Licenses Cancelled For Pawn Brokers, Fences for Thieves

The city council Wednesday afternoon revoked the licenses of three second hand dealers and pawnbrokers who had previously been convicted in municipal court of receiving stolen goods. Evidence at the trial convinced the city commissioners that the dealers were acting as "fences" for thieves.

The cancelled licenses were held by E. Jacobson, 22 North Second street; H. Goldstein, 225 Euraiside street, and Alec Goldstein, 28 1/2 North Third street. Commissioner Mann opposed revocation of Jacobson's license but the four commissioners were unanimous about the other two. N. H. Karl, another dealer who was cited to show why his license should not be revoked, presented evidence that stolen property found in his place was taken there by Alec Goldstein in packages so wrapped that the nature of the contents could not be discerned. Karl's license was not revoked, evidence being given on the other side to show that he had cooperated with the
