

Pendleton Girl Becomes Bride Of Portland Man

MISS THELMA SALING of Pendleton became the bride of R. G. Durst of this city last week at the home of the bride's parents. The service was read by the Rev. Alfred Lockwood, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of navy blue tulle, with overalls of black lace. Her hat was of white georgette and she carried a bouquet of rosebuds. Miss Vera Cook, gowned in navy blue crepe meteor, was bridesmaid. The bridegroom was attended by Balte Ulrich, a brother-in-law of the bride. Preceding the service, Miss Lillian Culley, sang "Because." The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Saling, and a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Caviness of Eugene, has many friends in Pendleton. She was popular in Portland while attending St. Helens hall, and later while studying piano under Mrs. Thomas Burke and W. R. Boone. Mr. Durst is a civil engineer and received his education in Portland.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Durst left for a wedding trip to Portland, and after their return will make their home in Milton. Among the relatives present at the wedding were Mrs. E. G. Durst of Portland, mother of Mr. Durst, and Mr. and Mrs. Balte Ulrich of Walla Walla. Mrs. Ulrich is a sister of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Dudley Tobin and Martin Webster Jones was an event of Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dudley Tobin. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate family relatives and a few close friends. Miss Myrel Bond was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Helen Coe, Florence Reese, Elinor Anderson, Bettie Mathews, Little Mary Taylor was flower girl and Master Ernest VanDerden Jones was ring bearer. The wedding music was played by Miss Dorothy Dodds. Mr. Jones was attended by Kenneth Joy, his best man. The Rev. Edward Constant of the Congregational church read the marriage service. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are spending their honeymoon in the country near Oregon City, where Mr. Jones is engaged in the lumber business. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. H. C. Dodds of Dufur, Or.; Miss Effie Black of Houston, Texas, the bride's aunt, and Miss Georgie Coffee of Ashland, Or. Miss Coffee is at present visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Jones and Mrs. Cornelia Martin in Wygant street.

A wedding of interest took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beards of Sellwood, when their granddaughter, Martha MacCarty, was given in marriage to William Moore. Miss Fern Werts was bridesmaid and the bridegroom's brother was best man. The young people are all of Oregon City. The Rev. Crocker read the service in the presence of immediate relatives. Miss Lambert Beards played the wedding march. The bride was becomingly gowned in pink organdie and carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and forget-me-nots. Several trousseau showers were given for the bride during the preceding week. The young couple will reside at Oregon City upon their return from their wedding trip.

A pretty wedding took place the evening of June 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wallace, 187 Thirteenth street, when Miss Matilda A. Matthes became the bride of James G. Walls. Only close friends and relatives were present. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. F. Treason, under a canopy of pink hawthorne. Preceding the service Miss Evelyn Lawrence sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. James Sparger played the wedding march. After the ceremony refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Walls will be at home at 124 East Main street, Sunday, July 1.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Lela Hagen to Dr. Clarence A. Miller of this city. Miss Hagen is a daughter of Mrs. Nora Hagen. Dr. Miller is a young dentist of the city and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller of Portland. The wedding will be an event of the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Earl Smith and her brother, Orth Erickson, have returned from a trip through the Orient. They are at present at San Francisco, where Mr. Erickson, who was severely gassed while in service overseas, has undergone a serious operation at Letterman general hospital.

Mrs. Frank Menefee of Seattle will arrive here Monday to spend the week with Mrs. Robert Clark in Vaughn street. Mrs. Menefee resided in Portland for several years before moving to Seattle and her many friends will be glad to welcome her again.

Dr. and Mrs. George S. Whiteside have had as their house guest Miss Katherine Patten of Minneapolis, Minn., for a short time. Miss Patten left last week for Dr. Whiteside, and will return to Portland in the near future.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Fay Barnes and Hermes H. Wrightson. The ceremony will take place June 26, at the home of Miss Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Barnes, 58 East Forty-first street north.

The Misses Jean and Elsa Meier, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Meier, entertained informally at a tea at their home Friday afternoon.

Miss Mary Helen Spaulding and Miss Harriett Breyman will be hostesses for a dance at the Portland Heights club Monday evening.

MRS. STARRETT DINWIDDIE (Bernice Lucas) of San Francisco, who is a visitor at the home of her mother in the city and who has been the inspiration for several informal functions during her stay in Portland.

Mrs. Towne Is Government Guest of Honor Employees Plan At Smart Tea Moonlight Dance

MRS. WILLIAM E. TOWNE of Hol-yoke, Mass., was the guest of honor at a smart tea Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. D. Grindstaff and Mrs. George D. Schalk, where over 300 guests were entertained. Mrs. Towne is known all over the country as the editor of "The Nautilus," and was a visitor here with her husband.

More than 300 maids and matrons called during the afternoon to greet the visitor. At the tea hour Mrs. James D. Hart, Mrs. C. D. Bruun, Mrs. Frederick H. Page, Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. D. A. Shindler and Mrs. George Flanders Wilson served, assisted by Mrs. Carl Wer-nicke and Mrs. Carleton Walter Betts (Ruth Teal). Amusing about the rooms were Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Ella Stephens, Miss Katharine Hart, Miss Sara McCully, Miss Irene Daly, Mrs. H. E. Perkins, Mrs. H. H. Jones and Miss Rhoda Rumelin.

Mrs. F. J. Corpeny of Tulsa, Okla., is a visitor in the city for the summer at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave E. Bruera.

Mrs. H. W. Collins of Pendleton is a visitor in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burke for the week.

Vivian Mickle Bride At Very Pretty Wedding

Miss Vivian Mickle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Mickle, and Charles Wendell Edgerton, a young business man of Minneapolis, were married Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Dr. John H. Boyd read the service. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The wedding was an unusually attractive one, the house being elaborately decorated in beautiful trailing greenery and masses of California poppies, but-tercups and other yellow flowers. The marriage altar was especially effective framed by palms and white flowers. From the center hung a handsome floral bell under which the ceremony was performed. The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin Franciscan combined with Chantilly lace. Her veil was of tulle, and was arranged in a cap effect held in place by a broad band of old Duchesse lace and orange blossoms. Molds of the lace also trimmed the veil. She carried a huge bouquet of Ophelia, Cecil Brunner and Perle d'Or roses combined with maiden hair fern.

Her only attendant was Miss Ines Hewitt, who was gowned in gold metallic cloth and ruffled cream net, with a broad sash of yellow satin. Miss Hewitt's bouquet was of Ward roses and maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Mickle, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of black lace.

Mr. Edgerton had as his best man, Kenneth Long of Everett, W. Va. Miss Mabel Howard and Miss Margaret Scott presided at the punch table on the veranda, which was screened in by palms and other plants.

Mrs. Arthur Cole, Mrs. Otto Cook, and the Misses Howard, Scott, Louise Macey, Ruth Hewitt, Edna Gray, Emily Johnson, Jennie McKibben and Louise Brace held the tulle ribbons forming the aisle leading to the altar.

Later Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Cook with Mrs. W. D. Scott and Mrs. Ina V. Carline served the ice in the dining room. They were assisted by the girl friends of the bride.

Miss Emily Johnson was in charge of the gift room. During the reception Miss Beulah and Miss Loretta Blackwell gave violin and piano selections and also played the Lohengrin march during the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton will be away for a few days on a short trip, after which they will be in Portland until June 27, when they will leave for Minneapolis where they will make their home.

A pretty wedding was an event of the past week, when Miss Marie Beatrice Carney and Leo Ray Gage of Hillsboro, Wis., were united in marriage at Our Lady of Sorrows church, Father Fallau reading the service in a most impressive manner. The double ring ceremony was used. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Van Groen, who also sang "I Love You Truly" and "For You Alone." Little Gladys Carney, niece of the bride, was flower girl. The rings were carried in an Easter lily by Kenneth Carney. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Carney, and Grady, customs; Mildred Reeder, internal revenue; William H. Brack, customs; L. M. Lassen, engineers; Charles J. Krschel, forest; Alice V. O'Hare, internal revenue; H. W. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wood and niece Miss Gladys Palmer of Springfield, Mo., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Woodruff at their home in Laurelhurst during the conventions and the Rose Festival. They will remain in the city until the middle of July.

Wedding of Miss Stevens Was a Surprise Event

THE first wedding of social importance for the past week was that of Miss Jean Stevens, whose marriage to Lowell Ellsworth Kern was an event of Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was simple in detail and took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jasper Graham Stevens, in Irving street, and the announcement of their wedding came as a great surprise to their many friends in the city because the date had been set for a later date and no formal announcement had been made of the engagement, although it had been known among their friends for some months.

The service was read in the presence of the immediate families of the bridal couple, the Rev. E. H. Pence officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William P. Stevens.

For her wedding gown the bride wore a smart tailor of blue tulle and a small black hat adorned with paradise feathers. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids.

No formal announcement had been made of the engagement of Miss Stevens and Mr. Kern, although the fact has been known among their intimate friends for several months. Both young people are unusually popular in the city, and it is a matter of regret to their friends that they will go to Pendleton to make their home.

Mr. Kern is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kern of Irvington. For the ceremony Vance Ferguson acted as best man. There were no attendants for the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Kern left Monday evening for Pendleton.

Miss Isabelle Collier of Treka, Cal., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Philip Mayhew Collier of Chicago at the Multnomah hotel, left for her home on Wednesday evening.
