

Miss Blade Is Pretty Bride Of Past Month

MISS MARY ESTELLE BLADE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blade, and Harry Daniel Singleman were quietly married June 26 in Immaculate Heart church, in the presence of the immediate family, relatives and friends. The nuptial mass was read by the Rev. Father Daley.

The bride was becomingly gowned in oyster white silk, with a large hat of orchid color and blouse of the same shade. She carried a bouquet of bride roses and maidenhair fern. Miss Margaret O'Malley was bridesmaid and was lovely in white silk and georgette and carried a bouquet of pink roses. John Blade, brother of the bride, was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, the rooms being beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and carnations. Mrs. Singleman has lived from childhood in Portland where she attended St. Andrew's and St. Mary's schools, also Jefferson high.

Mrs. Singleman is an employee of the Southern Pacific railroad. Both have many friends in Portland and are spending a few weeks at the beach with Mrs. West.

Mrs. Oswald West and little daughter, Jean, left Portland Tuesday for their summer home at Cannon Beach. Miss Helen West will remain in the city until later in the summer, before joining her family. Mrs. Ben W. Olcott and children are spending a few weeks at the beach with Mrs. West.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lonergan were hosts for a dinner Thursday evening at their home at Alexandra court, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Copan, Miss Agnes McBride and M. B. Brennan.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson was hostess for a bridge party at her summer home at Clear Creek Wednesday honoring the members of her bridge club who motored out for the day.

Mrs. Thomas G. Halley and daughter, Elizabeth, have returned to Portland from Berkeley, Cal., for the summer and are occupying the Maxwell Wood house in St. Helens court.

Mrs. Edmund L. Devereaux and children will leave the middle of this week for Gearhart where they will spend a short time.

Senator Charles McNary arrived in Salem July 12 to spend the summer at the home of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Krubs are returning from a short visit at Shipperd Springs.

Mrs. Pauline Joffe of Salem was a recent visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Haack.

MRS. H. M. DOUGLAS of Fall River, Mass., who is in Portland to spend a few months at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Riley, who is domiciled at the Madison Park apartments.

Annual Picnic Of Lyle Society Held on Sunday

THE annual picnic given by the Lyle society was held last Sunday at Peninsula park.

An elaborate lunch was served and the afternoon was spent in games and races. The day was enjoyed by all, old and young taking part. The winners of the sports were as follows:

Children's race, Eugene Plummer; single ladies' race, Miss Laverna Spitzberger; married ladies' race, Mrs. Roy Lyle; gentlemen's race, Jess Lantry; ladies' three-legged race, Miss Laverna Spitzberger and Dolly McNaughton; boys' three-legged race, Eugene and Johnnie Plummer; gentlemen's three-legged race, John Dunkin and Joe Bookman. The society will hold a winter meeting during January or February. The date will be announced in the press. Next year's annual picnic will be held the second Sunday in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cook and children have taken the Prickel cottage at Seaside for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Callender are up from Astoria for a few days and are guests at the Hotel Portland.

Roelfson Clan Holds Annual Reunion Sunday

SANDY, July 17.—About 40 families in automobiles and a carload of the members of the Roelfson clan met at the D. D. Jack home at Seaside station Sunday to celebrate their fourteenth annual reunion. They are one of the best known clans in the state and have 125 members enrolled. Mrs. M. J. Hinshaw of Seaside was elected president for next year and Mary A. Hall of Salem secretary-treasurer. Wylie W. Roelfson of Woodburn was the historian of the clan and read a paper giving the history of special interest that happened during the past year. There were four weddings and three births reported. The Roelfson's boast of a service flag containing 38 stars. The next annual meeting will be held at the home of Morris Johnson at Prosser, Or. August 1, 1921.

Present were: The families of D. D. Jack, Harold Jack and E. N. Hall, Seaside station; Mrs. M. J. Hinshaw, Seaside, Or.; J. L. Hall, Marist; Mrs. M. J. Hinshaw, L. Haller, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jack and family and Wylie W. Roelfson and family of Woodburn; C. C. Jack, George Jack and wife, W. W. Hall and wife, Mrs. Ella Schneider, Eva, Alberta and Clara Schneider, Susie Jack, Will Teren and family, Agnes Powell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Linville, Josie and Nina Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. David Hinshaw and Merle, Morris, Albert and Herbert Hinshaw, G. C. Harvey Jack, Ralph A. Jack, C. G. Schneider and family and William Walter Gardiner of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Johnson of West Linn; Mr. and Mrs. Sig Knight of Sandy; Barton Jack, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Timberlake and Mrs. M. J. Hinshaw; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Miller, with dancing and music an enjoyable evening was spent.

Thursday evening was the occasion of a delightful dancing party on the floating pavilion "Swan" when the Employees' Welfare association of the city, Wolfe & Co. gave their annual summer excursion party. About 400 members of the organization and their guests were present for the affair. Arrangements for the party were made under the direction of E. T. King, president of the association; Mrs. C. Hyatt, secretary; Miss E. V. Armitage of the board of directors of the association, and J. F. O'Gara, secretary.

An enjoyable dinner was given in honor of Dr. Albert Bushnell Baker, head of the history department of Harvard university, and John J. Lee, former congressman from Ohio, at the Hotel Portland Tuesday evening. The hosts were the officers of the local Moose lodge. Covers were placed for 30 and the dinner was followed by informal speeches given by the distinguished visitors, who are governors of the National lodge of Moose.

Roseburg, July 17.—The Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained at the Busenbark home at Melrose, Monday evening, with a dinner for 30 women. It was served under the big trees on the lawn. The Busenbark farm is one of the finest in the valley. The evening was most pleasantly spent around a big bonfire, where games were played and songs were sung until a late hour.

The next sewing meeting of George Wright Relief corps No. 2 will be a picnic, Friday, July 23, at Sellwood gardens. A large attendance is requested for the next regular meeting, Wednesday, July 21, at hall 125 courthouse, to plan for this picnic and for celebrating the golden wedding anniversary of Commander and Mrs. Lamar, July 23.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Walsh left Tuesday evening on an extended eastern trip. They expect to spend some time in the Maine woods. Mr. Walsh will combine business with pleasure and visit several paper mills in New England, the products of which his firm markets in this territory. They will return by way of Des Moines, Iowa, and Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Van Sickle and their three daughters, the Misses Helen and Anne and Grace, he returned to Portland from Idaho and are domiciled for the summer months in the A. St. Clair Gay house, in Montgomery drive. Miss Grace Van Sickle is a student at the University of Washington, where she is a member of Delta Gamma.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter J. Larson of 1632 Sandy boulevard announce the birth of a son who arrived Monday. The baby will be called Walter J. Larson and is a prominent surgeon of the city and a former member of the state dental board.

Mrs. Henry Ross entertained at luncheon at her home, 1163 Laurelhurst avenue, recently in honor of her sister, Mrs. A. Bencke, from Newark, N. J., and Mrs. Clive Ross of Boise, Idaho. Additional guests were Mrs. J. T. Kannot and Mrs. D. N. Wendick.

The sons and daughters of Indian war veterans are asked to meet at Central library, Wednesday, at 2:30 o'clock, for the purpose of auditing the bills and closing the year's business.

Mr. and Mrs. Du Mond of New York city are visitors in the city at the home of Mrs. Henry E. Jones in Carter Lane. Xavier Du Mond is spending his vacation at the Boy Scout camp at Wahtum lake.

The members of the Oregon chapter of the Chi Omega sorority gave a delightful luncheon Friday in the main dining room of the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 14 at an attractively decorated table.

Mrs. Paul R. Deady of Palo Alto, Cal., is spending a few weeks with her brother, Rosmond W. Thompson and his family, at 181 East Twelfth street.

Rev. P. Alfred Herman, pastor of St. Anthony's church, Wichita, Kan., is a guest of his brother, J. A. Herman of the clerical staff of the Hotel Portland.

Miss Mary Chaney entertained at a luncheon at her home in Mohawk street last week, honoring the daughters of Veterans of Betsy Ross tent No. 1.

Miss Jenkins Is Made Bride at Quiet Wedding

A MARRIAGE of interest this week was that of Miss Lucille Kathryn Jenkins to Russell Waterman Frost. The wedding was solemnized July 7, at 8:30 o'clock at Grace Memorial Episcopal church, Irvington. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiating. Only members of the immediate families of the bride couple were present. The bride wore her going-away suit, a smart dark blue tulle, with blue hat to match. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and orchids. Miss Beatrice Bodo, a sorority sister, was maid of honor and was attired in a brown frock with small hat to match. She carried roses and sweetpeas. The best man was Harry Jaeger.

Mr. Frost is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Powers Jenkins of Irvington.

Mr. Frost is an electrical engineer and is the son of George E. Frost of this city.

Upon their return from their wedding trip Mr. Frost and his bride will reside in this city.

Mrs. Warren E. Thomas was hostess for a delightful luncheon at the University club, Monday, honoring Miss Aileen Broug, who will leave Portland Thursday for Montreal, to sail for Europe. Covers were placed for seven and dainty conundrum place cards with old-fashioned nosegays marked the places for the guests.

Recent visitors in Seattle were Mrs. Edward A. Thompson, Miss Dorothy Strowbridge and Miss Dorothy Kerns, who were guests at the home of Miss Hazel McMillan.

Mrs. Folger Johnson was hostess for a luncheon Wednesday at her home in Alexandra court honoring her mother, Mrs. Clara Waldo, who is here from Los Angeles for the summer months.

Annual Meeting Of Lewis Clan Event of Monday

THE annual meeting of the Daniel Lewis clan was held at the home of A. H. Bell, 387 San Rafael street, Monday, Mrs. Bell is a daughter of the late Daniel and Rachel Lewis, who settled at East Mount Tabor in 1872. Leander Lewis is chief of the clan.

Mrs. Fred Davis and family motored over from Centralia for the occasion. Sixty members of the family answered to rollcall, and messages of greeting were read from others unable to attend. An excellent program had been arranged and a bountiful banquet was served.

Among the items of interest noted by the family historian, four births were recorded during the year.

The residence of J. W. Mills will be the scene of the next social gathering of the Lewis clan.

The Iowa State society will hold its annual picnic Wednesday afternoon and evening at Laurelhurst park. The society will furnish coffee for 6 o'clock picnic dinner. All former Iowans and their friends are invited to attend.

Mrs. H. M. Singleman of Ross street will leave Saturday for Minneapolis, where she will spend two months visiting at the homes of friends and relatives.

Miss Isabelle Steele was a recent visitor in Astoria at the home of Miss Lela Ashworth, who entertained at several informal functions for the pleasure of her house guest.

Miss Margaret Klein, an elocutionist and character reader of Spokane, Wash., is a guest at the home of Mrs. Charles O. Curtis, Ryan place. Miss Klein is a member of the Spokane Olympic club and is well known in swimming circles.

Summer Fur Storage

A service maintained for the benefit of our clientele, where you may store your furs and other fine garments at very moderate rates. They will be cared for by skilled furriers and will be returned in a better condition than when they were left in our care.

20 Degrees Below Freezing

is the temperature maintained in these vaults, preventing any elementary harm.

Phone Marshall 785 for additional information.

July Is Restyling Month

Have your furs restyled this month while our designers and shop are devoting their efforts to remodeling work.

H. Liebes & Co

ESTABLISHED FURS 1864 149-151 BROADWAY

Our Entire Stock of Summer-Cool Frocks

Will Be Placed on Sale Tomorrow Morning at 9:30 o'clock

At Alluring Clearance Reductions

98 Gingham Frocks Priced $3.75 for a Quick Clearance at

A generous selection of patterns and colors in styles becoming to women and misses. All sizes will be found.

One, two or three of these dresses will be found to be very useful for home, vacation and picnic wear.

Voile and Gingham Frocks

Priced in this Sale at $4.75 $6.75

Cleverly Designed Frocks

Of organdie, dimity, batiste and voile—in this sale at

$16.75

and

$18.75

Summer-Cool Skirts

In This Sale at

$2.95 $3.95 $4.95

Snowy White Cottons

—Some need laundering
—Some need pressing
—Some need nothing

Bedford Cord, Pique, Gabardine, Tricotine, Whipcord Novelties, featuring stylish belts and pockets.

SECOND FLOOR

Summer-Cool Philippin

Hand made and hand embroidered of pure bleach batiste. Just the undergarments for warm summer wear.

This is our big sale of summer wearables.

H. Liebes & Co

ESTABLISHED FURS 1864 149-151 BROADWAY

You know the necessity of early selections.

Summer-Cool Blouses

In This Sale at

Lingerie and Net $5

They all go at the one price, irrespective of the former selling prices

Organdie, Batiste, Voile and Net in white, colors and many fancy color combinations.

MAIN FLOOR

Undergarments $2.95

Gowns and chemise in many dainty designs. These garments have been taken from more expensive groups and placed in this sale for a speedy clearance.

SECOND FLOOR

ONE LOT OF OUR BETTER QUALITY

BLOUSES

The ones that sell regularly for $17.50 to $30.00

are offered for a limited time at

ONE-THIRD OFF

Fine quality Georgette in the most wanted shades is used in the making of these quality blouses.

All sizes in hand embroidered models, lace trimmed styles and beaded effects.

Sale Prices From $11.65 to $20

DRESSES 1/3 OFF

This collection is composed of this season's dresses, each one of them being a value at the regular price, and now an extra value at the reduced price.

Baronette Satin Dresses
Creme de Chine Dresses
Sport Silk Dresses
Tricolette Dresses
Figured Georgette Dresses

NEW MILLINERY

in the desired shapes for mid-summer wear, is here for your selection.

White Sport Hats

Fashioned from white ribbon silk and shown in medium sizes and Tam shapes.

$5.75 and $9.50

Navy Blue Taffeta Hats

are awaiting your choosing at prices from $10.00 to $18.00

Cheerful Credit

Is yours for the asking. Learn about this convenience.

Eastern Outfitting Co

Washington St. at 10th The Gray Tile Corner

Cheerful Credit

Is an added service that we extend to our customers.