The amendment of 1917 to the act of 1913 and 1915 relieved the industrial welfare commission of its authority to regulate the hours of employment for women engaged in harvesting, packing, curing, canning or drying any variety of perishable fruit, vegetables or fish, according to an opinion written by Attorney General Brown for Millie R. Trumbull, director of the commission.

The development of 200 horsepower through the appropriation of waters from Little Sandy river in Clackamas county is contemplated in an application filed with the state engineer's office here by the Brightwood company of Portland.

Other applications for water rights have been filed as follows: By Gilbert C. Lapham, Vista, construction of two reservoirs for the storage of approximately 300 acre feet of water, and for the appropriation of such stored water for the irrigation of 193 acres in Klamath county.

By John J. Haefler, Cove, water from Duncan creek for the irrigation of 20 acres in Union county.

By Henry B. Clement, Ontario, waste water for the irrigation of 80 acres, and for domestic use in Malheur county.

By D. W. Price, Trail, water from the west branch of Elk creek for the irrigation of 15 acres in Jackson county.

By Henry F. Hagedorn, Silver Lake, water from a spring for domestic purposes in Lake county.

By J. M. McEwen, Riverside, water from Visher creek for the irrigation of 60 acres in Malheur county.

Camp Meeting to Open
Quincy Park, July 23.—Beginning Thursday evening the annual camp meeting and conference of the United Evangelical churches of Oregon will be in session until August 2. The principal speaker will be the Rev. W. M. Stanford, D. D. of Harrisburg, Pa.

Journal Carrier Is Run Over by Truck And Severely Hurt

Warren Karstad, 15, 1115 East Main street, is at St. Vincent's hospital with a badly mutilated and fractured left leg and other bruises.

The lad, a journal carrier, was riding in from the Gladstone Chautauque grounds where he worked Tuesday afternoon, to deliver over his regular route in Sunnyside, when a Union Oil company truck, passing him on the East Eighty-second street road, two miles south of Kendall station, struck the boy's bicycle.

The truck driver asked a passing motorist to carry the boy to the hospital, but Warren demanded that he be taken home. There the Ambulance Service company, dispatched by the police, found the boy. His left leg was laid open and the bone was broken.

While crossing a railroad south of Portland on Tuesday afternoon, J. K. Spiles, a 74-year-old resident of Oregon City, was hurled from his wagon onto an embankment, and given a severe general bruising. He was taken to Good Samaritan hospital. Spiles did not hear train coming. He is thought not to be seriously injured.

Albany Teacher Is Nearly Drowned; 2 Young Men Save Her

Albany, July 23.—Miss Helen Moore, assistant school superintendent, had a narrow escape at the new municipal swimming pool Monday evening.

Miss Moore had become tired and stepped into a hole and sank, too exhausted to save herself. Her predicament was perceived by two young men, who rushed to her assistance and carried her to safety. First aid was employed immediately, but 20 minutes elapsed before life was fully restored. She did not regain consciousness for nearly two hours. She was nearly recovered Tuesday evening.

Proposed Moving Registration Law Goes Over 2 Weeks

As a result of an extended conference with Deputy City Attorney Stanley Myers at the city hall Tuesday morning, submission of the ordinance providing for registration of all household moving jobs with the police was laid over for two weeks.

Two representatives of the drymen's organization and two members of the Portland Credit Men's association, together with Police Captain H. A. Circle and License Inspector Hutchinson, constitute the committee having the legislation in charge.

Brain Is Not the Seat of Activity, Says Frenchman

Paris, July 23.—The most revolutionary medical discovery of modern times was announced in today's issue of the Scientific Review by Professor Troude, who claims that the brain is not the seat of mental activity, as has long been maintained.

From experiments made during and since the war by eminent surgeons the investigating surgeons believe that the human mind is seated in some part of the body other than the brain, and possibly in the trunk, Professor Troude says.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY GREAT COUNCIL

The Great Council of Oregon met in annual session at M. W. A. hall Monday and Tuesday and the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

E. M. Wells, great sachein; F. D. Frost, great senior sachein; P. P. Fisher, great junior sachein; L. B. Smith, great prophet; O. L. Dickel, great chief of records; G. C. Lazyley, great keeper of wampum; L. H. Hamig, great representative to the Great Council of the United States.

James T. Rogers, great inchoonee of the United States, and H. Dorsey, Etchison, great sachein of Maryland, addressed the assembled chiefs Tuesday. A banquet was served Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce and by special dispensation of the great inchoonee the chiefs of Washington and Oregon were raised immediately following.

The great chiefs of the Washington Great Council, degree of Pochontas, the auxiliary sister order, were raised at the same time. Many prominent members of both orders were present. It is said to be the first time in the history of the order that two great councils met together for the raising of chiefs.

At the banquet L. B. Smith, retiring great sachein, presided. Judge W. N. Gätens gave the address of welcome. The following are the principal officers of Washington great council: D. D. Rose of Seattle, great sachein; John Smyth of Spokane, senior great sachein; Dr. A. C. Brown of Vancouver, junior great sachein; Ed B. King of Tacoma, great prophet; L. A. Drinkwater of Tacoma, great keeper of records; S. G. Williams of Skamokawa, great keeper of wampum.

The Pochontas great council of Washington raised up the following officers: Rose Webb of Wilkinson, great Pochontas; Della Williams of Tacoma, great Weneah; Lizzie Post of Kelso, great Minnehaha; Helen Wynn of Seattle, great prophetess; Mattie S. Leonard of Tacoma, great keeper of records; Helena Copp of Seattle, great keeper of wampum.

Oregon Pochontas councils have not yet been granted a charter, but many representatives and officers of local councils were present.

Wednesday morning the visiting chiefs and Great Inchoonee Rogers were given a trip over the Columbia river highway by the officers of Willamette and Oneonta tribes of this city.

Wednesday evening an adoption of the auxiliary sister order, the natural forests of Washington county, a large party going by auto to the farm of J. Dannel.

Veteran Fireman To Take Vacation

Assistant Chief Michael Laudenkios of the fire department, after 30 years' of continuous service in safeguarding the city from fires, will take an extended vacation in the effort to benefit his health. With Mrs. Laudenkios the veteran fire fighter will leave Portland in his roadster, Friday and drive to Southern California. During Laudenkios' absence Battalion Chief Lee M. Holden, senior of the district officers, will be assistant chief under John M. Young, present acting chief.

Sound Salmon Run Lowest in History

(International News Service.)
Bellingham, Wash., July 23.—Salmon run on Puget Sound is worst in the history of the industry, say Bellingham cannerymen. Only six or seven canneries are operating on the Sound, and only 18 purse seines out of 500 or 600 are employed today. The plants running Washington raised up the following officers: Rose Webb of Wilkinson, great Pochontas; Della Williams of Tacoma, great Weneah; Lizzie Post of Kelso, great Minnehaha; Helen Wynn of Seattle, great prophetess; Mattie S. Leonard of Tacoma, great keeper of records; Helena Copp of Seattle, great keeper of wampum.

WOULD LICENSE HOMES WHERE CHILDREN BOARD

The Social Workers' Association of Oregon passed a resolution at the luncheon meeting of the board of directors at the Oregon grille Monday advocating passage of legislation standardizing and licensing of homes where children are boarded.

The resolution grew out of the discussion over the recent Mathus case in which it was shown that three children, placed in the hands of others for care by their mothers, had been subjected to ill treatment. The child welfare commission is working with City Attorney La Roche on an ordinance to regulate children boarding homes which will probably be submitted to the city council Wednesday.

At the meeting of the social workers no details of supervising these homes or the manner of licensing were worked out, as it was known these details were being handled by the child welfare commission. The resolution as passed was as follows:

Resolved, That the child welfare commission be urged to assist in developing as rapidly as may be convenient in an efficient system of standardizing, licensing and supervising homes to which above mentioned children are sent, and to this end the Social Workers' association of Oregon stands prepared at any time to lend its counsel, and the experience of its individual members, that the highest welfare of our children, the future citizens of our great republic, be fully and efficiently safeguarded.

Predict Bumper Grain Production in Oregon This Season

The Dalles, Or., July 23.—F. L. Ballard, district county agent leader, after a comprehensive survey of the state's growing crops, said that Oregon's grain crop this season would be among the best ever produced.

"The Blue Mountain country has the best wheat crop in years," said Ballard, "while wheat in Eastern Oregon is better than usual."

He said that stockmen in this state were gradually learning the value of sunflowers for cattle feed. He stated that one stockman has 1200 acres in the flower this season and would get a nutritious cattle food sufficient to feed his stock clear through at a price far below that for other stock foods of equal value. The average yield per acre is from six to 36 tons, he said.

Forest Fire Near Medford Unchecked

Medford, July 23.—A forest fire broke out in scrub timber on the old stage road 2 1/2 miles north of Jacksonville Monday and spread fast, threatening the valuable timber of the Stansell-Florey logging camp and other timber of value, as well as several hill ranches. It was under control Tuesday afternoon. District State Fire Warden Eberly and a large force of men fought the fire for two days.

Why We Serve the Best Coffee In Our Tea Room

—A good cup of coffee is the most enjoyable part of the meal to a great many people. The coffee served in our Tea Room on the Fourth Floor is made in

—Kellum Thermo Automatic Coffee Making Machines

—AUTOMATIC. There is absolutely only one way in which to make coffee in these machines insuring uniform coffee at all times —no skilled coffee maker required.

—NO REPOURING—with the Kellum method of filtration the coffee is NEVER REPOURED. Repouring ruins coffee, as it extracts bitterness from the fiber of the coffee bean.

—THERMO PRINCIPLE—the air chamber surrounding the coffee jar and pipes leading to the faucets prevents the coffee from being scalded or chilled when the water jacket is refilled.

—SELF-CLEANING and STERILIZING—the coffee jar and faucets are cleaned and sterilized by boiling water and steam from the machine.

—Hotel, restaurant and institution proprietors invited to inspect our coffee urns.
