Cox and Koehler to Play Some Independent Ball at Salem During the Elks' Convention

Goose Eggs For Ducks in Both Games

SACRAMENTO, July 21.—Sacramento opened the series Tuesday by defeating Portland 2 to 0 and 5 to 0 in a double header. Fittery and Penner received excellent support and had little difficulty in blanking McCredie's men in both games. Compton drove in a homer to the left field fence in the first contest.

Lew Blue was not in the Portland lineup and it was reported that President McCarthy of the Pacific Coast league had suspended the star first baseman for three days besides fining him $50. It is said that Blue got into too hot an argument with one of the umpires during the Salt Lake series last week. The Beavers are crippled anyway and with Blue sitting in the grandstand they are worse off than ever. The score:

Mrs. Hartman, Your Son Is Alive, Well, Wants to Find You

Who knows the whereabouts of Mrs. Charlotte Hartman, formerly of Olympia, Wash., and last heard of in Portland? Her son, who had almost two years overseas service and who was reported to her as having been killed in action, is alive and well and wants to find his mother. He has appealed to Deputy County Clerk Harlow to aid in the search, and information may be given to Harlow at the courthouse. The young man wrote letters from France to his mother but they were returned to him. After she received word at Olympia that her son had been killed she left Olympia and came to Portland, it is said.

Salem Signs Two Beavers For Week-End

DICK COX and Arthur Koehler, members of the Portland Beavers, have been signed to play with the Salem Senators during the third annual convention of the Oregon State Elks' association to be held at Salem Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Billy Stepp, captain of the Senators, completed the deal whereby the leaguers will be seen in action against Wayne F. Lewis' Vancouver, Wash., team each afternoon.

Stepp, Cox and Koehler will go to Salem Wednesday night. Koehler's knee is getting along fine, but he will not do any backstopping during the three-game series. He has been secured to play first base in place of "Cack" Blanchard, who is out through an injury. Cox will be seen in the outergarden and his hitting is expected to bring three victories to the Marion county aggregation.

Manager Lewis of the Vancouver team has secured several of the best semi-pro athletes in the Northwest to represent him at Salem. Ted Murphy and Duhack will alternate as receivers, "Sunny" Moehler, Goddard and Ring will do the pitching. Palmer will play first base, and Boytanna will cavort around second with White at short and Brown on third.

RANKIN TO UMPIRE

In the outfield will be Ray Kennedy, Mike Block and Jack Clines, all well known in these parts.

Ed Rankin, veteran umpire of Portland, has been secured to handle the series and keep the games running smoothly. All the contests will be staged on Oxford field at Salem and record breaking attendance is expected at each affair.

The Senators will journey to McMinnville for a clash Sunday afternoon and at that time Cox and Koehler will be taken along. The two Beavers will return to Portland in time to be ready to meet the rest of the Beaver squad Tuesday.

Heinie Schuman to Box Johnny Schauer

Heinie Schuman is going to be a mighty busy lad for the next few weeks. Jack Kanner has him signed for three bouts this month with a match with Champion Benny Leonard at Joplin, Mo., as a near prospect.

He will box 12 rounds with Johnny Schauer of St. Paul July 22 at Colorado Springs. During Frontier days at Cheyenne, July 26-29, Schuman is to tackle Johnny Stopper or Carl Macke. He is due back in Denver for a main bout with Johnny Shepherds, the English lightweight champ, July 30, at the stockyards stadium.

Jack Spends Night in Jail; Off for East

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(U. P.)—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight boxing champion, was scheduled to start on the second lap of his chaperoned trip to the United States prison at Fort Leavenworth today after a night spent in the Los Angeles county jail.

The negro pugilist, who surrendered to Sheriff Cline of Los Angeles county at Tia Juna yesterday, was brought here by automobile and placed in the jail despite his almost pathetic pleas to be taken to a hotel instead of "being lodged with common crooks."

Johnson's return to the United States yesterday marks the end of a seven years' exile, following his escape to Canada after being convicted of violating the Man white slave act and being sentenced to one year in the federal prison.

STILL SMILING

The famous Johnson smile again greeted well-wishers today, despite the night in jail which Jack admitted "kinda cramped my style."

Confident that "things will be fixed" when he is taken to Chicago, Johnson said:

"I am going to put up the bond money and fight the case in the higher courts."

"Gee, but it is good to be back here," Jack exclaimed again and again while he was being "booked" yesterday.

Johnson's present wealth was listed on the local police blotter as $462 and a pair of bright red "bones." The dice he begged officials to leave in his possession "jes for luck."

Babe Admits He's No Sylph AROUND THE WAIST But He's Trying to Reduce

NEW YORK, July 21.—Naturally there are a lot of folks who wonder if hitting home runs requires any better condition than hitting only singles or doubles, and, of course, there is a most interesting answer to the question.

I am not sure that every ball player takes any particular pains to keep himself in the very best of condition. Playing a game of baseball every day is certain to keep a man in condition for throwing, hitting and running. But in my own case it is necessary for me to keep working all the time.

Every baseball fan knows that I don't run to any sylph-like grace around the waist. As a matter of fact, that waistline gives me considerable trouble. It now is larger than it should be, and I work hard constantly to keep it down.

HAS GOLF BUG

I play golf about twice a week. I consider the exercise ideal for taking off surplus weight and that is the one thing I fight constantly. The walk up and down hill keeps the weight down, and swinging the club helps train the eye for hitting. I have heard a lot of ball players and critics of baseball say that golf was detrimental to the batting eye and bad for the swing that must be used for baseball. I believe just the contrary. I know of many hitters in the major leagues who would be much better if they were to take lessons from a golf professional in the art of timing a swing and following through. Many hitters are prone to cock up one elbow as the swing starts, thus destroying much of the power that must go into a wallop to make it carry.

I eat practically what I want, but I keep away from pastries because they make fat. I eat lots of potatoes, even though they are starchy and flesh-building. I believe they are very nourishing and, therefore, I eat them. I used to drink beer some, but it is useless to discuss that now.

CAN SMOKE, TOO

I smoke whenever I feel like it. I generally smoke a pipe, but I occasionally take a good cigar. I don't believe it has the slightest effect on me. Much that has been written on the harmful effects of tobacco is poppycock. I know many fine athletes who smoke.

One of the things I insist on is plenty of sleep in a comfortable room. There is nothing like it. No man can hope to be a good athlete if he declines to take eight hours of sleep daily.

Important Games Will Begin Today

New York, July 21.—(I. N. S.)—The biggest series to date of the season in the American league opened today between the Yanks and Cleveland Indians.

With only two games separating the Gotham entry from the pace-making forest cityans and four games scheduled between the teams it was expected that week day attendance figures as well as the figures for a series and a Sunday game at the Polo Grounds would be shattered. The Yanks have twice broken the record at the Brush stadium this season. Their biggest crowd was 38,823.

Yankee-White Sox Series Draws New Attendance Mark

New York, July 21.—(U. P.)—Attendance records were made during the Yankee-White Sox series that ended here yesterday. In four days the turnstiles registered 129,000 customers, an average of more than 32,000 a day. Saturday 34,000 were in the big yard; Sunday 25,000, Monday 28,000 and 22,000 yesterday. It makes a record for the pennant season and comes close to the best four day mark for a world's series.

George Sisler's timely home run in the eighth inning gave the Browns a victory over the A's.
