

Beach Trips Are Most Inviting at Neah-Kah-Nie

NEAH-KAH-NIE, Aug. 7.—For those who are fond of the trail no trip could be more inviting than the one from Seaside to Neah-Kah-Nie. Mountain road from Seaside to Cannon Beach, beach sand to Arch Cape, and the beautiful outside trail round the mountains with an occasional stretch of beach for variety, to complete the distance, make up a perfect day's outing. Many persons make the trip each year for its charm is never forgotten. Numerous parties have gone over the trail lately, among them a party composed of Mrs. S. N. Barriger and Maude E. Barriger of Kiowa, Kan., who are the guests of the Misses Edith and Pearl Ellis. Accompanying the ladies was Allen Todd Jr. of Portland, Mrs. M. J. Kanary, and Mrs. P. P. Leinenweber of Astoria, also arrived at this beach over the same route, and L. E. Burton of Portland went out to Seaside over the trail.

Mrs. H. H. Briggs of Portland is the house guest, at Allen cottage, of Mrs. G. F. Law, who with her sons, Donald, Gordon and Roderick, is spending the season here.

Bartlett cottage has been chosen by Dr. and Mrs. Paul R. Hickey of Portland for their home during August.

Dr. E. H. Pence, of Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland, with Mrs. Pence and family, will occupy the Wentz cottage until the end of the season.

Registered at the Neah-Kah-Nie tavern are Mrs. M. J. Shea and Ruth Shea of Cherokee, Iowa, and Miss Alma Vest of Enterprise, Mo.

Mrs. W. H. Skene and Miss Jean Skene of Portland arrived here last week for a fortnight's vacation.

The Isom cottage is being occupied by Miss Zulema Kostomlaty of the Portland library staff.

At the Cone cottage for a month is Mrs. R. E. Nichols of Portland.

The Reed cottage has been taken by Mrs. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, who will arrive here soon.

At Cain's for a pleasurable outing are the Misses Edith and Pearl Ellis, of Astoria, and L. E. Burton of Portland went out to Seaside over the trail.

Mrs. H. H. Briggs of Portland is the house guest, at Allen cottage, of Mrs.

family, who will remain here for an extended outing.

Rev. and Mrs. T. L. Elliot, who with Miss Henrietta Elliot are sojourning here, have as their guest their daughter, Mrs. E. Wilbur of Berkeley, and their grandchildren, the Misses Elliot of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dunlap of Portland are registered at Cain's farm house for their vacation.

Mrs. Frank M. Baum of Portland has arrived to join her children, who have been here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Reed are entertaining as their guest W. S. Raker of Portland.

H. W. Bonham of Portland and Ed S. Currier of St. Johns spent several days at this resort recently.

Sunday visitors at this beach were George Frantz and Miss Vera Harburger, both of Portland.

Among Portlanders who are making their headquarters at Cain's are Mrs. Anna I. Morris, R. B. Lee and F. L. Butterfield.

Guests of the Tavern were afforded an unusual entertainment on Tuesday evening, when Anthony Euwer gave a number of readings from his own poems. He is here as the guest of his brother, Eugene, and his mother, Mrs. Virginia Euwer, both of Hood River.

Manhattan
Manhattan, Or., Aug. 7.—Much local enthusiasm continues to be manifest over the proposed highway from Lake Lytle to Brighton, passing through Manhattan. Appropriation for the work has already been made by the county and a committee of Manhattan citizens representing the property-owners here is endeavoring to push the project through as soon as possible. It is hoped the new highway will be completed before the end of the present season.

A new cottage is being erected on the ridge by Jasper D. McFall of Portland, and J. Walkley of Portland is building a new cottage for Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mathieson, also of Portland.

O. F. Hagen of Portland is visiting his sister, Mrs. Arnold Fultz, at Argyle cottage.

Mrs. L. D. Leedy of Salem is registered at the Manhattan hotel. For the week-end guests of Mrs. Anna Welch are Mrs. J. Bowman and daughter, Miss Loretta Bowman, and Milton Johnson, all of Portland.

Domestic in Lakeview cottage for the coming week are Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Schroeder of Portland.

Week-end guests of Mrs. Anna Welch are Mrs. J. Bowman and daughter, Miss Loretta Bowman, and Milton Johnson, both of Portland.

Seaside cottage is the vacation home of Mrs. Mary Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Zenz and daughter, Naomi Hart of Portland, and Mrs. Will Grady and sons Granville and Clarence. The party came by automobile from Portland.

At Hood River arrangements can be made to go to Mt. Hood with its matchless, mountain climbing, fishing, berry picking and camping. Speed, safety and service at low cost.

FROM PORTLAND TO ST. HELENS

Stage Leaves Twice Each Day at 10 A. M. and 4 P. M.

Tourists who make this trip will have a chance to see something of the quiet and pastoral beauty of the Lower Columbia river country with its vernal beauty and fertile farming country. The road is as smooth as a satin ribbon and the trip is one you will long remember.

FROM PORTLAND TO THE SEA

THE Shepard Auto Stage leaves for Astoria and Seaside twice each day, at 10 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. This trip is a kaleidoscopic panorama of beauty with its ever-changing views of the Columbia river, of forest and rugged mountain scenery. The stage stops at Inspiration Point to give passengers a view of Tinas Illineh Island far below and of the majestic Columbia. The loops by which the coast range are crossed are picturesque in the extreme. Powerful machines and careful drivers add to the pleasure of the trip.

Special service between Astoria and Seaside, 10 cars each way daily. Our cars meet trains at Astoria and leave Seaside to connect with Portland boats.
