

LOCAL OFFICIALS PLAN AUXILIARY TO TOURIST BODY

A Portland auxiliary to the Northwest Tourist association was discussed at a meeting Monday afternoon, called by W. J. Hofmann, president of the association. J. P. Jaeger, Phil Metchan and Otto Mielke, directors of the association, locally resident, and representatives of business and civic interests were present. The conference was held in the Chamber of Commerce.

The question of caring for tourists was referred to the president's council of Portland's civic and business clubs for report.

The matter of an arrangement for Frank Branch Riley's next Eastern lecture tour was referred to a committee, composed of Mayor George L. Baker, Julius L. Meier and Joseph P. Jaeger. The question in respect to Riley is whether he will go out under the auspices of the tourist association again or with the support of an independent organization, representing Oregon and Washington.

Nearly all present agreed to be present at a Tuesday meeting of the state highway commission in order to urge the permanent improvement of the Medford-Crater lake highway. This question as to what should be done locally to assure the provision of satisfactory hotel facilities at Crater lake was among those questions referred to the president's council. Stephen Mather, director of national parks, has announced that the present hotel administration in the park cannot continue.

Milton Lodge Asks Water Be Provided For Its Cemetery

Salem, Aug. 10.—Milton lodge No. 61, I. O. O. F. of Milton, Or., has filed application with the state engineer's office here for permission to appropriate water from the Walla Walla river for use in the irrigation of a cemetery.

Other applications for water rights have been filed as follows:

By S. B. Ball of Hood River, for the appropriation of water from a spring for domestic supply.

By Nannie M. Horn of Elgin, Or., covering the appropriation of water from Indian creek for domestic use and the irrigation of 165 acres in Union county.

By C. A. Macrum of Mosier, covering the appropriation of water from Mosier creek for the irrigation of 23 acres in Wasco county.

By William B. Welch of Wellen, Or., covering the appropriation of water from a spring and tributary of Yankee creek for domestic use and the irrigation of an acre of land in Jackson county.

Water Users Not To Be Deprived of Their Privileges

Salem, Aug. 10.—Irrigation districts in Oregon do not possess the power to deprive property-owners of the use of water for the failure to pay assessments, according to an opinion prepared by Attorney General Brown for State Engineer Capper. To sustain such a power would be to sustain the right of the district, in many instances, to deprive a struggling property-owner of a chance to make good in developing arid lands, the attorney general holds. The state law, the opinion cites, makes provision for the collection of assessments against property in irrigation districts, which are treated as other taxes against the property and subject to tax sale if not paid within three years.

Marshfield Chamber Of Commerce Honors Sen. Chamberlain

Marshfield, Aug. 10.—United States Senator George Chamberlain, accompanied by Ralph Watson and D. E. McPherson, arrived in Marshfield Monday afternoon, after a delightful and trip up the coast through Curry county. The senator will be entertained here and will be given opportunity to visit the entrance of the harbor and the bar. The Chamber of Commerce will arrange his entertainment.

HARDING TAKES UP CAMPAIGN ISSUES WITH MANAGERS

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 10.—(I. N. S.)—Various phases of the campaign were to be gone over today here by Senator Warren G. Harding, National Chairman Will H. Hays and Harry M. Daugherty, Senator Harding's pre-convention campaign manager and chief lieutenant.

Hays was to stop off here for a few hours on his way from New York city to Chicago to submit to the senator reports of recent developments in the political situation in the East. It was said at the Harding headquarters the coming of the national chairman possessed no unusual significance. Hays expected to swing at frequent intervals between New York city and Chicago, spending a week at the Republican national headquarters in each city and dropping off here on his way each time from one city to the other that he might confer personally with Senator Harding.
