R. A. Booth of Eugene.

Rides 13 Hours for Doctor After Cheek Torn Away by Horse
Bend, June 18.—With the skin of one cheek almost entirely torn away and a broken nose, J. H. Helfrich, a veterinarian of the Hemstead valley rode 95 miles from his ranch Wednesday morning to receive medical attention. Helfrich was separating cattle at his ranch. The horse upon which he was riding became frightened when a sagehen flew from under its feet. Helfrich was thrown under the horse, one foot striking his cheek.

The injured man mounted the horse, rode 20 miles to his ranch, then took a car and drove 65 miles into Bend, where 17 stitches were taken in his face. Helfrich did not lose consciousness during the 13 hours.

L. B. Baird of Bend purchased the holdings of the Bend Brick & Lumber company from A. H. Horn. With Baird will be associated Lee A. Thomas, local architect, and Horn, former owner. It is expected that under the new management the present brick shortage will be relieved and a supply more than sufficient to meet all local demands will be manufactured.

Rights of Water Users Are Settled Upon Stipulation
Baker, June 18.—A water suit involving 20 water users on East Pine creek has been decided by Judge Gustav Anderson of the local circuit court according to a stipulation that was effected between the contestants, A. F. Crocker, C. A. Oliver and others against J. M. Cole and others. The stipulation readjusts the water rights of all users and provides for the appointment of a water master or ditch tender by the court, following recommendations made by a committee of three water users, elected at an annual meeting. The number of votes to be cast by each user shall be determined by the number of shares or inches of water to which he is entitled. The decision also allows designated water users the right to use ditches belonging to the plaintiffs on condition that they bear the expense of enlarging the channels sufficiently to accommodate the extra flow of water.

Ray Woodward, 14, has been committed to the state training school on the charge of breaking into the home of Bert Caviness and stealing a fishing outfit.
