

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

will contain the announcements of a number of Oregon schools and colleges. They will help you choose a school for the boy or girl.

Stage, Screen; Woman's Realm

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

will include the usual magazine section, looked upon as the very best thing of its kind carried by any newspaper in the Northwest territory. Every Sunday, in connection with the regular newspaper.

Miss Mansfield and H. W. Sims To Be Wed

By Helen H. Hutchison

ANNOUNCEMENT was made of the engagement of Miss Margaret M. Mansfield to Henry William Sims of Eugene Tuesday at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Mansfield, mother of the bride-elect, in honor of Miss Myrtle Rose and Miss Rose Rose of Bendleton, who are in Portland for the summer.

Little Miss Harriet Nolter and Miss Kathryn Mansfield received the guests at the door. Mrs. Arthur M. Robinson was in charge of the coffee urn and Mrs. Frederick Ames Lothrop (Elizabeth Malbrou) cut the loaves.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Otis Jocelyn Pritch (Gretchen Talmadge), Mrs. Maurice H. Barnes, Mrs. Alfred Lee Houser, Mrs. Gilbert Newell and Miss Dorothy Graham.

Miss Mansfield is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Mansfield. She was graduated in June from the University of Oregon. She is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority and also Phi Epsilon honorary musical sorority.

Mr. Sims is the son of Alexander W. Sims of Eugene. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and was graduated from the University of Oregon in the class of 1917.

The wedding will be an event of the early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McCullough returned to the city this week. Mr. McCullough from an Eastern trip and Mrs. McCullough from a 10 days' visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. A. Tichner was hostess at her home on Arlington heights Wednesday for a beautifully appointed bridge luncheon complimentary to a group of friends.

Miss Tara Mortensen of this city arrived in Salem Saturday for a visit of several days at the home of Miss Doris Churchill.

White Heather lodge No. 93, Daughters of Scotia, will give a basket picnic at Canemah park Sunday. Sports and dancing will constitute the chief entertainments. Special cars leave East Water and Morrison streets at 10 a. m. The picnic will be open to the public.

Corinthian Social club, O. E. S., will give a midsummer card party on the fifth floor of the Pythian temple, Saturday evening. Members and friends are invited to attend.

WHO? WHAT? WHERE?

VAUDEVILLE—PANTAGES—Broadway at Alder. High class vaudeville and photoplay features. Afternoon and evening. Program changes Monday afternoon.

LOEW'S HIPPODROME—Broadway at Yamhill. Direction by Harry Harris. Vaudeville. Afternoon and night.

MUSICAL FARCE—LYRIC—Fourth at Stark. Musical farce. "The Photo Girl." Matinee daily at 2. Night 7 and 9.

PHOTOPLAYS—COLUMBIA—Sixth at Stark. Wm. S. Hart in "Sand." Larry Semon in "Solid Concrete."

LIBERTY—Broadway at Stark. Katherine MacDonald in "Passion's Playground." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

MAJESTIC—Washington at Park. "The Deep Purple." Headline in "High and Dizzy." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

PEOPLES—West Park at Alder. Elaine Hammett in "The Shadow of Rosalie Byrnes." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

STAR—Washington at Park. Tom Mix in "Desert Love." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

CIRCLE—Washington at Fourth. Bryant Washburn in "The Temple." Telegram. 9 a. m. to 4 o'clock the next morning.

PARK AND RESORTS—OAKS AMUSEMENT PARK—Campbell's American band in concert every evening and Sunday afternoon. Concessions, dancing, bathing, boating.

COUNCIL CREST—"Top of the Town." Dancing, amusements, picnic.

WINDMILL—Rose Island. Dancing and swimming.

COLUMBIA BEACH—Dancing, swimming, concessions.

Famous Players Official Visits

Herman Wobber of San Francisco, district manager for the Famous Players-Lasky corporation, is in Portland conferring with Manager C. H. Hill of the local F. P. office, and other motion picture interests. Mr. Wobber, with J. G. Von Horstberg of Seattle, were the guests Thursday of C. S. Jensen on a trip up the Columbia river highway.

Picnic at Oaks

In honor of the wedding anniversary of D. R. Ladd, treasurer of the United Amusement company, employees and concessionaires of Oaks park held a picnic at the Oaks Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ladd were presented a silver bon bon dish and spoon by the employees of the company.

New Play for Nora

Al Weeks, who conducts the dramatic column for the Detroit News, has written a new play for Nora Bayson. Seymour Simmons has written the music for the piece, called "Her Family Tree."

Your thirsty throat Says Lipton's

Give it a real treat with delicious iced tea and make it the best way possible. That means with Lipton's

LIPTON'S ICED TEA

MRS. ELMER BENTON WILLIAMSON, who was Miss Hildegarde Spillman before her recent marriage in Portland.

By Helen H. Hutchison

W. W. ELY, manager of the Hippodrome theatre, returned from a business trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles Thursday. While in San Francisco he met with all the prominent vaudeville producers and managers on the coast and organized the Western Vaudeville association.

"The new organization," says Ely, "is planning according to the purposes in organizing it but I am not at liberty to say either what its purposes or plans are, not because there is any particular secrecy, but because there was a committee appointed to handle the publicity end and the rest of us agreed not to butt in."

Ely says that the amusement business in California is booming and that this is a good indication of general business conditions.

"In the 25 years I have been in the show business I have never known of an almost infallible barometer because when times begin to get good people begin to want to relax and enjoy themselves and they patronize the amusements more liberally. When times begin to get bad just the reverse is true and the show house feels the screws first."

That the light of the moon, half full, adds to the charm of a midsummer evening.

That it's the moonshine that furnishes the intoxication of love.

That it affects the heart rather than the head.

That the first green corn of the season is on the market.

That we'll take ours a little later on.

That the smallest cars are sometimes decorated with the largest monograms.

That the library is being newly whitewashed.

That it smells fresh and clean.

That the gas filling stations are rushed with business in the early morning.

That it seems to be a case of first come, first served.

That "no gas" is the rule in the afternoon.

That the Chicago man who admitted that he murdered his wife changed his mind after consulting his lawyer.

That you never miss the time until you forget to wind your watch.

Here's Hope for the Bald

Dear S.—I am writing you this letter to tell you that I have a very interesting topic of unique sign a drive in the country on a bright summer's day revealed this one:

"TUNG HAIRS FOR SALE"

Switching from one interesting topic to another, I have noticed that your column is quoted by everyone from schoolmates to business people and they are talking yet of how they missed you when you were away for two whole weeks.

Your interested reader, W. M. E. (Formerly "Skinny")

P. S.—Didn't you ask call your column "The Window" or was it someone else?

Yes, that was our column all right, W. B. but it was a long time ago we did that and we didn't imagine that anyone would remember it now.

More tomorrow.

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

After a French Model

This dainty frock in figure, stripe, dimity is made after a French model. The straight gathered skirt is trimmed with two large pockets and attached to the blouse under a girde of self-material. White organdy edged with lace is used for the vest and collar, and tiny lace ruffles trim the sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch dimity and 1/2 yard organdy.

Blouse No. 8902. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 23 cents. Skirt No. 8943. Sizes 24 to 36 inches waist. Price 27 cents.

Rock Revue Opens

William Rock is presenting a new revue called "Slits and Satins" in New York. Critics treat it kindly.

Just say

if you want the genuine

in bottles for the home

at soda fountains and on draught

THE NEXT STORY: "Peter Cannot Believe What He Sees"

Little Mrs. Peter led the way behind a thick old bramble bush.

less it was her gladness over his safe return. He wanted to think that was the cause of it but somehow he couldn't quite believe it when he saw her.

Little Mrs. Peter was even more mysterious than before. She talked in a whisper. "Follow me, Peter," she whispered. "Whatever you do don't make a bit of noise. I've got the most wonderful surprise for you that ever was. You'll say so when you see it. Now step softly and don't speak."

Little Mrs. Peter led the way behind a thick old bramble bush. Peter had to almost crawl to get under the clutching old brambles. It was in a part of the dear old Briar-patch he hadn't visited for a long time. Neither he nor Mrs. Peter had used it, and so they hadn't kept their private little paths open.

A little way back of the old bramble-bush little Mrs. Peter stepped one side and motioned for Peter to join her. "There!" she whispered in one of his long ears. "There, Peter Rabbit! Were you ever so surprised in all your life? And isn't it the very nicest surprise that ever was?"

Peter looked where she was pointing. Then he gave a funny little gasp and sat down weakly. He was surprised. There wasn't the least bit of doubt about that. In fact, there never was a more surprised rabbit in all the great world. (Copyright 1920, by Chicago Daily News Co.)

The next story: "Peter Cannot Believe What He Sees"

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

After a French Model

This dainty frock in figure, stripe, dimity is made after a French model. The straight gathered skirt is trimmed with two large pockets and attached to the blouse under a girde of self-material. White organdy edged with lace is used for the vest and collar, and tiny lace ruffles trim the sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch dimity and 1/2 yard organdy.

Blouse No. 8902. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 23 cents. Skirt No. 8943. Sizes 24 to 36 inches waist. Price 27 cents.

Rock Revue Opens

William Rock is presenting a new revue called "Slits and Satins" in New York. Critics treat it kindly.

Just say

if you want the genuine

in bottles for the home

at soda fountains and on draught

New Association of Vaudeville Managers

By Helen H. Hutchison

W. W. ELY, manager of the Hippodrome theatre, returned from a business trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles Thursday. While in San Francisco he met with all the prominent vaudeville producers and managers on the coast and organized the Western Vaudeville association.

"The new organization," says Ely, "is planning according to the purposes in organizing it but I am not at liberty to say either what its purposes or plans are, not because there is any particular secrecy, but because there was a committee appointed to handle the publicity end and the rest of us agreed not to butt in."

Ely says that the amusement business in California is booming and that this is a good indication of general business conditions.

"In the 25 years I have been in the show business I have never known of an almost infallible barometer because when times begin to get good people begin to want to relax and enjoy themselves and they patronize the amusements more liberally. When times begin to get bad just the reverse is true and the show house feels the screws first."

That the light of the moon, half full, adds to the charm of a midsummer evening.

That it's the moonshine that furnishes the intoxication of love.

That it affects the heart rather than the head.

That the first green corn of the season is on the market.

That we'll take ours a little later on.

That the smallest cars are sometimes decorated with the largest monograms.

That the library is being newly whitewashed.

That it smells fresh and clean.

That the gas filling stations are rushed with business in the early morning.

That it seems to be a case of first come, first served.

That "no gas" is the rule in the afternoon.

That the Chicago man who admitted that he murdered his wife changed his mind after consulting his lawyer.

That you never miss the time until you forget to wind your watch.

Here's Hope for the Bald

Dear S.—I am writing you this letter to tell you that I have a very interesting topic of unique sign a drive in the country on a bright summer's day revealed this one:

"TUNG HAIRS FOR SALE"

Switching from one interesting topic to another, I have noticed that your column is quoted by everyone from schoolmates to business people and they are talking yet of how they missed you when you were away for two whole weeks.

Your interested reader, W. M. E. (Formerly "Skinny")

P. S.—Didn't you ask call your column "The Window" or was it someone else?

Yes, that was our column all right, W. B. but it was a long time ago we did that and we didn't imagine that anyone would remember it now.

More tomorrow.

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

After a French Model

This dainty frock in figure, stripe, dimity is made after a French model. The straight gathered skirt is trimmed with two large pockets and attached to the blouse under a girde of self-material. White organdy edged with lace is used for the vest and collar, and tiny lace ruffles trim the sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch dimity and 1/2 yard organdy.

Blouse No. 8902. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 23 cents. Skirt No. 8943. Sizes 24 to 36 inches waist. Price 27 cents.

Rock Revue Opens

William Rock is presenting a new revue called "Slits and Satins" in New York. Critics treat it kindly.

Just say

if you want the genuine

in bottles for the home

at soda fountains and on draught

THE NEXT STORY: "Peter Cannot Believe What He Sees"

Little Mrs. Peter led the way behind a thick old bramble bush.

less it was her gladness over his safe return. He wanted to think that was the cause of it but somehow he couldn't quite believe it when he saw her.

Little Mrs. Peter was even more mysterious than before. She talked in a whisper. "Follow me, Peter," she whispered. "Whatever you do don't make a bit of noise. I've got the most wonderful surprise for you that ever was. You'll say so when you see it. Now step softly and don't speak."

Little Mrs. Peter led the way behind a thick old bramble bush. Peter had to almost crawl to get under the clutching old brambles. It was in a part of the dear old Briar-patch he hadn't visited for a long time. Neither he nor Mrs. Peter had used it, and so they hadn't kept their private little paths open.

A little way back of the old bramble-bush little Mrs. Peter stepped one side and motioned for Peter to join her. "There!" she whispered in one of his long ears. "There, Peter Rabbit! Were you ever so surprised in all your life? And isn't it the very nicest surprise that ever was?"

Peter looked where she was pointing. Then he gave a funny little gasp and sat down weakly. He was surprised. There wasn't the least bit of doubt about that. In fact, there never was a more surprised rabbit in all the great world. (Copyright 1920, by Chicago Daily News Co.)

The next story: "Peter Cannot Believe What He Sees"

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

After a French Model

This dainty frock in figure, stripe, dimity is made after a French model. The straight gathered skirt is trimmed with two large pockets and attached to the blouse under a girde of self-material. White organdy edged with lace is used for the vest and collar, and tiny lace ruffles trim the sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch dimity and 1/2 yard organdy.

Blouse No. 8902. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 23 cents. Skirt No. 8943. Sizes 24 to 36 inches waist. Price 27 cents.

Rock Revue Opens

William Rock is presenting a new revue called "Slits and Satins" in New York. Critics treat it kindly.

Just say

if you want the genuine

in bottles for the home

at soda fountains and on draught

Stroller notices

By Helen H. Hutchison

W. W. ELY, manager of the Hippodrome theatre, returned from a business trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles Thursday. While in San Francisco he met with all the prominent vaudeville producers and managers on the coast and organized the Western Vaudeville association.

"The new organization," says Ely, "is planning according to the purposes in organizing it but I am not at liberty to say either what its purposes or plans are, not because there is any particular secrecy, but because there was a committee appointed to handle the publicity end and the rest of us agreed not to butt in."

Ely says that the amusement business in California is booming and that this is a good indication of general business conditions.

"In the 25 years I have been in the show business I have never known of an almost infallible barometer because when times begin to get good people begin to want to relax and enjoy themselves and they patronize the amusements more liberally. When times begin to get bad just the reverse is true and the show house feels the screws first."

That the light of the moon, half full, adds to the charm of a midsummer evening.

That it's the moonshine that furnishes the intoxication of love.

That it affects the heart rather than the head.

That the first green corn of the season is on the market.

That we'll take ours a little later on.

That the smallest cars are sometimes decorated with the largest monograms.

That the library is being newly whitewashed.

That it smells fresh and clean.

That the gas filling stations are rushed with business in the early morning.

That it seems to be a case of first come, first served.

That "no gas" is the rule in the afternoon.

That the Chicago man who admitted that he murdered his wife changed his mind after consulting his lawyer.

That you never miss the time until you forget to wind your watch.

Here's Hope for the Bald

Dear S.—I am writing you this letter to tell you that I have a very interesting topic of unique sign a drive in the country on a bright summer's day revealed this one:

"TUNG HAIRS FOR SALE"

Switching from one interesting topic to another, I have noticed that your column is quoted by everyone from schoolmates to business people and they are talking yet of how they missed you when you were away for two whole weeks.

Your interested reader, W. M. E. (Formerly "Skinny")

P. S.—Didn't you ask call your column "The Window" or was it someone else?

Yes, that was our column all right, W. B. but it was a long time ago we did that and we didn't imagine that anyone would remember it now.

More tomorrow.

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

After a French Model

This dainty frock in figure, stripe, dimity is made after a French model. The straight gathered skirt is trimmed with two large pockets and attached to the blouse under a girde of self-material. White organdy edged with lace is used for the vest and collar, and tiny lace ruffles trim the sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch dimity and 1/2 yard organdy.

Blouse No. 8902. Sizes 34 to 48 inches bust. Price 23 cents. Skirt No. 8943. Sizes 24 to 36 inches waist. Price 27 cents.

Rock Revue Opens

William Rock is presenting a new revue called "Slits and Satins" in New York. Critics treat it kindly.

Just say

if you want the genuine

in bottles for the home

at soda fountains and on draught

THE NEXT STORY: "Peter Cannot Believe What He Sees"

Little Mrs. Peter led the way behind a thick old bramble bush.

less it was her gladness over his safe return. He wanted to think that was the cause of it but somehow he couldn't quite believe it when he saw her.

Little Mrs. Peter was even more mysterious than before. She talked in a whisper. "Follow me, Peter," she whispered. "Whatever you do don't make a bit of noise. I've got the most wonderful surprise for you that ever was. You'll say so when you see it. Now step softly and don't speak."

Little Mrs. Peter led the way behind a thick old bramble bush. Peter had to almost crawl to get under the clutching old brambles. It was in a part of the dear old Briar-patch he hadn't visited for a long time. Neither he nor Mrs. Peter had used it, and so they hadn't kept their private little paths open.

A little way back of the old bramble-bush little Mrs. Peter stepped one side and motioned for Peter to join her. "There!" she whispered in one of his long ears. "There, Peter Rabbit! Were you ever so surprised in all your life? And isn't it the very nicest surprise that ever was?"

Peter looked where she was pointing. Then he gave a funny little gasp and sat down weakly. He was surprised. There wasn't the least bit of doubt about that. In fact, there never was a more surprised rabbit in all the great world. (Copyright 1920, by Chicago Daily News Co.)

The next story: "Peter Cannot Believe What He Sees"

THE DAILY FASHION HINT

After a French Model

This dainty frock in figure, stripe, dimity is made after a French model. The straight gathered skirt is trimmed with two large pockets and attached to the blouse under a girde of self-material. White organdy edged with lace is used for the vest and collar, and tiny lace ruffles trim the sleeves. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36 inch dimity and 1/2 yard organdy.