

MARRIED TEACHER NOT BARRED; MAKE EFFICIENCY TEST

Marriage shall not constitute a bar against teaching in the Portland public schools, but the election of teachers shall depend upon efficiency. Efficiency being equal, however, preference shall be given unmarried women.

This was the policy adopted by the school board Thursday upon the recommendation of Director A. C. Newill. For years it has been a policy of the school administration not to elect married women. Formerly, a clause was even contained in the teacher's contract that by marriage she automatically ended her position, but this was raised out by the state supreme court.

GOOD TEACHERS AT PREMIUM

Newill, in presenting his motion, expressed the fallacy of barring efficient married teachers at a time when good teachers are at a premium and even recommended the reinstatement of Mrs. Eugenia Taggart, whose case against the schools for denying her the salary of a regular teacher after she had served the probationary period, was in the courts for so many months. The maximum age at which a teacher might be employed was also discussed, but no formal policy adopted. Superintendent D. A. Groat stated that it was not his policy to employ a woman just 40 years, who had given the best years of her life to another city and who would come in under the tenure law and the retirement fund, as well as he did not like to have it said that Portland schools would not employ anyone over 40 years; that many of the best teachers were past that age; that age was a relative thing and that some persons were old at 35 while others were young at 70.

SUPERVISOR JOB ABOLISHED

In the interest of economy the position of supervisor of building maintenance and construction, now held by M. B. Coude, was declared abolished after July 31. Coude was elected early in the year. The office was formerly held by F. A. Narramore.

Director Newill, authorized to look about for a suitable woman to serve as director of primary education, while at Salt Lake, announced that he had selected Miss Ethel Salisbury, A. B. Illinois, M. M. Columbia Teachers' college, with seven years' experience in the supervision in Duuth and one year at Berkeley, where she holds the position of director of primary education. Miss Salisbury is now considering the offer.

RESIGNATIONS ACCEPTED

Resignations were accepted from Esther Cloutier, kindergarten teacher; Luina H. Holmes of Failing school, Olive N. Kincaid, James John high school; Henry J. Krue, Washington high school, and Grace Rogers, Central school.

Bids were awarded for the construction of the third unit of the Kennedy school to Graham & Aitken, the lowest bidder, for $14,461, on the condition that the company give bond that the stucco shall stick and shall not crack. The third unit will consist of two rooms.

Bids on heating and ventilation of the Benson Polytechnic school were awarded to the Alaska Plumbing & Heating company for $18,847. Bids were opened on the construction of portables and the matter referred to a committee, composed of George B. Thomas, W. F. Woodward, and L. L. Shull. They will meet Tuesday afternoon.

Civil War Veteran Finds Citizenship Proof; Case Dropped

Veterans of the Civil war make good citizens, whether they have citizenship papers or not, believes Federal Judge Charles Wolverton, Thursday afternoon a veteran, Frank Strickrott, who was born of German parents, appeared before the court to be naturalized. At the outbreak of the war Strickrott was unable to locate his father's naturalization papers, so he was forced to register as an alien enemy. Since the close of the war Strickrott has found the papers. The court dismissed the regular proceedings Thursday which Strickrott had started to become a citizen and declared him to have at all times been fully naturalized. Twenty-five other persons, nine of them ex-service men, were admitted to citizenship. The ex-service men were: Joseph Mathias Welch, Adolph Valciav Mares, Nicholas William Nashif, Robert Allen, Louis Krichinsky, Samuel Hestert Wilderman, Angelo Antonia Chimenti and Les Magistrate.

The civilians admitted to citizenship were: Constantine Rizopoulos, Emil Huz, Carl August Schmidt, Daniel Pemberton Wood, Gustav Adolph May, Jane Beams, Mary Beams, Thursday afternoon, Henry Schmidt, Frederick Louis O'Donnell, John Bernhard, Frank Johnson, Norman Stanley Richardson, Mathias Peterson, Karl Wilhelm Hilgison and Keratine Jensen Helligso.

The majority of those admitted were former citizens of Germany, Austria and Russia.
