

TYSON FINDS COX IS GAINING FROM COAST TO COAST

Prominent New York Attorney Declares League of Nations Dominant Issue in the East.

Governor Cox is certain to carry New York city by a big plurality at the presidential election in November, according to Frank L. Tyson, former judge in Brooklyn and now a prominent attorney of the metropolis, who is visiting friends and relatives here this week. Tyson bases his prediction on the popularity of Governor Smith of New York, a strong supporter of Cox and the Democratic party platform.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS IS THE DOMINANT POLITICAL ISSUE IN THE EAST, TYSON AVERS.

"It is notable that among opponents of the league in New York are all those men who were under surveillance or indictment during the war for pro-German sympathies," said Tyson. "Some of those loudest in condemnation of the covenant are those very men who have their followers, of course. I am not including in that category the many whose opposition is the result of sincere conviction but the fact just stated is to my mind most significant."

"Generally the men in the street favor the league and feel that opposition to it is fostered by politicians who are endeavoring to blind the public to the administration's excellent conduct of the war by centering criticism on the League of Nations covenant and the treaty of peace. This opinion seems to be general throughout the East and Middle West."

BELIEVE HARDING REACTIONARY

"In low leaders of the old progressive party favor the election of Cox because they believe Harding, if elected, would be controlled by Lodge, Smoot, Frazier and other old guard Republicans and consider only the interests of his standpat friends. Cox is also popular in Denver and will without doubt carry the state of Colorado," said Tyson.

"California progressives are divided in their allegiance to Johnson and their strong advocacy of the League of Nations. Cox is popular with San Francisco labor leaders, and with Johnson's lukewarm support of the Republican nominee it is not at all improbable that Cox will carry that state."

Tyson came to the coast after an extensive journey through the states of the Atlantic seaboard and Mississippi valley.

"The public feeling toward the election is one of apathy," he said. "Economic problems and the high cost of living are of greater interest than politics and the 1920 election will probably break all records for a light ballot."

proof that she was publicly charged with being a "notorious woman."

REPUDIATES WOMAN'S BIBLE

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Suffrage association, who for the most part has maintained silence, issued an emphatic denial that she had any part in preparing and circulating the "woman's bible," as the anti-suffragists have charged.

After declaring she had never had anything to do with the "woman's bible" and had never favored its publication, Mrs. Catt said that "continued publication of the false assertion can only be interpreted as intentional and malicious." There has been talk that anti-suffragists might endeavor to prevent action in the house by remaining away and destroying a quorum, but leaders asserted they were willing to "fight it out" and were not afraid to meet the question openly.

REPLIES TO PRESIDENT

Seth M. Walker, speaker of the house and an opponent of suffrage, replied today to President Wilson's telegram urging concurrence of the house in the senate's action. Walker said:

"I have the profound honor to acknowledge your wire of August 13. I do not attempt to express the views of other members of the lower house of Tennessee, but speak for myself alone, which on the Anthony amendment are contrary to yours. You were too great to ask it and I don't believe that men of Tennessee will surrender honest convictions for political expediency or harmony."

DANIELS ADDS INFLUENCE IN FIGHT FOR SUFFRAGE IN N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 14.—Joseph

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES IN ACTION

Above—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president, speaking at the ratification ceremonies at the Roosevelt home, Hyde Park, New York. Many distinguished men and women were present. Secretary Daniels was on hand to cheer for his former aide. Below—Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, Democratic candidate for president, and his running mate, Franklin D. Roosevelt, leading the Cox notification parade through the streets of Dayton to the fair grounds where ceremonies were held.

Daniels, secretary of navy, threw his influence today into the battle to have the North Carolina legislature ratify the federal amendment, granting suffrage to women.

He talked to both suffrage advocates and anti.

After he left the capital the suffragists said the cause had been aided, but opponents said Daniels had failed to convince them and that they resented the efforts of national leaders in a local fight.

No action is expected until Tuesday or Wednesday. The anti's have started a movement to have action delayed until it is found how the Tennessee legislature votes.

William H. Williamson, president of the State Rights Defense league, today sent the following telegram to the president of a similar league in Tennessee.

"We are going to win in spite of the pressure from the White House, the United States senate, Dayton, Ohio, and the secretary of the navy. If this crime is perpetrated, let the blame not be placed on North Carolina or her daughter, Tennessee. Fight to the last ditch, and then some."

Colby and Baker to Make Speeches for Cox and Roosevelt

New York, Aug. 14.—(I. N. S.)—Two more speakers were added to lists of the Democratic national committee today, when it was announced that Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, would be sent on a trip from coast to coast to make a series of Cox and Roosevelt speeches. Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, also has sent the committee notification that he is ready to speak.

William Jennings Bryan so far has not made known his intentions with regard to the national campaign, but Senator Pat Harrison, director of the public speakers' bureau, said he believed Bryan soon would agree to stump the country.

Former Ambassador Gerard today had a conference with Harrison, and it was inferred that he also might be drafted.

William G. McAdoo, formerly a member of President Wilson's cabinet, today sent Seth Walker, speaker of the Tennessee house of representatives a telegram urging him to do all in his power to get ratification of the suffrage amendment in that body.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson To Make Permanent Home in Washington

Washington, Aug. 14.—It is quite possible that the president will make Washington his permanent home after March 4. It is reported that he and Mrs. Wilson will occupy the charming colonial mansion known as the Noursemanse, "North of Friendship," the late John R. McLean's show place. Noursemanse was purchased several months ago by Admiral Cary Grayson, the president's physician, but was never occupied by him.

At the time of the purchase it was reported that Grayson was merely an agent for the president.

Republicans Invaded By Radical Forces

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 14.—(I. N. S.)—The Non-partisan league, the Railwaymen's Welfare league, the committee of 48 and other radical organizations invaded the Republican party here today, when they filed a complete state, senatorial, legislative and county ticket.

PAMPHLET GIVES DISCUSSION ON PROPOSED LAWS

Official Booklet of State Presents Views Pro and Con on Bills to Be Voted on in November.

Proposed constitutional amendments and measures to be submitted to Oregon voters at the general election, November 2, are discussed pro and con in an official pamphlet just issued by Secretary of State Sam A. Koser.

The pamphlet presents reviews of each of the measures, with arguments for and against their enactment. Two of the proposals presented were referred to the people by the legislature: one is a referendum measure on public petition, and eight are initiative petition measures.

The proposed measures, with the source of their favor and disapproval are:

Compulsory voting and registration amendment, submitted by the legislature, which would require all eligible persons to register and vote. An affirmative argument is submitted by the joint senate and house committee.

WOULD REGULATE LEGISLATURE

Constitutional amendment regulating legislative sessions and the payment of legislators, submitted by the legislature for the purpose of limiting the regular biennial sessions to 60 working days and extra sessions to 20 days, and regulating the introduction of bills after the fortieth day of the session. Affirmative argument offered by senate-house joint committee.

Oleomargarine bill, on the ballot by referendum petition, proposing to regulate and license the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and like products, including renovated butter. No arguments.

Single tax constitutional amendment, proposed by initiative petition, to assess all taxes necessary upon the value of land itself, irrespective of improvements. Affirmative argument by Oregon Single Tax league, Christina H. Mock, secretary.

tary; negative argument by Oregon State Chamber of Commerce.

Constitutional amendment fixing term of certain county officers, for the purpose of providing for election of county clerk, treasurer, sheriff, coroner and surveyor, who shall hold office for four years instead of two years. Affirmative argument by R. J. Green and Herbert R. Dewar.

ALMS AT VACCINATION

Anti-compulsory vaccination amendment shall be made a prerequisite to admission to school, employment or pleasure. Affirmative argument by Public School Protective league.

Constitutional amendment fixing legal rate of interest in Oregon by specifying 4 per cent per annum as a maximum except by contract stipulation, which may raise the limit to 5 per cent, and no more, on express agreement, which rates shall be inclusive of brokerage and commissions. Negative arguments by M. L. Jones, Oregon State bankers' association, Oregon State Chamber of Commerce.

Roosevelt bird refuge measure to create a refuge for wild birds within Malheur lake reservation in Harney county. Affirmative argument by Roosevelt Bird Refuge association, John Gill, president.

Constitutional amendment for divided legislative session, which would create one session of 40 days for presentation of bills and a 10 day session for their consideration and enactment or rejection. No arguments.

State market commission act, proposing to establish office of state market director at $4500 a year and assistant to aid in regulation of markets, prices, distribution, etc. A negative argument is submitted by the committee opposed to market agent bill, W. H. Trindle, secretary.

Report She Favored Inter-Race Marriages Denied by Mrs. Catt

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 14.—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman's Suffrage association, replying to the attack made upon her by Senator H. M. Chandler of Athens, expressed herself as follows: "It is an absolute fabrication that I have at any time advocated marriage between the white and negro races. Furthermore, I believe it to be an absolute crime against nature."

INSTITUTES FOR STATE TEACHERS ARE ANNOUNCED

In Clackamas county the teachers' training school now in session, August 2 to 20, is substituted for the annual institute. The Lincoln county institute was held in April.

With one or two exceptions all of the institutes will be held at the county seats of the various counties.

The dates for the annual meeting of the state teachers' association have been set for December 29, 30 and 31.

Shot Son For Burglar

Marion, Ill., Aug. 14.—(I. N. S.)—Mistaking his 3-year-old son for a burglar, James Finney shot and killed the child. The boy had arisen to get a drink and the father, hearing a noise, shot into the darkness. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental killing.
