

ELECTRIC PARADE TO BE PAGEANT OF DAZZLING BEAUTY

Picturesque and colorful as no other event of the week will be the electrical parade tonight, second of the five great processions of the Shrine conclave...

Tangier Boys Steal Girl From Hawkeye And Fade in Crowd

Sedately and properly a Shriner of Za-Ga-Zig temple, Des Moines, was strolling along Sixth street Monday afternoon with a demure damsel of Portland...

Presently a pair of Tangier boys from Omaha strolled up behind. The one on the right, elbowing between the Des Moines noble and his companion...

Lu Lu Temple Of Philadelphia Has Bought Big Theatre

"Look here, will you?" said W. Freeland Kendrick, imperial potentate, waving a telegram Monday night.

The telegram was from the assistant rabban of Lu Lu temple, Philadelphia, Kendrick's Shrine home, and said that the organization had just closed a deal purchasing the Metropolitan theatre in Philadelphia for $1,000,000.

"And it is only to be a temporary home," Kendrick explained, "for we are going to build a real temple some of these days."

Brooklyn to Washington, west on Washington to Twenty-first street and disband. All grandstand seats for this spectacle have long since been sold and an enormous crowd along the parade line is expected.

Pote Doffs Hat to Portland Greeting Overwhelms Nobles

"It's a knockout!" Thus spoke the highest prophet of them all, W. Freeland Kendrick, imperial potentate of the Mystic Shrine, when he met Journal reporters at midnight Monday in his suite at the Multnomah hotel.

"More than anything else I could say about Portland and its reception to us do these words express my feelings," said the "pote." "I am speaking most earnestly and sincerely when I say this is the most enthusiastic gathering I have attended in the most charming imperial council meeting in the most wonderfully decorated city."

"Every meeting to be held in the future will suffer by comparison with the one you have given us."

It would be a story all by itself to tell how reporters camped on the trail of the chief of Shrinism from the time he arrived until he was finally cornered in his lair on the mezzanine floor of the headquarters hotel for a visit that lasted until the small hours of this morning.

While Kendrick's crown does not exactly rest uneasily, it must have rocked a lot with the strenuous program its owner is following. It is no snore or empty honor, this thing of being imperial potentate, for Kendrick does not have a moment's leisure time.

A hurried handshake and a bow at the conclusion of the meeting at the chief of the Shrine; tribes was on his way again for some appointment or another in the imperial car. And that was very early this morning.

"I am delighted with the whole thing, and every Shriner feels the same way," Kendrick continued. "It is easy to see how the merchants and people of Portland have worked to make this splendid thing possible."

"Mrs. Kendrick and I went over your Columbia river highway today. It is the most gorgeous thing I have ever seen in my life."

The Kendrick was guests of Julius L. Meter on this trip and had luncheon at his home near Corbett.

Speaking of the convention from a standpoint of figures, the imperial potentate said that it was probably not as large as some in the past, but that was due to that's because of transportation conditions," Kendrick explained.

"For instance, we only brought 460 people from Philadelphia and we would easily have brought a thousand had it been possible. We simply could not get any more trains. Three trains were all the railroads would give us."

He also spoke of the tremendous growth of the Shrine. It has now increased to a membership of over 400,000 and will add 1,000,000 members before December 31, he said, giving a total of over half a million nobles.

"It is a result of the war, I believe," the potentate continued. "Men have come back into the big fight imbued with the principles of Masonry, and have wanted to identify themselves with the Shrine. They have more money and are willing to spend it. The standard of Shrine membership has not suffered in the least as a result of this great increase."

Kendrick is Chief Black Bear. He was taken into the Blackfeet tribe at Glacier national park two weeks ago following a big "Medicine Smoke" with the redskins. At Helena he laid the cornerstone for a Shrine temple. Leaving Philadelphia with Mrs. Kendrick and Mr. and Mrs. William A. French, Shriners were visited all the way across the country, each of the route lay through Canada.

After Wednesday's session of the imperial council, Kendrick will be known as past imperial potentate. The biggest fight in the conclave, he believes, will be over the 16 new charters asked for. Old established temples will probably contest the establishment of new organizations in districts which they have come to believe are their own.

The Kendrick suite in the Multnomah is strikingly beautiful. The air is almost heavy with the fragrance of flowers, which are seen everywhere. Oriental rugs are on the floors. Last night of the center table was a huge bunch of orchids and fleur-de-lis. The ceilings were canopied with apparatus fern, and of course, there were roses, the most gay and beautiful specimens of roses grown in Portland. Offsetting the sweets, however, was a great bowl of sweet peas and lilies.

BUSINESS INTERESTS LARGE Who is W. Freeland Kendrick in private life? He is a receiver of taxes for Philadelphia county, Pennsylvania. He is also a banker and president of the largest laundry company in Philadelphia. His business interests are several. Although not a millionaire, Kendrick is well to do.

IMPERIAL POTENTATE W. FREELAND KENDRICK

W. Freeland Kendrick, imperial potentate of the Shrine, is seen in a recent photograph.

New Jersey Temple Sing Eulogies in Praise of Oregon

Many are the songs that have been made up for the present Shrine convention, and many are the temples singing them. Salaam and Crescent temples of Newark and Trenton, N. J., which have headquarters at the Multnomah, are singing the following "Roses of Oregon":

First the roses of Oregon, First the roses ever bested upon, With petals so fair, with fragrances so rare, Kissed by the golden sun.

For the roses of Oregon, Westward Ho—we roll so merrily, Shriners all on pleasure bent are we, As each town goes passing by, O'er the "Rockies" we do fly, All from Jersey full of "fun" and song, Round for Portland, Oregon.

Here's to new friends we may find in the Golden West, "The Crescent-Salaam Caravan" they sing to the tune of "Long, Long Trail":

There's a caravan being wheeled from out the East into the West, And the folks who traveled it Picked the state they like the best, But today, when we reached Oregon wherein The roses bloom so fair, All hail, went off in honor of The state of roses rare.

Unkind and Ungallant The wife of a Shriner from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is without a perfectly good set of false teeth as a result of thieves entering a Pullman car parked at Thirtieth and Lovejoy streets Monday night.

Feminine Vagrants Held The police dragnet has caught close to a dozen colored, feminine vagrants during the last two days. They have all been held for examination by the health bureau. It is believed that the bureau will be unable to care for them until after Saturday.

Advertisement for Maurice Tournour's Treasure Island, featuring a map and the name of the author.

Advertisement for Robert Louis Stevenson's Immortal classic on the screen in a wonderful superproduction, featuring Columbia Orchestra and COLUMBIN.

Islam Temple Here With 300 Members And Famous Band

Islam temple of San Francisco arrived Monday, 300 strong, bringing its famous band, patrol and Joceans. The latter is Islam's great singing organization and is headed by Richard Jose, the famous contra tenor.

Islam patrol, in command of Noble Herman Wertsch, has fastened the real patrol spirit, for the benefit of Shrinism, at many conclaves. This one will see them much in evidence. Their slogan is:

SAN FRANCISCO '22 Islam Temple Welcomes You. Islam temple is out to have the imperial conclave held in San Francisco in 1922, and will make a strong bid for support from other temples throughout the country.

It is hoped that after this conclave is held in San Francisco, that the entire imperial divan will proceed to Honolulu, to escort "Sunny" Jim McCandless to his home temple, Aloha. McCandless is in line for election as imperial potentate in 1922. A reception will be held by Islam temple at their headquarters in the Multnomah hotel, this evening.

All Shriners and their women passing through San Francisco, after leaving Portland, are invited to visit Islam temple's new home at 550 Geary street, where they will hold open house during the week following this conclave.

Thomas H. Ince Presents CHARLES RAY IN 'PARIS GREEN' at Grandmont Street Picture

Advertisement for Charles Ray in 'Paris Green', featuring a picture of the actor and promotional text.

Advertisement for 'A Potentate's Pilgrimage to Mecca' featuring Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island, with showtimes and ticket information.

50,000 PERSONS VIEW ROSE BLOOMS IN PARK BLOCKS

More than 50,000 people viewed the rare rose blossoms exhibited at the Rose Show Monday afternoon and evening and additional thousands are passing through the park blocks today enjoying the fragrant beauty spread before them in luxuriant profusion.

While the verdure of the park made an admirable background for the display of prize winning flowers, it was impossible to keep them all out of the sun with the result that many of the displays were drooping their heads before the end of the day.

The show, which is open to the public, will continue all day today and this evening, Wednesday all day and evening. An exhibit from the rose gardens of the state has been solicited from Governor Olcott by President H. J. Blaessing of the Rose society, and this is expected to arrive this morning and be placed in afternoon.

Cities outside Portland are asked to send displays for Wednesday. Dr. A. E. Rockey is sending in daily great quantities of wild briar roses for use in decorating the lattice entrances to the Rose show.

The professional displays of roses, peonies, iris and other flowers made by florists or public spirited citizens has been freshened and presents a truly beautiful appearance.

Great interest is manifested in the school children's display sponsored by the Oregon Journal, and some very fine specimens are shown today. Awards will be made each day of the show. The Dorothy Napp Durfee second, Marion Machen and Dora Ferrer; third, Ethel Ketten, Cullen Moore, John Gardner, Marjorie Hamilton and Johnnie Mossman.

Following is the list of prize winners in the Rose society display: Section A, single rose exhibit in vase—Edwin Caswell; second, Mrs. J. P. Cooke.

Section B, specimen blooms in boxes (4 or best separate named varieties)—First, Julius M. Johnson; second, Mrs. Thomas Gray, Twelve best roses—Erat, Charles B. Clark; second, Mrs. H. Herbert Holman. Eighteen best roses—First, Mrs. James P. Cooke; second, Mrs. Thomas Gray; third, Mrs. E. W. Lasell. Basket of red roses—First, Mrs. Pate; second, A. E. Wallace. Basket of pink roses—First, Mrs. S. S. Montague; second, Mrs. Marion Goodman. Basket of white roses—First, Mrs. Richard W. Montague; second, Mrs. E. W. Lasell. Basket of yellow roses—First, Mrs. S. S. Montague; second, Mrs. Edwin Caswell. Basket of mixed roses—First, Mrs. J. C. Alsworth; second, Mrs. Thomas Gray.

Section D, climbing and rambling roses in vases or baskets—First, Mrs. Edwin Caswell; second, Mrs. Marion Goodman. First, Mrs. R. G. Dieck; second, Mrs. Edwin Caswell.

Section E, single decorative and miniature roses—First, Mrs. W. C. Seachrest; second, Mrs. Ella B. Risley; first, Mrs. Mrs. Caswell; second, Mrs. H. E. Storra.

Section F—Large displays—First, Mrs. W. C. Seachrest; second, Mrs. M. Ek. Section G, exhibits by amateurs who have never won a prize—Class 1—First, C. E. Claflin; second, Mrs. A. H. Masgry. Section H, roses shown according to type—Hybrid teas—First, Mrs. James P. Cooke; second, Mrs. Edwin Caswell. Feat roses—First, Mrs. M. Ek. Section I, Mme. Caroline Testout—Best three—First, Mrs. E. W. Lasell; second, Mrs. Burnett Goodwin; third, Mrs. E. W. Lasell. First, Mrs. J. P. Cooke; second, Mrs. R. W. Montague.

Section J, small gardens—First, William Bauer; second, Mrs. E. W. Lasell. First, Mrs. J. C. Alsworth. Section K, professional gardeners—First, Mrs. J. P. Cooke; first, Vivian R. Lewis. Section L, florists and nurserymen—First, Martin & Forbes; second, Clarke Brothers.

Section M, 1 to 1 A. M.—Imperial Potentate's ball at Scottish Rite Cathedral, Colville hall, Christensen's hall and Broadway academy. 2 to 3 P. M.—Cowboy Fair of Pendleton at Festival Center accomplished by Indians. 3 to 4 P. M.—Electric parade. 4 to 5 P. M.—Shriners' Frolic and dancing on Park street between Jefferson and Clay, and on Columbia between Broadway and West Park, Sixth street between Morrison and Washington, and on Alder street between Fifth street and Broadway. Isis Temple band of Salina Kas.

The and Rite Found Vancouver, Wash., June 21.—Dr. J. P. Mooney of Roslyn, Wash. while motoring through this section of the country Sunday, found an automobile tire and rim, which he left at the police station.

Curfew Law Will Be Enforced for Girls' Protection Girls under 18 who are on the streets after 9 o'clock at night without parents or escorts will be arrested, according to a warning issued Monday night by Mrs. G. J. Frankel, acting superintendent of the women's protective division. Six additional operatives will patrol the downtown business section to apprehend young girls.

TODAY'S PROGRAM OF SHRINE CONVENTION (Concluded on Page Two, Column Five) exhibition drills by Patrol; Station 4, West Temple band of New York City. Station 2, The Scotch pipes, Giesb. temple of Victoria. Station 3, Hamasa Temple band, Meridian, Mo. Station 4, Bonni Temple band of Baltimore, Md. Station 5, Le Lu Temple band, Philadelphia, Pa. Station 6, Alesppo Temple band of Boston, Mass. Station 7, Ramasse Temple band of Buffalo, N. Y. Station 8, Al Malakha Temple band, Los Angeles, Cal. Station 9, Baker Shrine Club band of Baker, Or. Station 10, Bagdad Temple band of Butte, Mont. Station 11, Al Efar Temple band of San Antonio, Texas. Station 12, Ismailis Temple band of Buffalo, N. Y. Station 13, Osman Temple band of St. Paul. Station 14, P. M.—Oasis Temple band of Charlotte, S. C.; grandstand in Morrison street between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets. Station 15, P. M.—El Festival Temple band of Chicago, Ill.; Portland hotel. Station 16, P. M.—Yarrah Temple band of Atlanta, Ga.; Postoffice grandstand. Station 17, P. M.—Za-Ga-Zig Temple band of Des Moines, Iowa; Sixth and Pine streets grandstand. Station 18, P. M.—Islam Temple band of San Francisco, Cal.; Festival Center. Station 19, P. M.—El Hava Temple band of Louisville, Ky.; grandstand in Morrison street between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets. Station 20, P. M.—Moslem Temple band of Detroit, Mich.; Portland hotel. Station 21, P. M.—Kosair Temple band of Louisville, Ky.; Portland hotel. Station 22, P. M.—Kasab Temple band of Davenport, Iowa; Sixth and Pine streets grandstand. Station 23, P. M.—Aad Temple band of Duluth, Minn.; Postoffice grandstand. Station 24, P. M.—Kerek Temple band of Reno, Nev.; grandstand in Morrison street between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets. Station 25, P. M.—Murat Temple band of Indianapolis, Ind.; Portland hotel. Station 26, P. M.—Dinner dance at Chamber of Commerce for Recordors and their ladies. Station 27, P. M.—Dinner dance at Scottish Rite Cathedral for Patrol captains and lieutenants, band leaders, band managers and band directors and their ladies. Station 28, P. M.—At corner of Fourth and Pine streets, night exhibition of life saving and wall scaling by Portland fire department. Morocco Temple band of Jacksonville, Fla. Station 29, P. M.—Visitation by the Pendleton Round-Up Patrol at all hotels. Station 30, P. M.—Night Horse show at Multnomah field. Station 31, P. M.—Folk dances and miniature pageants in front of grandstands. Station 32, P. M.—Electric parade. Station 33, P. M.—Imperial Potentate's ball at Scottish Rite Cathedral, Colville hall, Christensen's hall and Broadway academy. Station 34, P. M.—Cowboy Fair of Pendleton at Festival Center accomplished by Indians. Station 35, P. M.—Shriners' Frolic and dancing on Park street between Jefferson and Clay, and on Columbia between Broadway and West Park, Sixth street between Morrison and Washington, and on Alder street between Fifth street and Broadway. Isis Temple band of Salina Kas.

9 CANDIDATES FOR OUTER GUARD OF IMPERIAL DIVAN Amid the hue and cry of politics in the ranks of the Shrine one outstanding contention is resting behind a dark cloud. This question which will have to be cleared at the session Wednesday, will be the matter of election of the outer guard. The supreme honors of Shrinism are obtained by annual progression. This year W. Freeland Kendrick becomes past imperial potentate and Ellis Lewis Garretson of Tacoma, imperial deputy potentate, steps into the high position. The position of outer guard is the lowest in rank of the Imperial divan, but a Shriner must pass through this rank to reach the pinnacle. Asked to clear the haze surrounding the election this year, Kendrick talked freely on the subject, casting some new light on the matter which even prominent Shriners may not have considered. "Two years ago," said Kendrick, "the outer guard was selected from the divan. The young man, who comes from Indianapolis, may wish to be returned to the position of outer guard and if he expresses his desire there may be no vacancy to fill. "Two men have jumped over him in rank during his deposition and he may choose not to let any more pass him. As far as I have heard there are nine contestants for the position." Campaigns are being waged for George Eisenbrown of Rajah temple of Reading, Pa.; George Gendry of Scott's temple of Lincoln, Neb.; John Staub Fouché of Ailabaha temple of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Henry Bytner of Saliam temple of Newark, N. J.; Thomas Houston of Medinah temple of Chicago; Esten A. Fletcher of Damascus temple of Rochester, N. Y.; Henry A. Pierce of El Katif temple of Spokane, and Earl C. Mills of Za-Ga-Zig temple of Des Moines, Iowa.

Butler Apologizes To Proctor for Slur On Wood's Backers New York, June 22.—(I. N. S.)—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university today sent a telegram to Colonel William C. Proctor, chief financial backer of the presidential candidacy of General Leonard Wood, apologizing for certain remarks he made in a public statement immediately after the Republican national committee. These remarks reflected upon some of General Wood's supporters. Dr. Butler says that he retracted his statements that were made under the strain and stress of the Republican convention.

Advertisement for Rivoli Grand Orchestra, featuring an announcement about damage to film and a list of featured acts for the week.