BUTTER RISE PROBABLE.
An advance of either 2 or 3 cents a pound is expected in the local butter market within the next few days because of the much stronger situation.

Market for butter continues to gain in strength. With extra exports finding a ready demand at 51c a pound among jobbers and with the outside call firm, indications point strongly to a rise in the price of prints.

Shipments of cubes to the South are liberal and the call from local storage interests is taking shape. Demand for the fresh trade is not absorbing.

There appears to be a slightly better financial arrangement regarding storage supplies and this in itself is a direct aid to the general trade.

Those desiring special information regarding the market should write the Market Editor, Oregon Journal, including stamp for reply.

EGG TRADE IS MIXED.
Trading in the egg market was on a mixed basis here for the week's opening. F. o. b. buyers in general were offering 37c for current receipts, with a premium 50c above the regular market.

FANCY RASPBERRIES SELL HIGH.
General sales of raspberries along the street for the day were at $6.00 a crate but one lot of extra fine fruit of highest quality was sold at a premium 50c above the regular market.

STRAWBERRY PRICES ARE HIGH.
Strawberries generally sold at $3.50 on the Farmers' market during the day with Front Street sales at $4.00. The quality is the best in the last few years.

CHICKEN TRADE NOW SLUGGISH.
Trade in the chicken market was sluggish at the week's opening and it looks as if supplies would be considered about 10c lower generally.

MORE TUBER MOTH IN POTATOES.
Additional reports of the tuber moth have been found by inspection officials here and it is feared that the pest is spreading.

BRIEF NOTES OF PRODUCE TRADE.
Royal Anne cherries at 25c for best pack; Bing, 30c.

Peaches are lower $1.45 to $1.75 for good stuff. Apples are expected to advance soon.

Banana shortage due to the last of the week. Gold Dust Washington powder up 15c a case. Country killed and dressed, 40c to 42c.

Lard is lower and fractional changes shown in hams and bacon.

WEATHER NOTICE FOR SHIPPERS.
Weather bureau advises: Protect shipments during the next 36 hours against the following maximum temperatures: Grains, 72 to 74 degrees; northeast over the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway, 85 degrees; east to Baker, 85 degrees; and south to Ashland, 80 to 82 degrees.
