

LOVING TRIBUTE IS PAID TO HER MAJESTY, THE ROSE

The rose, queen of all flowers, is captivating hundreds of new subjects today in the tree-shaded park blocks, where the annual exhibition of the Portland Rose society opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Her Majesty Caroline Testout, Portland's official rose, held the place of honor and by her coloring, size and fragrance won great admiration. Testouts arranged in baskets by the dozens, and especially choice ones in individual receptacles cause gasps of wonder and admiration.

Small showings and large baskets are shown of the beautiful silver pink, "Columbia," the rose which captured the world's championship.

ROUTE OF TUESDAY MORNING'S PARADE

Desert Sands

Breezy Bits of News From Shriners' Mecca, the Oasis of Portland.

Tangier temple of Omaha is a favored delegation. Tangier nobles are strutting around other less fortunate temples.

Three members of Al Korah temple of Boise, Idaho, came by automobile in advance of their fellow nobles.

"We had a great time," said Noble D. A. Paddelford of Hella temple, Dallas, Texas.

When Tangier reached Portland they turned on their siren for the last time.

W. E. Hushaw of Woodbine, Iowa, who is with the Abu Bekr temple of Sioux City, Iowa, is much impressed by the organization for the Shrine convention.

"Hot! Why, it isn't hot here. Why, down in Texas when we left it was 110 degrees in the shade."

The advance guard of El Kafir, who came down Sunday, couldn't find their shoes when they got up on the Pullman route.

A steam collapse and a siren whistle told of the coming of Abou Ben Adhem temple into Portland this morning.

Charles Russell, Dallas, Texas, is perfectly crazy about Portland, but he "dassent" say it with 250 Dallas people around.

Oelris temple, from Wheeling, Va., has a bridal couple, Noble and Mrs. William Webber.

Noble Frank Ira White, who was on the Al Kader reception committee at the station this morning, was called upon to serve as wet nurse to the baby.

"Seven days without a drink," sighed one of the band members of El Karah temple, as he looked around the Union station for some hope of satisfying his thirst.

While riding the engine of the "Poor Minnie special," which carried the Seiber temple from Concord, N. H., to Portland, Potentate L. J. Randlett got lost when the engine parted company from the rest of the train for an hour or more.

"Wa-wa-woo-oo" is the honor society of the Tripoli temple of Milwaukee, according to O. V. Thacher.

J. D. Beebe, a former Portlander, and until a week ago a resident of Oklahoma City, came in advance of the El Korah temple of that city.

S. S. Carter of Midian temple, Wichita, Kan., was told that in Vancouver, B. C., one could get a toddy.

W. H. Conklyn of Bagdad temple, Butte, is eagerly awaiting the arrival of his fellow nobles.

R. Shodall is a noble of Algeria temple, Helena, Mont., who blew in a week ago to be good and rested for the convention.

Al Koren temple from Cleveland, Ohio, has a fancy bunch of uniforms in their 30 number chorus.

300 MAD MULLAHS WHOOP THINGS UP

Three hundred Mad Mullahs from Aleppo temple, Boston, shouting and singing and with a hand playing loud enough to almost shatter the plate glass windows, did not disturb the serenity of the little army of workers at Shrine general headquarters.

Under the din of half a dozen bands going at once, drum corps thundering away, the little island for registration in the center of the big room ticked off visitors as regular as a clock.

Texas Shriners Out To Take Jail Over And Are 'Taken In'

Khiva Shrine club of Amarillo, Texas, is after a charter. About 36 Shriners, most of them nobles of Mexican temple at Fort Worth, are here in the interests of Khiva.

The Khiva bunch got in Sunday night and decided to have a good time. What was a little thing like night time? They wanted a joyride, so about 3 o'clock this morning they romped to the police station.
