

STAGE AND SCREEN

news in The Journal, daily and Sunday, is prepared with the aid of the accurate instruction and assistance of the reader. The press agent finds it hard to break in.

Prologue Is One Feature at Liberty

THE Liberty's special Shrine week prologue, introducing a wonderfully effective desert scene, with rising sun and all the whole being a background for a number of special music numbers including the "1920 notes of harmony" trio, was for honors this week with the feature photoplay, "Paris Green," with Charles Ray.

Rivolt

A novel and amusing play called "An Adventure" brings Julian Eltinge back to the screen at the Rivolt. Julian Eltinge has deservedly won for himself the reputation of being the best female impersonator on the American stage, and his work in his new film, released by Republic, bears out that reputation.

Columbia

Robert Louis Stevenson's immortal story, "Treasure Island," is the week's gripping picture at the Columbia. All the color and spirit of high adventure that is in the Stevenson classic has been retained.

Star

One of the dramatic scenes in "The Inferior Sex," a picture starring Mildred Harris Chaplin at the Star this week, is that which takes place on a yacht. The young married woman, whose husband has shown great indifference to her, has been wooed by a wealthy clubman and finally has decided to elope with him.

Peoples

Will Rogers in "Jubilo," a story in which he has the role of a hobo who "reforms," follows a band of bank robbers and makes good.

Schilling Tea is good enough for the best husband that ever lived. It is good enough for your most particular guests. It is even good enough for the solitary lunch at home—the severest test of all.

WITH AUTHOR AND PUBLISHER

In his "Talks with T. R." (which Houghton-Mifflin company has just published), John J. Leary Jr. records illuminating conversations with Roosevelt on many subjects. One day Roosevelt expressed himself on the subject of sons.

Just ask for BLUE MOON

Sparkling eyes, brilliant color, glowing, young skin—the result of good health! Even if Nature has endowed you with health and beauty—you must preserve them. You must retain your youth—of spirit—of action—of beauty!

Healthy, young skin creates the impression of beauty more quickly than any other asset. And there are Purula Creams for every summertime use—to protect your skin from strong sunshine or wind—to cleanse the skin—to build tissue—to keep your skin clean and young.
