

Large Reception Is Given for Miss Mitchell

THE reception for Miss Grace Mitchell which was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William F. Fleber, aided by the Unitarian Women's alliance last Wednesday afternoon, was largely attended by Portland's most representative women. Miss Mitchell, who is touring this country, was sent from England as a delegate to the annual meeting of the National Unitarian Women's alliance, which was held in Boston last May, as a representative of the "Membership League of Unitarian and other liberal Christian women" of England. The Fleber home was a bower of beautiful flowers.

On the veranda were large boxes of growing flowers. The hall where Miss Edwards stood showed a profusion of galathea.

In the living room, among other decorations were clusters of giant dahlias, which were received from Mrs. L. E. Hottel and Mrs. J. S. Young, president of the Portland alliance; Mrs. Frank Jackson and Mrs. R. H. Hottel, vice president, and Mrs. O. Summers, treasurer; Mrs. L. A. Walker, secretary; Mrs. J. W. Thatcher, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. William L. Elliot.

The purple and cerise petunias, artistically veiled in gipsy phyllis, made a most attractive centerpiece for the table, with its silver and china, when Mrs. Lee Hottel and Mrs. V. Hottel poured and served iced and cake, assisted by Miss Ferguson, Miss Cora De Lin, Miss Corlies, Miss Cora De Lin, Miss Ethel Wentworth, Miss Hawley, Mrs. A. C. Forrester and Mrs. Marsh Boothby.

Miss Mitchell has a striking personality of English type, is an earnest speaker, and held the keenest attention of her audience for over an hour as she explained the "Membership League" work, not only in England but on the continent.

After attending the May meeting in Boston, Miss Mitchell has visited all the important cities of Canada en route here by way of Victoria and Seattle. At the latter place she was greatly impressed by the Unitarian church and its people, as well as the wonderful scenery, which she scarcely had time to thoroughly enjoy. Arriving in Portland last Tuesday, she has been kept busy meeting and speaking to the people here, not only at the reception Wednesday, but at the Unitarian church Thursday. She expressed herself as being greatly impressed with the people here, and that people here and their interest along her lines of work.

Miss Mitchell left Portland Thursday evening for California, where she will attend meetings all along the line to the Atlantic, where she is to found Unitarian churches and congregations of liberal thinking women.

Miss Mitchell expects to return to England in the autumn.

Mrs. A. F. Nemiro of Chicago and Mrs. D. Nemirovsky have returned to Portland after a two weeks' visit at Seaside. Mrs. Nemiro was the house guest of Mrs. D. A. Pepp and the recently departed Mrs. Pepp entertained with a bridge tea at the Anne Davenport tea house of Mrs. Nemiro, who was also honor guest of luncheon given by Mrs. Sam Nemiro at the Seaside hotel. Covers were laid for seven guests. Mrs. Mischa Pepp, hostess for a dinner party for Mrs. Nemiro at the Seaside hotel, when eight friends enjoyed her hospitality.

Mrs. Frank A. Jackson entertained at dinner at her home at the Fordham apartments, Saturday evening, for her house guests, Mrs. Susan Tracy Crain of Minneapolis and Miss Dorothy Goodhue, who left Tuesday evening for the Orient. Miss Goodhue was also entertained Sunday by Mrs. Crain with a motor trip and dinner over the Columbia river highway. Her guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Jackson, Edwin Jackson and Miss Goodhue.

Miss Genevieve Loughlin and Mrs. Thomas L. Loughlin returned to the city Tuesday, following a month's visit at the home of Mrs. Loughlin's sister, Mrs. A. W. Skelley, at Aberdeen, Wash. During this time they motored to Hood's canal and spent three weeks in that district.

Mrs. Raymond G. Littler was hostess for an attractive card party Monday at her home on Mount Taber, honoring Mrs. George Hasket of Pendleton. After luncheon, Helen Wagner, instructor of music at the University of Idaho, gave several beautiful piano selections.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brougher of Los Angeles are visitors at Gearhart, where they arrived for the remainder of the summer, motoring up from the South. Dr. Brougher was accompanied by his son, the Rev. Russell Brougher.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman H. Hall, accompanied by their guests, Gilbert Colgate, Miss Grace Holgate and Gilbert Colgate Jr. of New York, were recent visitors at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. MacCormac Snow are leaving this week for Seaside, where they will spend August in the Wood cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caswell spent the week at Cannon Beach. Mrs. Dan Hines (Louise Caswell) is a visitor at the beach with her mother.

Miss Katherine Overbeck is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Cooke at Gearhart for a short time.

Miss Genevieve Brooke, who with her mother, Mrs. Edward Heath Brooke, is a visitor in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis. Miss Brooke has been much entertained in Portland.

PORTLAND community service has continued its program of activities with unusual enthusiasm throughout the summer months. The motor truck ride and hiking party, of last Sunday, received the response of 420 participants who left the Northwestern bank building at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and went to Eagle creek, where a large part of their number climbed to the Punch Bowl. The company was carried to their destination in motor trucks loaned through the courtesy of Mayor George L. Baker. Commissioners Mann and Bigelow, Chief of Police L. V. Jenkins, and the firms of Zellerbach Paper company, Woodard-Clarke & Co., Marshall Wells, Olds, Wortman & King, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., Meier & Frank Co., Peerless Pacific company, Crown Milling company, Portland Flouring mills, J. K. Gill Co., and Blumauer Frank Drug company.

Today a party of community service members will leave at 2 o'clock from Twenty-third and Washington streets for Imperial Heights and from there to Blasted Butte, a trip of from six to eight miles. Each girl is expected to bring her own luncheon. A bonfire will be built for the early evening hours and the company will return at 8:30 o'clock. A leader will be chosen from the Trails club who will act as guide for the company on the trip.

Another interesting feature of the community service work is the short story writing class which will hold its second meeting in Washington park Monday night at 7 o'clock. Miss Mollie Segal has volunteered her services for this work, which promises to be unusually interesting. The first meeting of the short story class was held July 15 and was well attended. The girls are studying the work of O. Henry and will continue the same study this week with the addition of a sketch from the life and works of Jerome K. Jerome. Any person who is a member of the organization or who is interested is invited to attend the classes.

Mrs. G. M. Weister has returned to the city from a visit of several weeks at Neah-Kah-Nie. During her stay at the beach Mrs. Orange M. Clark and Mrs. H. M. Lull and daughter, Barbara, and son, James, were house guests at her cottage. Mrs. Weister will remain in the city for the rest of the season. Mrs. Lull and her daughter have recently returned from California, where Miss Barbara has been studying violin and has met with unusual success in her work.

A surprise party was given recently for Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer, 180 Laurelhurst avenue, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. About midnight a dainty supper was served. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Johnson, Butler, Duvall, Niemeyer, the Misses Edith Duvall, Gladys Duvall, Louise Niemeyer.

Miss Anna J. Gilmore became the bride of William H. Docery Thursday evening at 762 Multnomah street, where the bride makes her home. The service was read by the Rev. J. Bowersox in the presence of friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Docery will reside in Portland.

Mrs. E. J. Burke was hostess for a luncheon Saturday afternoon, honoring a group of congenial friends. The afternoon was spent informally.

family, was hostess for a birthday party July 24 at Seaside, Wash., on the occasion of the birthday anniversary of her niece, Miss Annette Husey. The family had planned to make a trip to Blasted Butte to see the lighthouse, so arrangements were made to make the trip at this time. With a party from Long Beach, Wash., Mrs. Lewis and her daughter Dorothy, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Harper, Miss Fay Ridduck and the little guest of honor, motored to the lighthouse. At the dinner hour a birthday cake with seven candles was placed on the picnic table, which was arranged by Miss Ridduck with pleasing favors suitable to the occasion. Members of the party were: Mrs. Percy W. Lewis, Mrs. Mary Harper, Misses Fay E. Ridduck, Norma Stampf, Dorothy Lewis, Annette Husey, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Schloth, Mrs. J. C. Walker, Miss Katherine Miller and Master Billy Schloth.

A surprise shower was given July 24 for the pleasure of Miss Helen Ogilvie, who will become the bride of Walter E. Brunkow in the near future. The affair took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ogilvie, 1433 East Hoyt street. A large number of the friends and relatives of the young folk were present and a delightful evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton H. Insley and daughters, Dorothy and Virginia, are spending the summer at Neah-Kah-Nie. Mr. Insley returned early in the week, but the other members of the family have been staying at the tavern. They expect to return to the city Monday.

The marriage of Miss Edith L. Altow and Arch P. Rutherford was quietly solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Altow, at their apartment, 714 Gilliam street. The service was read by the Rev. George Bennett, pastor of the Eastern Methodist church. The bride couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Altow. For the occasion the rooms were prettily decorated with summer blossoms. The bride is a Portland girl and has many friends in the city. Mr. Rutherford is a member of the firm of Rutherford & Skilton, contractors. During the war period he served with his regiment in France. Owing to the bridegroom's business, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford will spend four months of the year at Arlington, Or., where they are at present. Later they will return to Portland to reside.

The Misses Sanders, who have been spending a short time at Seaside, have had as their guests at the beach Mrs. John Effinger and the Misses Louise and Alice Effinger of Berkeley, Cal., who have been recent Portland visitors.

Mrs. Philip Buchner is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Thornton Ladd, for the summer months at the Ladd cottage at Seaside.
