

RECREATION FOR ALL IS PLANNED AT COMMUNITY MEET

The greatest good to the greatest number will be the policy adopted in development of recreational facilities of Mount Hood region. It was decided at a meeting held Monday in the Chamber of Commerce...

W. F. Woodward, president of the community service, presided. An executive committee was appointed consisting of Judge Jacob Kansler of the domestic relations court, chairman...

MORE GROUNDS DESIRED More public camping grounds on the order of Eagle creek, where vacations may be enjoyed by masses of people...

SUMMER CAMP NEEDED A. P. Gephart of the public welfare bureau, spoke of the need of a site for a summer camp for poor women with children...

It was the sentiment of those present that preference should be given the masses and that the land should not be given to forest lands at all suitable for public camping grounds...

VILLA, A PRISONER, GIVEN GLAD HAND

General Martinez, who responded with another bow. VILLA GETS RANCH AND GUARD General Martinez later in the week will have charge of the demobilization of the Villista troops...

FORGET POLITICS, HE SAYS

Forcing his way through the throng, howling right and left, Villa was nearly overcome by his emotions. He finally was moved to the back of the crowd...

HOPES FOR EDUCATION

"I will settle down on a ranch at Canutillo Durango, where I'll raise cattle and crops," Villa said to the United Press...

BANDS PLAY 'THE COCKROACH'

Villa was the center of a joyous celebration in San Pedro today. He and his men were lionized. It was a semi-holiday...

Bands paraded the plaza playing the old Villa revolutionary song, "La Cucaracha," which, being interpreted, means "The Cockroach," and in which Villa is represented as boasting he will get the whickers of Carranza and make himself a monarch out of them...

One of the most dramatic episodes of the day was the meeting between Villa and Escobar, one of the Carranza leaders responsible for the execution of Felipe Angeles, Villa's oldest and closest friend...

"Angeles," said Villa, "was Mexico's greatest general. Also he was my best friend. It was a crime to kill him."

As he spoke he fixed his eyes on Escobar and glared. Escobar kept his hands...

Countess Szechenyi Is Recovered From An Electric Shock

Glens Falls, N. Y., Aug. 10.—(U. N. S.)—Countess Szechenyi, formerly Miss Gladys Vanderbilt of New York, has fully recovered from a severe electrical shock she suffered Sunday afternoon during a hard thunder storm which swept through the Adirondacks...

Dr. Santone, the physician on the Harry Payne Whitney preserve, was called.

COX REFUSES TO DESERT CAUSE OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

By Harry L. Rogers Dayton, Ohio, Aug. 10.—(U. N. S.)—A group of anti-suffragists at a conference last night tried to sway Governor James M. Cox away from suffrage ratification, but they failed. Governor Cox told them that he was going to stand pat.

He talked to the anti-suffrage group at length and said that he was going to do everything he could to get the Tennessee legislature to ratify.

Governor Cox went this morning to a little booth in the main hall of the Ohio state house, where he cast his vote in the primary fight. He supported W. A. Julian of Cincinnati, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the United States senate.

Cox also marked his ballot in support of Vic. Donahy, the present auditor of the state of Ohio, who is running this year for governor.

URGENT PORT NEEDS ARE TO BE DISCUSSED

(Continued From Page One.)

representative on the Rivers and Harbors committee present for the meeting. The call for the convention has been issued by George Quayle, secretary of the state chamber, under signature of Charles Hall, president, and an executive committee consisting of William Pollman, Baker; E. E. Brodie, Oregon City; C. C. Chapman, Amity; H. Hirschbuhl, Independence, and W. W. Harrah, Pendleton.

The plans arranged for the opening of the first session in the Multnomah hotel to a meeting of the official bodies seeking representation are requested to forward their credentials to the secretary of the state chamber.

"Drastic action must be taken to improve our harbors and increase our shipping facilities if the Northwest expects to keep pace with other sections of the United States," was the message sent to the members of the board by Hudson, who represents Oregon at the National Rivers and Harbors congress.

"Directors voiced the opinion that every man of influence in the Northwest believes that the time is ripe for doing something; that only full cooperation of every resident of the Northwest will be primarily of interest to the shipper, it should demand attention of every resident of the Northwest, who in the end has to pay the transportation bills.

"The Pacific Coast must realize that this is the best time to be alive to the possibilities of foreign trade and the needs of shippers," said President Hall in discussing the calling of the convention.

PROBLEMS ARE ACUTE

"Shipping problems of the Northwest are becoming acute and demand the serious attention of manufacturers, merchants and farmers, and, in fact, all who avail themselves of shipping facilities. High freight rates in the past have worked seriously against the shipper, and with new freight rate increases becoming effective this month the whole matter is presenting a problem the seriousness of which can only be contemplated.

Ballroads are handicapped on account of lack of equipment, and while striving to give service, are unable to handle the situation either in transportation of products or in the provision of a rate satisfactory to the Northwest shipping public.

"If there was ever a time in the history of the Northwest when business men should be alive to the need of developing maritime shipping and to cooperate on a program of such development, it is now. Relief can be obtained through development of steamship lines and harbor facilities which will handle the shipping of this section of the country.

Some of the merchants of the Northwest demands action. The lumber industry is dependent upon the ability of manufacturers to make prompt shipments to the Eastern market and other trade centers. The lumber business has developed enormously and will develop by other leaps and bounds if adequate shipping facilities are provided.

"Farmers must have better transportation facilities for the marketing of their grain, livestock and other products. The very life of our industries depends to a great extent on the ability to secure the cheapest rates combined with prompt service for the shipment of raw products from the west and for the distribution of the manufactured articles."

The call for this convention is being sent to various organizations and individuals and an invitation is being extended to them to be present and take part in the deliberations.

on his gun. The atmosphere was very tense for a moment. Nobody spoke. Then General Martinez tactfully changed the subject and the crisis passed.

Villa moved freely around the town, cheered at every turn, but it was noticed that he always had a body guard of five heavily armed men at his heels.

His troopers looked fiercer and wild. They were typical of the reckless band that made Villa's name a terror throughout the north and which even eluded Felipe Angeles. Some wore long and lean with big mustaches, dressed in the fashion of Texas cowmen with "chaps" and Stetsons. Others were more characteristic of Mexican attire in tight fitting leather trousers, braided jackets and enormous hats. But they were all extremely businesslike, carrying rifles and revolvers and apparently of the alert for treachery.

BUYERS FROM FAR AND NEAR IN THE CITY

Above—Selah (Wash.) delegates; from left, E. W. Jones, Mrs. Arthur Champoux and Arthur Champoux. Below—From top, G. P. Stewart of Powers, Or.; C. H. McClain of Leavenworth, Wash., and H. C. Hilford of Salt Lake City. At right—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewellen and son James of Norway, Or.

sathering will convene at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge of the festivities is composed of Paul de Haas (chairman), Monte Mayer, E. W. Johnson, E. C. Ward, L. C. Garrigue, J. W. A. McDonald, J. F. Furlong Jr., S. Mason Ehrman, C. M. Egbert, H. A. Green, J. L. Lousson, A. W. Ellis, Herbert Katz, J. H. MacKenzie, Charles M. Hill and T. S. Townsend.

While the men are gathered for the smoker, wives of buyers and visiting ladies will be the guests of a special women's committee at a theatre-party.

The ladies' reception committee is headed by Mrs. W. D. MacFarland and is composed of Mrs. W. F. Norman, Mrs. R. M. Irvine, Mrs. T. S. Townsend, Mrs. J. D. Kenworthy, Mrs. W. K. Slater, Mrs. P. P. Jones, Mrs. W. J. Ball and Mrs. Willis Fisher.

Wednesday noon the merchants will be transported to the Lewis and Clark aviation field where luncheon will be served. Cars will leave for the airplane building at 11:30 o'clock from the Oregon field. At 5 p. m. a vaudeville and window trimmers' contest will be held at the Baker theatre.

BUYERS' LIST REACHES 900; 2000 IS THE GOAL

(Continued From Page One.)

payment of railroad fares for the visitors if they make combined purchases amounting to $500. It is estimated that more than 200 visitors have already made purchases in excess of that amount.

Some of the merchants have traveled great distances to attend Buyers' week. From Phoenix, Ariz., G. W. Barrows of the Barrows Furniture company registered Tuesday morning. E. R. Anderson, buyer for the Texas Furniture & Storage company, added his name to the list Monday evening, closely followed by E. Wheeler, representing the Wheeler Drug & jewelry company of Wrangell, Alaska.

ALASKANS ARRIVE

The Alaskan arrivals began arriving Monday evening. In addition to Wrangell, Ketchikan, Petersburg and Nome are represented.

Cities in the Northwest and the Willamette valley are not very well represented in the Eastern market and other trade centers. The lumber business has developed enormously and will develop by other leaps and bounds if adequate shipping facilities are provided.

"Farmers must have better transportation facilities for the marketing of their grain, livestock and other products. The very life of our industries depends to a great extent on the ability to secure the cheapest rates combined with prompt service for the shipment of raw products from the west and for the distribution of the manufactured articles."

The call for this convention is being sent to various organizations and individuals and an invitation is being extended to them to be present and take part in the deliberations.

on his gun. The atmosphere was very tense for a moment. Nobody spoke. Then General Martinez tactfully changed the subject and the crisis passed.

Villa moved freely around the town, cheered at every turn, but it was noticed that he always had a body guard of five heavily armed men at his heels.

His troopers looked fiercer and wild. They were typical of the reckless band that made Villa's name a terror throughout the north and which even eluded Felipe Angeles. Some wore long and lean with big mustaches, dressed in the fashion of Texas cowmen with "chaps" and Stetsons. Others were more characteristic of Mexican attire in tight fitting leather trousers, braided jackets and enormous hats. But they were all extremely businesslike, carrying rifles and revolvers and apparently of the alert for treachery.

OSWEGO SECTION DEMANDS SQUARE DEAL UPON ROADS

Property owners of the Oswego Lake district, many of whom are Portland business men, decided Monday to work actively to get the roads and highways of Northwestern Clackamas county improved and hardsurfaced.

"We have the most valuable section of Clackamas county, pay nearly double the taxes acre for acre or lot for lot that they do in Portland and we have the worst roads of their kind in Oregon because nobody is afraid of us. Somebody is going to whack up some of that money we have paid in taxes and never got anything back for or somebody is going to get their corns stepped on."

That was the openly expressed sentiment of a big meeting at the Oswego town hall.

MEETING IS HELD The meeting was made up of property owners from Lake Grove, Goodin, South Oswego, Old and New Oswego, Wilsona, Brimwood and Rockaway and was presided over by T. R. Clinefelter, president of the council.

The gathering was at the instance of Mayor F. Huffman of Oswego and W. M. Cousin of Brimwood, following publication of news that the state highway commission intended to put a gravel macadam on top of the rock roads between Oswego lake and the Multnomah county line instead of hardsurfacing it.

Speeches were made by Huffman, Frank McFarland of Lake Grove, W. M. Gray of Oswego and numerous others in which disapproval of the policy of the state commission in leaving the connecting link between the Oswego lake district and Multnomah county in the condition it has been in and now to make the trouble worse by putting wash on top and making the curves absolutely hazardous.

FAVING DISCUSSED "They seem to overlook entirely that this is the official road designated in the automobile guide books and that they are actually leading people into this death trap," said Huffman.

During the meeting McFarland and L. C. Newlands, manager of the Oswego cement plant, discussed the cost of paving the section and the cost of the paving companies. Newlands said paving of any kind would cost about $20,000 a mile, that the distance to be paved is about three-fourths of a mile and that if the state highway commission would ask for bids, he would personally guarantee that figure quoted for cement would be less than the bids for bitumen or asphalt. The discussion ended when Newlands reiterated that he would underbid the asphalt people and added that the highway commission was in error to say that it would cost more to pave the short strip separately from the entire distance to Oregon City.

"Will cement suit that?" queried another speaker who derisively called out: "You ought to see some of the asphalt the commission is laying up the valley."

A committee consisting of Mayor Huffman, E. M. Cousin, A. R. MacLane, H. L. Shepard, Frank McFarland, Mrs. W. H. Chapin and Mrs. John Banks was appointed to study the matter and to report resolutions and present them to the highway commission.

Arrest of 'Trunk Murder' Suspect Ordered by Radio

New York, Aug. 10.—(U. N. S.)—A wireless message was flashed today to the steamship Dryden, now en route to Rio Janeiro, by the New York police to arrest another derelictly called out: "You ought to see some of the asphalt the commission is laying up the valley."

A committee consisting of Mayor Huffman, E. M. Cousin, A. R. MacLane, H. L. Shepard, Frank McFarland, Mrs. W. H. Chapin and Mrs. John Banks was appointed to study the matter and to report resolutions and present them to the highway commission.

Workers throughout the world were urged to protest. Laborites in parliament held a caucus last night, flatly challenging the government to declare war if it dared. M. Kameneff, the Bolshevik representative here, was invited to attend this meeting, but failed to do so. The laborites ordered executives of all unions to meet in London in readiness to declare a general strike if necessary to prevent operations against the soviets. Such a war would be "a crime against all humanity," the laborites proclaimed. They represent 6,000,000 workers.

The independent liberals in parliament also held a caucus and adopted a resolution calling on the government to take steps to establish a real general peace, but protesting against intervention in Poland in any form.

Tanks equipped with full length glass gauges have been designed to assure purchasers of motor boat fuel at supply stations that they are getting the amounts bought.

Gov. Cox to Follow Roosevelt on Coast Speech-Making Trip

San Francisco, Aug. 10.—(U. N. S.)—Governor Cox will follow Roosevelt to the Pacific Coast. Senator Key Pittman, Western Democratic campaign manager, announced today. The Democratic presidential candidate will arrive in San Francisco early in September on an intensive campaign and stumping tour of the West, Pittman declared, and will make as many speeches as can be crowded into the itinerary.

The independent liberals in parliament also held a caucus and adopted a resolution calling on the government to take steps to establish a real general peace, but protesting against intervention in Poland in any form.

Tanks equipped with full length glass gauges have been designed to assure purchasers of motor boat fuel at supply stations that they are getting the amounts bought.

The independent liberals in parliament also held a caucus and adopted a resolution calling on the government to take steps to establish a real general peace, but protesting against intervention in Poland in any form.

Tanks equipped with full length glass gauges have been designed to assure purchasers of motor boat fuel at supply stations that they are getting the amounts bought.

The independent liberals in parliament also held a caucus and adopted a resolution calling on the government to take steps to establish a real general peace, but protesting against intervention in Poland in any form.

Tanks equipped with full length glass gauges have been designed to assure purchasers of motor boat fuel at supply stations that they are getting the amounts bought.

The independent liberals in parliament also held a caucus and adopted a resolution calling on the government to take steps to establish a real general peace, but protesting against intervention in Poland in any form.

Tanks equipped with full length glass gauges have been designed to assure purchasers of motor boat fuel at supply stations that they are getting the amounts bought.

The independent liberals in parliament also held a caucus and adopted a resolution calling on the government to take steps to establish a real general peace, but protesting against intervention in Poland in any form.

TAKES VACANT POST ON CITY DOCK BODY

Charles C. Hindman

HINDMAN ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT ON DOCK COMMISSION

Charles C. Hindman, secretary of the Dubois Lumber company and former deputy city attorney, Tuesday announced his acceptance of the post of member of the commission of public docks. This followed an announcement by Mayor Baker Monday night of the resignation of Ben Selling, a member of the commission since its organization.

Selling's resignation has been in the hands of the mayor for several days, the latter withholding acceptance in the hope of persuading him to reconsider. Press of private business and his already long service on the commission were given by Selling as reasons for withdrawal.

Although his letter of resignation made no mention of the proposed Swan Island harbor development, it is known that Selling is opposed to the investment.

Hindman for a time was assistant United States attorney, resigning to enter the employ of the city. He retired from public service some time ago to concentrate on his private practice and the work of the lumber company.

Baker announced that he had picked upon Hindman because of his intimate knowledge of harbor needs and because of his energy and progressiveness.

Recently patented, a doorknob which can be used in the dark is composed of a conical reflector coated with luminous paint and having a transparent cover.

STATE GAME LAW VIOLATORS TAKEN IN EXCITING CHASE

With a record of having made eight arrests of game law violators, which netted the state officers $335, F. M. Brown, chief deputy game warden, returned Monday after an exciting 16-day trip through the wildest sections of the Willamette valley and coast counties.

In company with Deputy Warden Hawker, Brown cruised over virtually all of the wild sections above Albany, Eugene and Salem the first week and spent the remainder of the time back of Heceta Head lighthouse on the Lane county coast.

On the Willamette valley trip Brown and Hawker arrested George Carlyle, S. L. Baxter and Albin Nottger for various offenses, their fines amounting to $190, $35 and $25 respectively.

NOTORIOUS BAND BROKEN UP From the valley Brown went to the Lane county coast and accompanied by Deputy Warden Emory spent eight days in breaking up a notorious deer killing band. Although the offenders were not aware that the wardens were in the territory, which they entered at night, their hiding places were so well concealed that for several days the wardens could find no trace of the band.

Finally they succeeded in arresting D. M. Kyle, Henry Burzman, Arthur Johnson, Eugene Hayward and Luther Stonefield of Florence. Kyle was a merchant and Burzman a banker at Florence and were fined $50 each, while the others were fined $25.

Berry Bray, who was arrested several months ago on charges of making "jerk" illegally from elk meat, was believed to be an active member of the gang and Brown discovered a new smoke house near his cabin capable of handling a ton of deer or elk meat.

HIDEN WITH WILD HONEY Although the wardens pursued their search vigorously Bray could not be found until after the trial. When he came into the town they were staying with a five gallon can of wild honey. The wardens were unable to prove Bray's complicity, but forest rangers made the suspect pay $40 for cutting down trees to obtain honey. The trees were on government reserve land.

Brown reports having seen a band of about 350 elk back of Heceta head and other kinds of game in abundance.

Bolsheviki Accused Of Leaving Murder Trail Among Reds

London, Aug. 10.—(U. P.)—The Bolsheviks are leaving a trail of murder and outrage in their advance, the Polish Red Cross charged today in a message to the League of Red Cross Societies.

Russian troops, the message said, were committing atrocities, pillaging, murdering civilians, outraging and slaughtering Polish Red Cross nurses and driving the wounded from the hospitals.

Advertisement for the movie 'Below the Surface' featuring Hobart Bosworth. The ad includes a large illustration of a woman in a boat and text describing the film as a daring under-water scene. It also mentions other movies like 'Monkey Business' and 'Chester Outing'.

Advertisement for Miller & Tracey funeral home. The ad includes the text 'Funerals for Less' and a phone number 'Main 2691 578-85'.