

Open Air Religious Services to Be Held at Washington Park Sunday Afternoon

CITY FEDERATION OF CHURCHES TO HOLD PARK MEET

Washington park Sunday will again be the scene of the outdoor services conducted by the Portland City Federation, which, through the liberal exploitation of the Journal, have drawn many hundreds of people.

The very Rev. R. T. Hicks, dean of the pro-cathedral of St. Stephen the Martyr, will be the preacher. The Rev. H. H. Griffith of the First Christian church will preside, and the Rev. Byron J. Clark of the First United Brethren church will participate in the services.

The meeting Sunday, August 22, will be in Peninsula park.

Starting four weeks ago, these meetings were conspicuously heralded by the Journal, and as a result, according to the park keepers, more people visited Laurelhurst park that Sunday than ever before.

Certainty Phases of Religion Theme

"Absolute Christian Certainties" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Harold H. Griffith on Sunday, at 11 o'clock, at the First Christian church. Notwithstanding that the realm of religion is more or less a realm of mystery, the pastor is convinced that there are certain religious propositions of which we can be absolutely sure, and that these absolute verities are revolutionary for personal faith.
