By J. Bart Campbell

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 5.—(I. N. S.)—The front porch campaign of Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, will get under way in earnest next week, according to announcement made at Harding headquarters here today.

Plans have been completed, despite increased passenger fares and lack of excursion trains, to bring a number of delegations here from different states between now and October 1.

The senator will meet issues of the campaign in a series of addresses from his front porch, while frequent conferences will be held by him at his home with his campaign managers, members of the Republican national committee and other Republican leaders who will journey here.

The dates for gatherings here have been fixed as follows:

Monday, August 9, members of the Society of American Indians, an organization formed by Indian students at the Ohio State university.

Friday, August 13, about 150 members of the Ohio Republican Editorial association.

Wednesday, August 18, picnic of the Lumbermen's association of the Marion district at a local park.

Thursday, August 19, former and present members of the Ohio state assembly.

Saturday, August 21, delegation of Lake county, Indiana, Republicans.

Monday, August 23, delegation of Republican governors of western states in interest of conservation and development of natural resources of public lands in the West.

Friday, September 3, business men of foreign birth, now naturalized, from all parts of the country.

Saturday, September 5, members of the American Defense association, of which the late Colonel Roosevelt was the first honorary president.

Phelan Still Trying To Force Through Anti-Japanese Bill

San Francisco, Aug. 6.—Senator James D. Phelan Thursday called a conference for Saturday in San Francisco of leaders in the Oriental exclusive campaign to prepare a unified movement for carrying the anti-Japanese land ownership initiative measure at the general election in November.

Senator Phelan will leave early the coming week for Los Angeles for a conference there with representatives of various civic organizations and the Southern branch of the Oriental Exclusion league on the initiative campaign.

Cox Has Confidence Taft Will Back Men Who Support League

(By United News)
Dayton, Ohio, Aug. 6.—Democratic leaders have "every expectation" that William Howard Taft, despite Senator Harding's stand for rejection of the peace treaty, will urge the nomination of Republican senators, candidates who are in favor of the League of Nations.

Governor Cox said in a statement here today.

The governor's statement was occasioned by mention of victory in the Democratic primaries for the league candidates in Missouri and Oklahoma, and Taft's recent articles attacking Harding's speech of acceptance. Cox explained that he did not expect Taft to support Democrats in any instances, but that the ex-president could be a strong worker for the league and still remain a Republican.

Victory Claimed by General Wrangell

Paris, Aug. 6.—(I. N. S.)—General Wrangell's anti-Bolshevik forces in the Crimean front, "has defeated two Russian red armies in an eight-day battle, capturing 4000 prisoners, 39 guns and a number of armored trains, according to an announcement made at the old Russian embassy Thursday. It was said that the reds were disorganized and were being pursued.

Industrial School Artist Is Helped By Great Commoner

St. Anthony, Idaho, Aug. 6.—The story of a kindly interest taken by William Jennings Bryan in a young Idaho boy, now an inmate of the industrial school here, has just leaked out.

Recently the great commoner gave a Chautauqua lecture at St. Anthony, talked to the children at the industrial school and was the luncheon guest of the superintendent. The place cards were prepared by a pupil who has shown talent for drawing. They bore a cartoon of Bryan wearing a broad smile and hugging a bottle of White House grape juice.

Bryan was pleased, asked to see the boy and chatted pleasantly with him. Before leaving he gave Superintendent Vincent a substantial check to aid in the boy's high school education. At the superintendent's request he also left his photograph for the boy, who has now almost completed a very fine oil painting from it.

Washington Senator Calls Third Party Move Un-American

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 6.—(I. N. S.)—Senator Miles Poindexter, chairman of the Republican senatorial campaign committee, who arrived here Wednesday night, flayed the Third party and Non-partisan league movement. He declared that there was no need for a third party and, said that differences could be fought out within the parties. A great deal of the sentiment back of the Third party comes from those who are opposed to the whole American principle of government, he said. He stated that principle is the protection of the rights of the individual and the preservation, to as large an extent as possible, of the individual's liberty of action.

Thirty nations probably will participate in the Brussels conference, thus giving its decisions the moral force necessary to insure action.

The military, naval and aerial commission today took up in secret session the proposition of abolishing the use of poison gas in war. It also discussed restriction of munitions shipments through various countries.

Three causes were assigned by the council for unsettled economic conditions throughout the world:

One—The financial policy of individual states.

Two—The unstable rates of exchange of paper currency.

Three—Confused commercial relations of which the remedy is speedy restoration of sound credits.

Plans were made for a financial conference at Brussels, September 20, at which an arbitrary rate of exchange between member states and former enemy states will be fixed. Financial experts said they did not expect the rate of exchange of money of former enemy nations ever will become normal.

One of the first steps will be to ask countries with inflated currency to deflate it, so as to remove one of the prime causes of the present economic situation.
