

FOUR of the charming maids for the Rose Festival, who were in the queen's retinue, were the Misses Elizabeth Boschke, Suzanne Caswell, Virginia Mears and Elizabeth Bacon. All of these young girls are among the social contingent of Portland and have been much feted during the week.

Yeo-Cooper Wedding Held In Yeo Home

THE marriage of Miss Dorothy M. Yeo and George F. Cooper was solemnized June 19 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Yeo in Piedmont. Dr. Morgan officiated in the presence of close relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. Miss Dorris Warner was bridesmaid and Frank Hammond attended the bridegroom. The wedding march was played by Miss Ethel Lowell of The Dalles.

Mrs. Henry Yeale, sister of the bride, sang the bridal hymn. Following the ceremony the wedding collation was served, Miss Nell Snook and Miss Bertha Stern assisting in serving. The dining table was centered with sweet peas and pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper left for Vancouver, B. C., and will return to Seattle after July 1, where they will make their home.

Waverley club was the scene of its regular dinner dance Saturday evening, the Italian fete having been called off at the last moment. One of the largest dinners given on this occasion was that for which Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruun were hosts, their guests including 22 friends. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires also entertained for a number of friends. Others making reservations for smaller parties were Mr. and Mrs. Carleton W. Betts (Ruth Teal), Roscoe Fawcett, F. L. Wilson, C. F. Swigert, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore, G. F. Rodgers. Next weekend will be the occasion of the annual Independence day celebration at the club. A dedication ceremony for the new flag pole will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the address for the occasion being made by the Hon. C. N. McArthur. From 5 to 9 o'clock Monday evening, special selection of fireworks will be displayed from the polo field, and dancing in the clubhouse will follow.

An interesting function of the last day of the week was the Community service dance given in the assembly room of the Portland hotel in honor of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The Klitte band played for the dancers, and patrons and patronesses included Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Mayor and Mrs. Gale of Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Lowengart, Eric V. Hauser, Mrs. I. D. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berg, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Andrus, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall N. Dana, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Giltner, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Jenkins.

For the entertainment of the queen's party and the maids of the Rose festival, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett was hostess for a luncheon Thursday, following the coronation of Mrs. Squires at the festival center. Following the parade in the afternoon the queen and her maids met at the home of Mrs. David T. Honeyman and were entertained at a dinner which preceded the Rosarian ball.

One of the interesting features of Shrine week was the concert given by a Texas band at the Boys' and Girls' Aid society home. Patronesses for the occasion were the members of the advisory board of directors of the home, including Mrs. William H. Skene, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, Mrs. R. C. Coffey, Mrs. Forrest Fisher and Mrs. Harry Beal Torrey.

The annual Independence day celebration of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will be an event of July 5 at Council Crest. John R. Murphy will make the patriotic address of the day. Proceeds from the entertainment will be used for the benefit fund of the order.

Mrs. Lester L. Bauer, formerly Miss Emily Block, the children and maid, have arrived from Chicago for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Block, 666 Hoyt street.

Miss Ruth E. Rauch became the bride of Samuel Saxton Arnold, June 16, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rauch, in East Fifteenth street. The service was read by the HONORING Mrs. Raymond M. Stevens of Seattle, who is a visitor in Portland this week, Mrs. D. E. McBride and Miss Agnes McBride entertained at a smart tea Saturday afternoon at their attractive home at 1500 Broadway. The occasion was the occasion of the annual Independence day celebration of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. At the tea hour Mrs. Harry L. Kuchins, Mrs. Dale Hinkle, Mrs. Jack White, Mrs. Correll Swigert and Mrs. Albert Bernal presided at the tea urns. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Henry Boyd, Miss V. O. Guthrie and the Misses Elizabeth and Louise Boyd.

MRS. M'GUIRE, wife of Dr. Stuart McGuire, is one of Portland's charming young matrons and is shown here with their young son, Stuart Taglieri. Dr. and Mrs. McGuire make their home in Portland at the Carmelita apartments.

Rev. A. J. Joslyn. The wedding march was played by Miss Beatrice Rauch, sister of the bride. Little Miss Virginia Gault, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and little Miss Ann Adamson, a niece of the bride, carried on a satin pillow the wedding ring. The bride was attired in Georgette crepe over satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Lydia Kaboth, was charmingly gowned in orchid toned crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses. Victor Gault attended the bridegroom. For the occasion the rooms were decked with summer flowers. Following the service a wedding supper was served. Following a brief trip Mr. and Mrs. Rauch will make their home at 419 Harrison street.

Leah Cohen to Give Recital at The Auditorium

PORTLAND friends of Leah Leaska (Miss Leah Cohen), who recently returned to Portland from New York, will be interested to know of her recital to be given Friday evening at The Auditorium. J. Hutschel will be her accompanist. Miss Cohen is presented by the Music League of America and her concert is sponsored by the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, which assisted her in reaching New York to continue her study.

The list of patronesses for the affair includes Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, the Misses Felling, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Max Fieschner, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. A. Morrison, Mrs. Henry W. Metcalf and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright.

Miss Alta Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mason of Freewater, Or., was married Wednesday evening at the family residence to Jess Dobbins, a young rancher of Ione, Or. The Rev. Harris of the First Christian church of Milton officiated. Only the immediate friends of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dobbins left the same evening for Portland. They will visit several coast cities before their return.

The marriage of Miss Anna Smith to Natate Cipolla took place June 24 in Portland. The bride, who is a graduate nurse, met her husband in a military hospital on his return from service overseas, where he was wounded in the battle of Soissons. He was in service with the First division, United States infantry. Mr. and Mrs. Cipolla will make their home in California.

Miss Florence Echelberry became the bride of Edward H. Rockwell Thursday at high noon. The service was read in the study of the Glencoe Baptist church by the Rev. F. C. Lalette, pastor of the Glencoe Baptist church. Following a brief wedding trip to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell will make their home in Portland.

William A. Taylor, assistant to the general manager of the William Knabe & company of New York, is a visitor in the city at the home of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, at 821 Northrup street.

Mrs. Crosby H. Shevlin of Bend is a visitor in the city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Burrell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis left the city Tuesday for a fortnight's stay in Eastern Oregon.

25th Wedding Anniversary Is Much Enjoyed

MR. AND MRS. FRED WERLING celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last Sunday with a reception at their home, 1035 East Twentieth street north. The afternoon's festivities were crowned by a bountiful dinner served by the host and hostess. Many beautiful silver tokens were bestowed upon the couple and assisting in serving were the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Werling, the Misses Bertha and Emma Werling. Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. F. Johnson of Seattle, Mrs. H. Block, Miss Rose Block, Arthur Block, Frank Block, Harold Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boos, Forest Grove; Miss Treva Boos, Forest Grove; Miss Mary Boos, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Schlot, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pfeiderer, Mr. and Mrs. T. Borus, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stein, H. Schade, Miss Carrie Streib, Mrs. E. Feustel, Miss Bridget Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brande.

The quiet chapel of the Church of the Holy Rosary was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lillian Shumlick to Henry J. Ditter last week. The service was read in the presence of a few relatives and was followed by an informal wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Ockerman of Seattle. She was graduated from the University of Washington and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Ditter is president of the Shanahan company of this city. He was graduated from the Gonzaga university of Spokane, Wash., and has a wide circle of friends in the city.

Following a brief wedding trip through British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Ditter will return to Portland, where they will make their home at 721 Multnomah avenue.

A recent wedding was that of Miss Nina Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young of 1055 Hancock street, who on Friday evening, June 25, became the bride of Philip Stanley McKennie. The ceremony was performed by Dr. John H. Boyd, in the presence of the family and a few close friends. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Violet Young, and the bridegroom was attended by Frank Christopher. After a visit in British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. McKennie will be at home to their friends at 377 East Thirty-ninth street north.

Mrs. Edward Dunn and family of Irvington have taken a cottage at Seaside for the summer months.

Many Guests At Wedding of Miss Everett

THE marriage of Miss Olga Everett and James Frankland of Seattle was solemnized Saturday evening at the Piedmont Presbyterian church. The service was read in the presence of a large assembly of guests by the Rev. J. Francis Morgan.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white tulle over cloth of silver, cut en train and worn with the wedding veil, fashioned with coronet cap. Her flowers were of bride roses, sweetpeas and carnations.

Miss Gladys Everett, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was gowned in a frock of blue tulle worn with a large picture hat of the same tint. Four bridesmaids, including the Misses Francine Miller, Edna Johnston, Elmer Anderson and Dorothy Fiegl, were gowned in rose tinted organdie, worn with tulle hats of blue and orange bouquets of sweetpeas.

James Meese attended the bridegroom. The ushers were V. F. Everett, Stanley Anderson, Jesse Digman and John Hunt. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the church parlors. At the punch bowl were Mrs. Cecil Stabler Grout and Mrs. R. G. Hofer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Everett of Piedmont and has a wide circle of friends in this city. She was graduated from Jefferson high school, and the Oregon State Normal school, and has been for the past two years a teacher in the Portland schools. Mr. Frankland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morton Frankland of Seattle and was connected with the forest service here for some time. He was

WHY NOT A SKIRT WITH Snap and Dash
EASY TO MAKE AT HOME
We sew, hem, accoridian, box or knife pleat skirts ready to put on belting.
Special $1.25
EASTERN NOVELTY MFG. COMPANY
MANCHESTER BLDG.
55 1/2 Fifth St.
Room 301
Bdwy. 3000

Seattle Visitor Is Honored at Tea Saturday

HONORING Mrs. Raymond M. Stevens of Seattle, who is a visitor in Portland this week, Mrs. D. E. McBride and Miss Agnes McBride entertained at a smart tea Saturday afternoon at their attractive home at 1500 Broadway. The occasion was the occasion of the annual Independence day celebration of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. At the tea hour Mrs. Harry L. Kuchins, Mrs. Dale Hinkle, Mrs. Jack White, Mrs. Correll Swigert and Mrs. Albert Bernal presided at the tea urns. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Henry Boyd, Miss V. O. Guthrie and the Misses Elizabeth and Louise Boyd.

By Your Shoes Are
Ye Known, O Fair
Lady of Fashion

And straight from the center of Styledom comes the mandate: "Wear cross-strap pumps if thou would'st look truly smart!" The newest effects in both Parisian toe, the choice of stage favorites and the conservative long vamp are shown here in

I. MILLER
Cross Strap Pumps
$15.25, $16.75, $17.25

Your pleasure in their beauty is enhanced by perfect fit and perhaps, too, by the knowledge that you may have them charged.

Tieburg Bros.
L. MILLER FOOTWEAR
Smart Shoes for Women

Morrison at Park

To match the shoe or the costume, dainty silken hosiery in the new drop stitch or clocked effects.

Latest Advices
From New York
Say Furs Are Again Advancing
in Price, Confirming Our Previous Statements

Remember Furs
Bought at This Sale Will Be Stored
Free of Charge in
Our Cold Storage
Vaults Until Wanted

This Will Be the Last Week

Million Dollar
FUR
sale

Think of Saving $\frac{1}{4}$
to $\frac{1}{2}$
on Stylish

Furs and Fur
Coats

That is what you do in buying this week.

Not Since the Days of Low Prices
Have We Offered Such Big Values

Every woman contemplating the purchase of furs in the future should avail herself of this splendid opportunity while she can save a quarter to a half on any fur or fur coat in this high-grade stock.

20 Degrees
Below Freezing
is the temperature maintained in our cold storage vaults. You take no chances of harm from moths, fire or water in leaving your furs in our care.

Your Furs
Restyled

Advice and estimates gladly given on making your old furs into new, up-to-date styles. Bring them in for our expert designer's opinion.

Phone
Marshall
785

H. Liebes & Co
ESTABLISHED
55 YEARS
FURS
149-151
BROADWAY

Phone
Marshall
785