

Pioneers' Sons And Daughters To Hold Picnic

THE Society of Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers will hold their first annual picnic at Gladstone park Saturday.

At 12 a. m. Harvey G. Starkweather, president, will speak on the "Aims and Purposes of the Organization." At noon the society will give a picnic dinner, at which time short talks by men and women of pioneer parentage and those interested in the historical affairs of the state will take place. Pioneers will be admitted free and are requested by the society to wear their badges. One of the features of pioneer day will be a barbeque lunch at the noon hour.

Of interest to Portland friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Dunwoody of this city to Philip Clyde Kirby of New York, which was an event of Wednesday in New York. The service was read by Canon Nash in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The bride is a daughter of one of Portland's oldest families and during the war period has had an interesting career as the founder and head of the Hall of States in New York. She was a former student of the University of Oregon. Mr. Kirby is the son of Mrs. Kate Kirby of New York, and was graduated from the University of Columbia and was a student at the Sorbonne and in Heidelberg. He is a former member of the staff of the New York Tribune. During the war period he was a lieutenant in the 78th division and was an intelligence officer with the Second army corps. Later he was an attaché of the American embassy at Paris and following a brief honeymoon in the Canadian Rockies Mr. and Mrs. Kirby will make their home in Los Angeles for the winter months.

The daughters of Isabella beach house at Seaside, Or., has been the scene of many delightful week-ends and vacation periods enjoyed by the daughters and their friends. The average number of guests includes about 30 girls, while 50 were accommodated over the Fourth of July. The present guest list includes Kathryn Kearns, Martha Van Horn, Mrs. John Coffey, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Wm. Smith, Clara Lorer, Elsie Lorer, Dorothy Lorer, Agnes Campbell, Julia A. Clark, Mrs. Margaret Tierney, Sarah Dooney, Aurelia Franz, Erma

MISS ELIZABETH KIRBY, who will participate in "Forest Children," the fiery operetta to be given Tuesday at the H. C. Wortman gardens. Miss Isabel Nichols, visitor from Denver, Colo.

Miss Nichols Is Inspiration for Informal Affairs

MISS ISABEL NICHOLS of Denver, Colo., who is the house guest of Miss Lois Nitchy for a short time, and who has been visiting her aunt, the Misses Sophie and Mabel Lawrence, has been the inspiration for many informal social functions during her stay in Portland, where she formerly made her home. During the past week Miss Nichols was guest of honor at a delightful tea for which Miss Nitchy and her mother, Mrs. Frederick A. Nitchy, entertained. Wednesday, about 30 of the sub-debutante set called during the afternoon to greet the visitor and at the tea hour Miss Muriel Duncan of Honolulu, who is the house guest of the Misses Janet and Harriett Griffiths, cut the loaves. Miss Ruth, Bruere served at the coffee urn and Miss Janet Griffiths and Miss Henrietta Cudlipp of New Orleans, who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. I. Northup, assisted in serving the guests.

Miss Alene Albright was quietly married Thursday to Lieutenant Colton Magill at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Fuller, on Mount Tabor. The service was read by the Rev. John H. Boyd. The bride is a daughter of the late Charles Albright and Mrs. Albright.

Mrs. Cameron Squires, who is a visitor in Seattle at the home of Miss Catherine Collins, was the guest of honor at a dinner of 12 covers for which Bertram Collins was host at the University club Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot were hosts for a dinner dance at their home in King street, Wednesday evening, honoring a group of out-of-town visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark III, motored to the beach Thursday to be the guests of Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis at Ecola, Cannon beach.

Miss Helen Strong of Plainsfield, N. J., is a visitor in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick N. Strong.

Mrs. Edward A. O'Neill and son are spending a few weeks at Seaside at the Smith cottage.

Sorority Is Host To Its Members At Lake Grove

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA entertained its resident and sojourning members and a few guests Wednesday evening at a delightful picnic supper and swim at Lake Grove, near Oswego. The affair was arranged primarily for the entertainment of the Misses Margaret Alexander, Estelle Modlin, Virginia Pearson and Clara Thornberry, who will be students at the University of Oregon next year. A birthday cake with candles was a feature of the supper in honor of the birthday anniversary of Miss Margaret Alexander.

Additional members present for the affair were the Misses Helen Nicolai, Mauna Loa Fallis, Emma Garbade, Helena Cox, Mary Irving, Louise Irving, Young, Doris Pittenger, Mary Evans, Alice Evans, Florence Tenneson, Doris Slocum, Gene Geisler, Dorothy Jameson and Evelyn Fitzgibbon.

Philomath, Or., July 24.—Mrs. W. H. Morgan, for 44 years a resident of Oregon, celebrated her seventieth birthday at her home July 19. Five of the seven living children were able to be present. They were Mrs. Ida McGee, Lakeside, Or.; Mrs. Agnes Condon, Eugene, Or.; Mrs. Lucal Plimm, Estacada, and Mrs. Gertrude Danielson, Philomath. Professor Morgan of Berkeley, Cal., at present consulting chemist for the Sperry flouring mills, was the only one of the three sons who could be present. The others, Norris Morgan of Lewiston, Idaho, and William Morgan of Marshfield, were prevented from attending work at this season. Mrs. Morgan and her husband, who is still living, crossed the continent in 1876 from Smith county, Kansas, and settled in Coos county, where there was not a road in the county and only a few people. They lived there until 1918 when they removed to Philomath, where nearly all their children received their education at Philomath college. Mrs. Morgan is well preserved, and while her weight is falling she is always cheerful and hopeful.

An interesting visitor in Portland is Mrs. M. C. Press of Walla Walla, who is the house guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bliss Preston, in Irvington. Mrs. Preston has been a frequent visitor in the city and has many friends here, who are glad to welcome her. During her stay in Portland several informal affairs will be given for her pleasure. She will remain in the city a month.

A pleasant informal party was given last Tuesday evening at the home of N. F. Noren, 879 Brooklyn street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kirkpatrick Jr., who recently came to Portland on their wedding trip. Progressive games and dancing were features of the evening. Kirkpatrick was a charter member of this club. Mrs. Kirkpatrick's home was formerly in Decatur, Ill.

The sixty-third anniversary of Mrs. M. E. Dowd of Albany was the occasion for a surprise party given by her friends at her home at Sunrise, July 13. Mrs. Jerry Isom, Mrs. Andrew Steel and Mrs. Joseph Warner assisted in serving the guests at the refreshment hour.

Mrs. F. P. Harter has as her house guest Mrs. H. J. Barnard of San Antonio, Texas, who will spend a few weeks in the city Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harter was a special guest at the meeting of the Rotary club.

Mrs. Charles Green of Berkeley, Cal., is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Du Puy of Beaumont. Several delightful affairs are being planned for Mrs. Green.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, who are traveling in France, have just returned from a trip over the battlefields and will spend a few weeks in Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kayser and daughter, Miss Ellen Caroline Kayser, left for a visit at Beach Center. Upon their return they expect to motor to Seattle and through Yellowstone park.

Mrs. Henry Kershaw of Walla Walla is a visitor in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sullivan, in Irvington.

Mrs. C. B. Simmons is expected to arrive in the city Sunday evening after a sojourn of several weeks in San Francisco.

Mrs. John F. Logan and daughter, Dorothy, have returned to Portland after a sojourn of several weeks in California.

Mrs. N. U. Carpenter will entertain at luncheon Tuesday at her home in Irvington.

Mrs. Carl C. Evans has been a recent visitor in La Grande at the home of Mrs. H. A. Zurbrich.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Winters were hosts for an informal reception at their home in Irvington recently, honoring C. A. Culbertson and daughter, Margaret of Indianapolis, Ind. Among the guests for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peterson, Mrs. M. C. Johnson, Mrs. E. Y. Langston, Miss Jane Kopkins, Miss Minnie Winters, Miss Dorothy Winters, John Peterson and Ross Peterson.

Portland friends will be interested to know of the engagement of Miss Florence Bucklin Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Winfield Scott of East Orange, N. J., to George Keith Weeks of New York and London. Miss Scott is widely known in musical circles and was soloist in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in New York for some time. During the war period she was at Camp Upton singing in the Y. M. C. A. band. Mr. Weeks is vice-president of European organization of the National City company and makes his home in San Francisco, coming from there to Portland occasionally on business.

University of Oregon, Eugene, July 24. Charles W. Koyl, who graduated from the university in 1911, and who was former secretary of the campus Y. M. C. A., was married in Portland recently to Miss Minnie Bernice Jackson, and is now at home in Payette, Idaho, where he is secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Koyl is the donor of the Koyl cup, awarded annually to the junior man who has had the highest record in scholarship and college activities at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Rose Courson Reed and daughter, Mrs. Vida Reed Clark, have returned from a motor trip through Mount Rainier National park.

Pastor and Wife To Go By Auto to Attend Wedding

DR. AND MRS. J. J. STAUB expect to leave Portland Monday by motor for Vancouver, B. C., to attend the marriage of Miss Pearl J. Rosebrugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosebrugh of that city, to their son, Dr. Raymond R. Staub, who is a physician of this city, associated with Dr. J. A. Pettit. The wedding will be an event of Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 2438 Second avenue west. Following a brief wedding trip through British Columbia the party will motor back to Portland, stopping at Rainier National park.

Miss Grace Beechler entertained informally Saturday afternoon at her home on Portland Heights, complimenting her sister, Mrs. E. R. Pershing, of Washington, D. C., who is spending the summer months here.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Kerr entertained Tuesday evening at a dinner of 29 covers honoring Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark III of Philadelphia.

Laurelhurst club will be the scene of the fortnightly dance for club members on Thursday evening. The social activities of the club are continuing throughout the summer in spite of the fact that many of the members have left the city for summer homes at the beach and in the mountains. Tuesday evening the women's progressive unit will meet at the clubhouse at 2 o'clock and the men's club will hold its session at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. A. J. Hanna, pastor of the Marshall street Baptist church, and Mrs. Hanna have as their house guests the Rev. J. C. Hanna, a brother of Mr. Hanna, and Mrs. Hanna of Downe, Kan., who are visiting in the city on their way to Aberdeen, Wash., where the former will take up his new work. Another brother, H. C. Hanna of Payette City, Okla., and a sister, Mrs. W. H. McFarland, and her daughter Jeanette of Cambridge, Ohio, are also visitors at the Hanna home. They are on their way to California for a short visit.

The Rev. D. A. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson and children will leave the city Wednesday for a vacation period at Neah-kah-nie. The Rev. Mr. Thompson is pastor of the Mizpah Presbyterian church.

Mrs. James M. Ambrose was hostess for a bridge tea at her home in Irvington Tuesday evening honoring Mrs. Lester Patten, who is her house guest from Pasadena, Cal., for a short time.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Pence and daughters will leave the city this week for Neah-kah-nie where they will remain until September 1.

Mrs. John Latta was hostess for a bridge tea Wednesday at her home at Waverly heights.

Engagement of Miss Mansfield Is Made Known

AN ANNOUNCEMENT of wide interest to Portland friends was that of the engagement of Miss Margaret M. Mansfield to Henry William Sims of Eugene, which was made known Tuesday at a tea given at the home of the bride elect's mother, Mrs. Walter A. Mansfield in Irvington. The affair was planned for the pleasure of Miss Myrtle Ross and Mrs. Rose Ross of Pendleton, who are visitors in the city for the summer.

A picnic dinner will be served Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Nellie Pollock, 2187 East Stark street, under the auspices of Winlaw Meade circle No. 7. Ladies of the U. A. R., Take Mount Tabor car to Eighty-eighth street, walk four blocks east and two north. Winlaw Meade circle will have no meeting Monday evening.

Mrs. Alfred F. Smith entertained Wednesday with a luncheon honoring Mrs. Lester Patten, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Ambrose for a short time.

Mrs. Folger Johnson and son, Folger Jr., left last week for Seaside to be guests at the summer home of Mrs. Kenneth Robertson for a few weeks.

A Week of Unusual Values

H. Liebes & Co
ESTABLISHED FURS 1864 149-151 BROADWAY

Breaking All Low Price Records

Final Disposal

Of Odds and Ends From Our Semi-Annual Clearance of Summer Wearables

Jersey Coats
Quantity Limited
$7.50
$14.50
—Second Floor.

If price is any object to Portland women they will surely grasp this most unusual saving opportunity. Such extensive reductions are uncommon, even at H. Liebes & Co.'s.

Silk Petticoats
$4.85
All jersey, jersey top with taffeta flounce and satin in many styles and colors.
—Main Floor.

Dresses
Silk, Satin, Beaded
Georgette and Wool
$21.75
$28.75
$38.75
and Our Finer Models at $48.75 and $58.75
—Third Floor.

Sport Coats
Grouped in Three Attractive Groups for Final Disposal
$12.50
$24.50
$42.50
A good variety of styles, colors and fabrics.
—Second Floor.

Disposal of Suits at $19.75, $33.75, $43.75
Navy Blue and Colors. Styles for Women and Misses
—Second Floor.

Disposal of Sport Skirts at $6.50, $9.50, $14.75 and $18.75 Silk and Wool
—Second Floor.

Lingerie Blouses in Three Groups

$1.95	$3.95	$5.00
---------------	---------------	---------------

Tailored, frilled or ruffled, white and colors, sizes broken 34 to 46.

Voile, batiste, dimity and organdie in white, flesh and colors, prettily trimmed.

The season's smartest cotton blouses, beautiful combinations of materials and colors. Strictly high grade.

Broken sizes, some slightly soiled, some new and fresh.
—Main Floor.

Batiste Gowns $1.45 Hand Embroidered Scalloped Edges. Second Floor

Franz, Frances Smith, Sister Mary Ambrose, Elizabeth O'Keefe, Margaret Pierce, Mrs. C. D. Empfield, Gussie Pemberton, Vivian Dart, Rawley Dart, Mrs. R. S. Thompson, Knowles Thompson, Selgie Thompson, Gertrude Keppers, Mae Mayoski, Mrs. John Smith, Patricia Mac Auley, Elita Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mac Auley, Sadie Riden, Lillian Maykoski.

The American Legion auxiliary will give a benefit dancing party Tuesday evening on the floating pavilion Swan for the benefit of the work among the boys under treatment in local hospitals. Every Wednesday the women of the hospital committee make their rounds at local hospitals carrying to the ex-service men patients a few delicacies. Proceeds received from the dance will be turned over to this worthy fund. The mothers of the ex-service men and members of the auxiliary will be chaperones for the dance.

Miss Virginia Mears was hostess for a tea honoring Miss Elizabeth Shepard of Orange, N. J., Tuesday. Miss Shepard is the guest of Miss Catherine Almsworth. At the tea hour Miss Janet Sewall and Miss Jean Skene presided at the table. Guests included about 40 of the younger girls.

Miss Helen Platt and Harrison Gray Platt Jr. returned recently from a two years' stay in Honolulu. Harrison Platt was graduated in June from Puniloa and will enter Stanford university in the fall.

Mrs. Leora Conn Stewart of Seattle is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paxton at their home in Haight street. Mrs. Stewart is a member of the staff of the Post-Intelligencer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Krause and family have returned from a motor trip to Mount Rainier national park.

Mrs. Carrie Louise Dunning, who has been spending several months at the Waverly Country club, left Saturday night for the East to remain until November when she will return to Los Angeles, Cal., for the winter.

Jaeger Bros.
Have Made History
With Their $100
Diamond Ring
Immediate success attended our origination of the $100 Diamond Ring some years ago. These Jaeger rings will now be met all over these United States.

While competitors were waiting to see if our daring idea would be a success, the popularity of the $100 Diamond became firmly linked with the name of Jaeger, until now we are buying in unusual quantities to meet the popular demand. And so, automatically maintaining our value-leadership.

A Number of Settings
Popular and advance settings are shown. We are sole agents in Portland for the original, authentic Platinum Star setting which is a very popular and beautiful engagement ring at a moderate price.

JAEGER BROS.
The HALLMARK Jewelers
131-133 Sixth Street Oregonian Building

It's No Compliment
just to "pass in a crowd." You want to so dress that you will be singled out in a crowd for your quiet elegance. The fortunate possessor of clothes tailored by Norman Bros. has this distinction.

NORMAN BROS.
TAILORS TO MEN AND WOMEN
Northwestern Bank Bldg.

MARNELLO HAS A BEAUTY AID FOR EVERY NEED
SHAMPOOING
HAIR DRESSING
SPECIAL REST FACIAL MASSAGE
BLEACHING TREATMENTS
MUSCLE STRAINING AND TONING
ELECTROLYSIS
SCALP TREATMENTS
MARNELLO PREPARATIONS
HAIR GOODS
Phone Marshall 297 for Appointment
223-4 Broadway Building