

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 20, 1920.

LUNCHEON SERVED IN OUR TEA ROOM BEGINNING AT 11 A. M. EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

OLDS WORTMAN & KING'S

WELCOME TO THE SHRINERS

You Big Good-Natured Good-Hearted Fellows!

WE WELCOME YOU with all our hearts—the hospitality of this great city has been extended to you in the fullness of its unusual and fascinating environments. Back up a few years—be boys again! We'll not hold you to your dignity. Get in the game—romp and play—wrestle with our boys—dance with our girls—climb our mountains, ride out upon our highways and sing and make merry as you go.

—We cordially invite you to visit our store. Use our public telephones, rest rooms, retiring rooms, etc. Ask us questions—bother us a lot—and we'll love you all the more for it.

—AND, FINALLY, when the time comes for those parting words, we hope that you will choke up till you can't say 'em, and will just go silently away with a kindly feeling in your hearts for Portland and her people—'cause we're going to do our very best to give you a GOOD TIME while you're in our city.
