Sale of 600 New Plush Coats

First With the New

AUTUMN MODES

Your inspection of the early autumn models in suits, frocks and wraps is invited. Whether you contemplate purchasing now or not, you will find of interest:

The slim, straight frocks, braid trimmed bodied and embroidered; the suits lavishly fur trimmed, embroidered with straight jackets and gilets of brocade or with the long, graceful redingote; the coats voluminous, loose of sleeve and sometimes tight of skirt, stitched, embroidered and fur-laden.

Of particular interest to the woman who takes pride in meeting the season prepared, to the fall bride and the late vacationist is this noteworthy Meier & Frank sponsored collection of early autumn modes to which new accessions are being received constantly from our buyers in New York.

An Event Unique in Portland's Annals, Offering New Plush Coats for Fall and Winter, 1920-1921, at Special Prices on the Threshold of the Season for Which They Are Designed

THE inspiration for this Sale of Plush Coats is found in the August Fur Sale, told of below. Our patrons, said we, expect an August Fur Sale and we shall give them one of the finest on record. But why not extend still further the benefits of MEIER & FRANK value-giving supremacy and inaugurate for Portland a Sale of PLUSH coats, to be on an equally big scale, equally as helpful as the Sale of Furs? Our buyers went east on their fall and winter buying trip with instructions to make purchases in accordance with this plan. And so this great original MEIER & FRANK Sale of Plush Coats takes its place alongside the famous Sale of Furs, resulting in a double event of the widest scope and the most beneficial character.

More than 600 new plush coats. Peco plush, Salts, Behring and Hudson seal plush and other dependable varieties. Short, three-quarter and full-length models with large plush collars or fur collars of beaver, Australian opossum, wolf, natural or dyed raccoon, natural or dyed opossum.
