Portland Beavers Scored Victory Over Bees—Phil Neer to Play Gardner for Net Title

Siglin Clouts Two Homers; Bees Beaten

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 17.—With Paddy Siglin leading the offensive with four hits—two homers and two singles—and Wisterzil, Maisel and Blue clouting the ball hard, Portland came out on top in Friday's struggle with Salt Lake, 7 to 5. Good fielding prevented more rungetting on each side.

Two pitchers were used by both clubs, Polson, who started for the Mackmen, getting credit for the victory, and Cullop, the Bees' first pitcher, being charged with the defeat.

POLSON BLOWS UP

Polson, who had the Bees eating out of his hands until the fifth when he allowed two hits and one run, blew-up in the sixth and allowed two runs, and when he was chased to the showers the bags were full and only one man out. Kallio, who replaced him, succeeded in retiring the side without any further scoring. Baum finished the game for Salt Lake. He was touched up for three runs.

RUNS CAME FAST

Siglin made his first home in the opening inning and repeated again in the third. Singles by Maisel, Blue and Schaller resulted in two runs for the Beavers in the sixth. Siglin's single, Wisterzil's double and Maisel's single put over two more in the seventh. Tobin's double and Kingdon's single resulted in the final run for Portland in the eighth.

Salt Lake scored one in the fifth, two in the sixth and Rumler's homer counted for two in the seventh.

BASEBALL

THE Lincoln park playground baseball team in the 5 foot 6 inch Portland Public Playground league, defeated the Forestry Park aggregation, 27 to 3, at Lincoln park Wednesday. A home run with the bases full by C. Schwartz and another by "Icky" Schlits, with two on, were the fatures for the winners, while "Lefty" Goodwin did all the good work for Forestry Park.

Clifton Park's team in the same league won from the North Park representatives on the North Park diamond Thursday by a 6 to 3 score. The twirling of Sam Colton and the batting of Henry Blank is what won for the Clifton boys. Harry Johnson pitched a good game for the North Parkers, but his support was ragged.

The Portland Junior Baseball league will hold a meeting in the Public Library Saturday night, at 8 o'clock. The circuit has not played any games for several weeks, and the boys are anxious to start operations again. Every manager and captain is requested to be on hand.

Gardner to Play Neer in Net Finals

EVERY indication points to the playing of the finals in the annual Oregon State tennis championships on the Irvington club courts this afternoon, but should it rain at any time before 2:30 o'clock p. m. it is almost a certainty that the matches will have to be shifted to the courts of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. Members of the committee announced this morning that they were going to wait until the last minute before making a switch, if it became necessary.

The elimination of Catlin Wolfard, holder of the Ralph W. Wilbur trophy emblematic of the Oregon state men's singles title, by Phil Neer was the big surprise of Friday's play. Neer captured three out of four set, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2, and by so doing won the right to meet Carl Gardner of San Francisco, who went to the finals by administering a decisive defeat to his teammate, Ray Casey, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

The Neer-Gardner match is slated to start at 2:30 o'clock.

MRS. NORTHUP CONTENDER

Finals in the women's singles will be between Mrs. W. I. Northup of Portland and Miss Mayme MacDonald of Seattle, who is the present title holder. Miss MacDonald did not play through the tourney inasmuch as the Waverley Bowl along with the title is settled by a challenge round. Mrs. Northup won from Miss Gertrude Schreinr of Seattle Friday, 6-0, 1-6, 6-1. In 1916 Mrs. Northup was the Oregon women's singles champion.

In the men's doubles, Catlin Wolfard and Henry Stevens, present champions, will meet Phil Bettens and Carl Gardner, California team, at 4 o'clock, while Mrs. J. C. Cushing, Los Angeles, and Miss Mayme MacDonald, Seattle, will play Miss Irene Campbell, Portland, and Miss Gertrude Schreiner, Seattle, this afternoon.

FRIDAY'S RESULTS

The mixed doubles title for 1920 will be held by Mrs. J. C. Cushing and Phil Neer or Miss Gertrude Schreiner and Phil Bettens, the argument to be settled on the courts this afternoon as the windup of the program.

Following are Friday's results:

Men's singles—Phil Neer beat Catlin Wolfard, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2; Carl Gardner beat Ray Casey 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

Women's singles—Mrs. W. I. Northup beat Miss Gertrude Schreiner, 6-0, 1-6, 6-1.

Men's doubles—Rogers MacVeigh and Irving Weinstein beat Ray Casey and Phil Neer in the final set of their unfinished match of Thursday. The complete score of the match was 6-2, 1-6, 7-5, 3-6, 7-5. Carl Gardner and Phil Bettens beat Rogers MacVeach and Irving Wienstein, 6-0, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Women's doubles—Mrs. J. C. Cushing and Miss Mayme MacDonald beat Janet and Dorothy Ettinger, 6-0, 6-2; Miss Irene Campbell and Miss Gertrude Schriner beat Miss Stella Fording and Mrs. W. I. Northup, 8-6, 5-7, 6-4.

Mixed doubles — Henry Stevens and Miss Mayme MacDonald beat Mr. and Mrs. John R. Norton by default; Phil Neer and Mrs. J. C. Cushing beat George Dewey and Ruth Carlson, 6-1, 6-2; Irving Wienstein and Adele Jones beat Walter Goss and Mrs. J. P. Mulder, 6-3, 6-2; Phil Bettens and Gertrude Schreiner beat Percy Lewis and Mrs. W. I. Northup, 6-0, 6-0.

Roberts Beats Chicago Star

Chicago, July 17.—(I. N. S.)—Roland Roberts of California defeated Ralph Burdick of Chicago in the sixth round of the national clay court tennis championship tournament at the South Side Tennis club, the scores being 7-5, 4-6, 6-1. By virtue of his victory Roberts enters the semi-finals.

Paddock Wins Fastest Dash In Ten Flat

HARVARD STADIUM, Cambridge, Mass., July 17.—(I. N. S.)—With but one exception—that of Harold Lever of Pennsylvania—the recognized class of the century dash field qualified for Saturday's semi-final heat in that event. Charley Paddock, the California star; Jackson Scholz of Missouri, Morris Kirksey of California and Loren Murchison of New York A. C., each won his heat. Paddock made the best time, winning his heat in 10 seconds flat.

Ted Meredith, world's record holder in three middle distance events, now attempting a come-back, surprised the stadium crowds by winning his heat in the 440-yard dash in easy fashion. Jake Driscoll of Boston A. A. and Frank Shea of Pittsburg and the navy, were winners of the other heats.

In the 440-yard hurdles first and second men in each heat qualified for the finals, also two third men with best time, leaving W. Wells of Portland unqualified.

Frank Loomis of Chicago, A. G. Desch of Notre Dame and William Coughlin of University of the South, each won his heat, with John Norton of California, new world's record holder, and William Meanix of the Boston A. A., former record holder, taking second places in easy fashion.

Council Upheld Ring Protest

Albany, July 17.—Albany will have no boxing commission as the result of a decision of the city council denying the petition of the American Legion that such a body be formed. The council yielded to the protest of 500 church members, who signed a counter petition. An appropriation of $300 was allowed for use in building Albany's new municipal swimming hole.

Waugh Loses to Koster

Fort Worth, Texas, July 17.—(I. N. S.)—Kid Koster of New Orleans easily bested Bobby Waugh of Fort Worth in a 12 round go here Friday night.

RACING

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 17.—Good times were registered in Thursday's Grand Circuit program, despite a heavy track. Peter Cooley won the feature event. Single G. won the free-for-all pace after dropping the second heat to Grace Direct.

M'DONALD WINNER IN JUNIOR SINGLES IN ROWING REGATTA

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, B. C., July 17.—Jack McDonald of the Portland Rowing club won the feature number of the first day's program of the annual North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen regatta yesterday.

McDonald's victory came in the junior singles and it fulfilled a prediction made by observers before the race started. It was a good match, well rowed by McDonald, who won it easily. Of the other two contests of the afternoon, the Portlanders took second in the junior doubles, the pair being George A. Gore and Jack McDonald, the Victoria duo, Kent and MacLaren, making the distance in 12 minutes and 45 seconds, 15 seconds faster than the Oregonians.

Conditions for racing were excellent, the weather being clear and not too warm, and Shawnigan lake afforded a fine stretch of water on which to compete.

Vancouver, B. C., was awarded the 1921 regatta at a meeting of the association last night and officers were elected. Reginald Woodward of Vancouver, B. C., is the new president; Dr. C. B. Boyington, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, vice president; W. F. Day, Victoria, B. C., secretary-treasurer. Special excursions from Victoria to Shawnigan lake, a distance of 30 miles, were run yesterday and the same will occur today.

The results of Friday's junior events follow:

Singles—Jack McDonald, Portland, first; Hay Currie, Victoria, second; C. B. Boyington, Coeur d'Alene, third. Time of winner, 12 minutes 45 1-5 seconds.

Doubles—Kent and MacLaren, Victoria, first; McDonald and Gore, Portland, second; Black and Francis, Vancouver, third. Time of winner, 12 minutes 45 seconds.

Fours—Vancouver (Grimmett, bow; Popupore, No. 2; Kayll, No. 3; Mariacher, stroke), first; Victoria 140 pound crew (Pauline, bow; Temple, No. 2; Cummings, No. 3; Johnson, stroke), second; Vancouver crew No. 2 (McKay, bow; McIntosh, No. 2; Sweeney, No. 3; Hosie, stroke), third. Time of winner, 10 minutes 40 seconds.

The senior events are billed for today.

Wolff won his place in the finals by beating Jack Wentzler of Memphis, 2 up and 1.

Dempsey to Begin Training for Bouts

New York, July 17.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight, arrived Friday from Excelsior Springs, Mo., and will go into training within a day or two for a number of prospective matches.

"Dempsey was met at his train by Jack Kearns, his manager. The first thing Dempsey said was: "How many matches have you got for me, Jack? I'm feeling great and want to get busy."

"Dempsey has been working at Excelsior Springs," said Kearns in announcing the champion's arrival. "We are casting about for training quarters close to New York, and as soon as we locate a suitable place Dempsey will start working out. We haven't closed with anyone yet, regardless of reports that we had signed, but we have stacks of offers and will soon sign up with somebody."

Ridley Wins Close Bout

San Francisco, July 17.—(U. P.)—Bud Ridley was given a hair-line decision over Harry Pelsinger in the feature event of the Dreamland rink card here last night. The bout was fast but bloodless.
