

Oregon Journal

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER... Published every week day and Sunday morning...

Foreign Advertising Representative... Benjamin & Kenner Co., Brunswick Building, 227 Fifth Avenue, New York 10001.

Subscription Rates... One week $0.15, One month $0.45, Three months $1.00, Six months $1.80, One year $3.50.

Advertisement Rates... One inch, one week $1.00, one month $2.50, one year $15.00.

Business Application... We are taught to clothe our minds, as we do our bodies...

Hoover's Suggestion... Herbert Hoover's suggestion, recently made, that it is the duty of America to join the League of Nations...

No More Marquam Gulch... In several instances the Portland city council has refused to purchase for park sites land held at high figures.

Letters From The People... When Leaguers Come... Curious Bits of Information For The Curious... Olden Oregon... Unused Acres... World Wonders...

More Or Less Personal... Random Observations About Town... The Greeters of Oregon and their women friends will be entertained at the Liberty Hotel...

Uljia and Spirits... Washougal, Wash., June 28.—To the Editor of the Oregon Journal: I am writing you to report Dr. William House, a Portland physician, as claiming there is no proof of communication with spirits...

Safe Guard The Child... Milton Schwartz is under arrest in Portland. He was located and detained yesterday by county officials under the personal direction of Governor Oloott.

When Leaguers Come... Dayton, June 28.—To the Editor of The Journal—There is in congress a bill which would give farmers the right to sue and be sued in competition with other businesses...

Curious Bits of Information For The Curious... The manifest of the "good ship" Louisiana, bound for the coast of the United States, is one of the interesting documents on file at the custom house in Galveston...

Record Refutes Treaty Killers... Washington, June 28.—Here is a short story in response to the pronouncements of the oft-repeated assertions that the "treaty ratifiers" were "killing" the League of Nations...

Extols Wilson's Plan... Portland, June 28.—To the Editor of The Oregon Journal: The Oregonians will count Woodrow Wilson among the great men, but he has poor tools to work with...

More Or Less Personal... The Greeters of Oregon and their women friends will be entertained at the Liberty Hotel. The party will be given by the Greeters of Oregon...

Uljia and Spirits... Washougal, Wash., June 28.—To the Editor of the Oregon Journal: I am writing you to report Dr. William House, a Portland physician, as claiming there is no proof of communication with spirits...

Safe Guard The Child... Milton Schwartz is under arrest in Portland. He was located and detained yesterday by county officials under the personal direction of Governor Oloott.

When Leaguers Come... Dayton, June 28.—To the Editor of The Journal—There is in congress a bill which would give farmers the right to sue and be sued in competition with other businesses...

Curious Bits of Information For The Curious... The manifest of the "good ship" Louisiana, bound for the coast of the United States, is one of the interesting documents on file at the custom house in Galveston...

Olden Oregon... Lane county, which was organized out of Linn and Benton counties in 1851, was named after Joseph Lane, first territorial governor of Oregon...

Unused Acres... Portland, June 28.—To the Editor of The Journal—Thousands of acres of unused agricultural land are scattered all over the state...

World Wonders... From the Los Angeles Times. A tribe of Indians from the Hudson Bay country who had never tasted or even smelled civilization, were brought down to Winnipeg as a feature of a celebration...

Maine's Centennial... Maine should call within her portals the heat fevered denizens of New York. She should solicit the attendance of the restless from Philadelphia and Boston.

Comments on the League of Nations... The league canvas. Various Republican leaders, it is known, want to sweep the league aside and turn to The Hague convention and the long cherished dream of a supreme court of international justice.

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The league canvas. Various Republican leaders, it is known, want to sweep the league aside and turn to The Hague convention and the long cherished dream of a supreme court of international justice.

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE... Everybody happy... Looks as though we might have a little summer weather after all.

Sweet news... Sugar is going down. Here's hoping it doesn't move up again with the arrival of the canning season.

The National Building Owners and Managers' association is in Portland holding its annual convention...

More Or Less Personal... Random Observations About Town... The Greeters of Oregon and their women friends will be entertained at the Liberty Hotel...

Uljia and Spirits... Washougal, Wash., June 28.—To the Editor of the Oregon Journal: I am writing you to report Dr. William House, a Portland physician, as claiming there is no proof of communication with spirits...

Safe Guard The Child... Milton Schwartz is under arrest in Portland. He was located and detained yesterday by county officials under the personal direction of Governor Oloott.

When Leaguers Come... Dayton, June 28.—To the Editor of The Journal—There is in congress a bill which would give farmers the right to sue and be sued in competition with other businesses...

Curious Bits of Information For The Curious... The manifest of the "good ship" Louisiana, bound for the coast of the United States, is one of the interesting documents on file at the custom house in Galveston...

Olden Oregon... Lane county, which was organized out of Linn and Benton counties in 1851, was named after Joseph Lane, first territorial governor of Oregon...

Unused Acres... Portland, June 28.—To the Editor of The Journal—Thousands of acres of unused agricultural land are scattered all over the state...

World Wonders... From the Los Angeles Times. A tribe of Indians from the Hudson Bay country who had never tasted or even smelled civilization, were brought down to Winnipeg as a feature of a celebration...

Maine's Centennial... Maine should call within her portals the heat fevered denizens of New York. She should solicit the attendance of the restless from Philadelphia and Boston.

Comments on the League of Nations... The league canvas. Various Republican leaders, it is known, want to sweep the league aside and turn to The Hague convention and the long cherished dream of a supreme court of international justice.

The Oregon Country

Northwest Happpings in Brief... The first airplane to cross the Cascades from Eugene to Bend arrived at the latter city...

Oregon Notes... Baker coal dealers are receiving liberal supplies of coal, removing any fear of an immediate shortage.

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."

Comments on the League of Nations... The Russell Sage foundation has just paid a libel judgment of $3500 to a boy whose picture it published under the caption, "The Toughest Boy on the Street."