Boys and Girls, Bring Roses! Medals and Real Coin Await

Boys and girls, where are you? Do you want some crisp new bills that have never before been spent? Would jangling half hollars interest you? Or, best of all, would you like a medal from the United States mint at Washington with your name engraved upon it? If you want to win medals, crisp new bills or jangling coins, get your roses ready for exhibit in the children's rose show at Clay and Park streets Tuesday or Wednesday, June 22 and 23. There were roses from Willamette Highlands, Franklin, Irvington, Jefferson, Ladd and other schools when the children's rose show opened this morning, with Miss Minnie Heath in charge of the reception committee. But there were not so many but that all had a very good chance to win. Clip the tag from 'The Journal.' Attach to it a single beautiful rose. Bring rose and tag to the Park block at Park and Clay streets between 8 and 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, when Miss May Rathbun will be in charge of the reception committee, or Wednesday morning. Perhaps on the very same day you will receive your name in 'The Journal' as one of the winners.

Portland Children's Rose Show. Insert stem of rose here. Name, Address, School. To Avoid Tearing Paste Tag on Cardboard.

Woodward places on the board by substantial pluralities.

MOTHER AND BABY INJURED IN CRASH

Wills Stanfill, 2-year-old son of W. H. Stanfill, 7212 East Eighty-second street, is at the Good Samaritan hospital, badly injured, as the result of an auto crash Sunday afternoon at Fifty-second and Division streets. The accident occurred when a motorcycle officer, Deputy Sheriff Murnane, speeding north on Fifty-second street, crashed into a Ford, driven by Stanfill, on Division street. The force of the impact knocked the right rear wheel from the auto, threw it half way around and turned it over, pinning its nine occupants under it.

INSIDE STORY TOLD OF McCAMANT'S COOLIDGE SPEECH

Wallace McCamant, who, as a delegate at large to the Republican national convention at Chicago, violated the pledge and promise made to the voters of the state by him to support the candidate who wins out at the Oregon primary, was returned to Portland. McCamant, in addition to violating his pledge given to the people of the state in the platform upon which he based his appeal for election, gained some extra publicity by mounting a chair on the floor of the convention and putting Governor Coolidge in nomination for the vice presidency. Others returning from Chicago give the inside story of the incident. It had been planned by the managers of the convention for there were managers to place both Senator Lenroot and Governor Coolidge in nomination for that office. Men had been picked to make the nominating speeches and were both sent to the platform, from which all nominations were made. The Lenroot nomination was to have been made first, to be followed by the nomination of Coolidge. Everybody on the inside knew that Coolidge was slated for nomination.

Washington Radicals Hold the Balance of Power, Says Gill

Chehalis, Wash., June 21.—Major E. S. Gill of Seattle, speaking under auspices of the Elks and American Legion, asserted that the radical organizations in Washington have at least 25,000 members, sufficient to hold the balance of power at the coming election, in case of a divided vote. He said that they have over $500,000 on hand for a campaign fund, and are working quietly but effectively and steadily all the time and that State Chairman Coates of the Non-partisan league openly says there is to be an invasion of the Republican primaries. The Davis coal mine property, in Eastern Lewis county, was sold Saturday by Sheriff Berry to George Weigel and Arthur A. and Albert U. Bernal of Yakima, to satisfy judgment held by them against Synarus A. Davis, et al. The mines were bid in at $32,351.60. George Ainsworth, accused of crime against his 13-year-old daughter, was found guilty. Judge Beck of Vancouver presided at his trial.
