

PLINGS CLOSED FOR PUBLIC OFFICE IN WASHINGTON

Last Minute Rush Sees J. W. Bryan Just Too Late to Get Place on Ballot.

Olympia, Wash., Aug. 14.—(U. P.)—With seven seeking to be the Republican nominee for governor and five more would-be lieutenant governors listed in the fight in the state of Washington this year will be the hottest on record.

When the office of the secretary of state closed at noon today complete tickets had been filed by the Republican party and by the Democrats with the exception of congressmen in the second district and for state auditor.

LAST MINUTE INCIDENT

A last minute incident at Olympia which created a great deal of gossip at the capitol and which has a non-partisan feature occurred when J. W. Bryan, former member of congress and former state senator from Kilgus, Mason and Island counties, arrived at the secretary of state's office just after 12 o'clock and attempted to file a declaration of candidacy for state senator. His filing was refused despite Bryan's vehement protest, by Secretary of State J. Grant Binkle, who declared the office had closed. Bryan refused to state whether he planned to file his own candidacy or that of State Senator Peter Iversen, who has been anxious to succeed himself.

FOR MAJOR OFFICES

The full list of candidates who had filed before noon today were:

- United States Senator—Republican: Wesley L. Jones, Seattle; Frank Erickson, Everett; Forest L. Hudson, Seattle; W. M. Inglis, Seattle. Democrat: George W. Cotterill, Seattle.
- Congressman first district—Republican: John P. Miller, Seattle; Frank Pierce, Harp; H. Alvin Moore, Seattle. Democrat: Hugh C. Todd, Seattle.
- Congressman second district—Republican: Lindley H. Hadley, Bellingham. Democrat: none.
- Congressman third district—Republican: Albert Johnson, Hoquiam. Democrat: George F. Egan, Bellingham.
- Congressman fourth district—Republican: John W. Summers, Walla Walla; Dick Brown, Elsieburg. Democrat: Fred Miller, Colfax.
- Congressman fifth district—Republican: Stanley Wheeler, Spokane; Thomas Choker, Spokane. Democrat: C. A. Fleming, Spokane.
- Governor—Republican: John Stricker, Seattle; Roland H. Hartley, Everett; Edwin T. Coman, Spokane; Louis P. Hart, Tacoma; J. A. Gellatly, Wenatchee; George E. Lambing, Seattle; Angus MacEachron, Seattle. Democrat: Edward T. Mathes, Bellingham; I. E. O'Hara, Seattle; A. E. Judd, Chehalis; W. W. Black, Everett.
- Lieutenant governor—Republican: Edward L. French, Vancouver; Harve Ford, Phoebe, Spokane. Democrat: John L. Sharpstein, Walla Walla. Democrat: Catherine Montegomery, Bellingham.

HARDING TALK TO EDITORS CALLED FLAT

(Continued From Page One.)

pression of conserving his energy for final moments of the campaign when the advertising and publicity of campaigns will be going at full blast.

WOULD DO BETTER

Anybody who knows Harding would admit that the senator could have made a better speech which would have thrilled the editors of Ohio, than he did by reading a series of generalities that drew at the end only perfunctory applause and never a cheer louder than a handclap.

But the Republican candidate said a few words about the newspaper situation, commended the influence of the press, discoursed on honesty and freedom of the press. It made little difference, however, what he said, for the editors were striding for Harding, ready to boost him any day and night with the publicity which a score of press managers told them would flow into their offices from now until the end of the campaign.

Very little money, it was announced, would be available for paid advertising, but then, the editors were told no such push fund as Jimmy Cox had been talking about was available and that the Republican party depended upon the editors to do their share nevertheless in electing the national and state tickets.

EDITORS MARCH TO LAWS

It was a quiet midsummer afternoon on the front porch when the Republican editors arrived. Only the whir of a half dozen typewriters in an adjoining building disturbed the peacefulness of Mount Vernon avenue. The editors marched in a procession of twos from the porch at the Masonic temple to the Harding home. They gathered on the white lawn and came the senator, his iron gray hair glistening in the sun.

If you have not recently called the Atiyeh exhibits of rare

Oriental Rugs

—you will be surprised and delighted with their marvelous beauty, the immensity of assortments and the savings we make possible.

Atiyeh Bros.

Alder at Tenth.

NEIBERLING-LUCAS MUSIC CO.

1257 FOURTH STREET PORTLAND'S BIG MUSIC STORE

BOY IS SHOT WHILE HUNTING

Accidental Discharge of Gun of Mansford Brittain Kills Melvin Olinger.

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 14.—A wild ride in an automobile down the west slope of the Blue mountains from the depths of the Wenaha national forest proved to be futile to save the life of Melvin Olinger, 13-year-old son of Jasper Olinger, of Milton, Ore.

Young Olinger was shot through the heart by Mansford Brittain, a boy companion, while the two were hunting squirrels near Salings camp, 20 miles east of Milton.

The elder Olinger had charge of a camping party composed of his four young sons, the Brittain boy and Roy Kicker, all Milton youths, and the shooting occurred when young Olinger was looking up into a tree and Brittain was loading his .22 calibre rifle.

The Brittain boy's rifle was accidentally discharged, the bullet entering Olinger's left side and penetrating his heart, killing him instantly.

The father, thinking him only unconscious, drove to Milton in an effort to save the boy's life, only to find that his efforts had been in vain.

In other words, the Republicans believe the campaign will be one of repudiation of things Wilsonian rather than any special affirmation of Harding. The whole attitude is that Cox has such a big handicap to overcome that he will be butting against a stone wall.

The Ohio editors in private conversation confirmed a good deal of this so far as Republican expectations are concerned. Some declined to admit that Ohio is alone. Others, more conservative, said it was close today, but wouldn't be on election day.

RAIN MULTIPLY NORTHWEST WHEAT

(Continued From Page One.)

his regiments after the horrors of the retreat of 1913 of the Roumanian army. It was then that he fell madly in love with Mile Jeanne Lambrino, a fair daughter of Roumania.

The marriage which occurred August 27, 1913, failed to meet the approval of the king because the young woman was not of royal stock. A tremendous discussion of the marriage followed. The king had about decided to allow succession of the throne to go to the next son but Queen Marie prevailed in her plea for leniency and at the king's instigation the Roumanian courts issued a decree annulling the marriage.

Before the war it was planned that Prince Carol should marry Grand Duchess Olga, eldest daughter of the then Czar of Russia. He was very young and his affections were not involved in that scheme.

Prince Carol was deeply in love with his bride and finally the royal family decided to send him upon a long journey in an effort to turn his mind to other affairs.

The trip has been a hurried one. The prince will have to no reception while in this country and during his visit here he will be informally the guest of the chamber of commerce.

Since leaving Roumania the prince has visited a number of foreign lands. He first visited Egypt, where he was received by General Allenby, on whom he conferred a Roumanian military decoration. From Egypt the prince and his suite went on a British battleship to India, where he was received by Lord Chelmsford, viceroy.

Then the party went to Japan, where a royal welcome was given them. He carried a personal message from his father, the king of Roumania, to the emperor of Japan, upon whom he conferred the highest Roumanian order, the Order of Carl. A truly royal reception was given the prince on the eve of his departure from Japan.

Former Classmates At Berkeley Wed In San Francisco

Miss Hazel Havermale, daughter of Lewis Havermale of the Oregon Journal staff, and sister of Homer Havermale, manager of the Portland branch of the H. K. McCann company, was married Saturday afternoon in San Francisco to John R. Bruce, a member of the San Francisco Examiner staff.

They will reside in Berkeley, Cal. Both are graduates of the University of California of the class of 1916. Mrs. Bruce having been the first woman editor of the Occident, the university literary magazine. For several years she was engaged in literary work, having been on the staff of the Los Angeles Times and a magazine writer of short stories and poems. Recently she has been engaged in the Red Cross work at San Francisco. Bruce is a returned service man and recently was secretary of the World Trade conference which held its sessions at San Francisco and which was attended by numerous Portland business men.

Multnomah Polo Team Plays to Draw With Victoria Swimmers

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 14.—The Multnomah club's water polo team will have to play again here before the championship of the Pacific Northwest is finally decided. This evening, after defeating one Victoria team 7 to 1 in a preliminary heat, they played a hot and exciting game against another Victoria team to a draw of four goals all, the last goal being scored a minute from time after Portland had led 3 to 1 at half time.

Railway Clerks to Hold Annual Picnic At Canemah Park

Members of the express division of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Williamette Lodge No. 2210, will hold their annual picnic at Canemah park next Sunday, according to arrangements which were made several weeks ago. Special entertainments are being made by a special committee headed by H. E. Harrison.

Sport events, a baseball game and dancing after an evening will be features of the picnic. Music will be furnished by Gibson's orchestra. Prizes will be awarded for special events. A special train will leave East Water and Morrison streets at 9:30 a. m., arriving at the park at 10:30 a. m.

Returning, the special train will leave the park at 8:30 p. m., arriving in Portland at 9:30 p. m. Notices of the picnic have been sent to every express employee in the state and a large outside attendance is anticipated.

France Is Sending Support to Wrangel

Paris, Aug. 14.—(U. P.)—France has already set several warships in motion against the Bolsheviks in line with her policy of supporting General Wrangel, Cretian anti-Red leader. Three cruisers have been sent to Odessa to protect French seamen at that port, which is held by the soviet, and a scout ship has been dispatched to Constantinople to await Wrangel's orders. Wrangel is reported to have taken the aggressive attitude and has routed the Bolshevik thirteenth army.

Man Lured to Dark Spot and Robbed of $125 by Mexicans

Lured to a dark spot in the railroad yards near the Union depot by three Mexicans who promised to sell him some hashbush, G. H. Vargas was strong armed and robbed of $125 and three gold rings Friday night, he reported to the police.

Inspectors Tichener and Abbott Saturday night arrested John Grego, Grego Venero and John Ferrino, who were identified by Vargas as the trio who robbed him. Grego was released from

City Officials Reveal Their Real Names in Burst of Confidence

Deep family secrets of the city commissioners were discussed at the council meeting Saturday morning during a lull in business while the mayor and three of his four stallions sat fanning themselves.

"You know, they named me after Honest Abe," said Commissioner Barbur, whose initials, publicly at least, are A. L. "But the A in that doesn't stand for Abraham, it's for Asbury. And the G stands for Gibbs, the governor of Oregon when I was born."

"Where have you got an initial G?" asked Baker. "I never saw it on anything."

"I don't use the G," replied Barbur, "but it's there just the same. My full name is Asbury Lincoln Gibbs Barbur." "Who's the oldest man in the council?" asked someone. The honor was unan-

Bryan Will Support Cox, White's 'Hunch'

New York, Aug. 14.—(U. P.)—William J. Bryan may be soon working for the election of Governor Cox, according to a "hunch" of George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee tonight.

"I am firm in the belief that Mr. Bryan will wholeheartedly support Governor Cox and the Democratic platform," said White. "My belief is not based on logical reasoning, but on a hunch I received."

Balkan Prince Coming, Train Late, Plans Off

(Continued From Page One.)

his regiments after the horrors of the retreat of 1913 of the Roumanian army. It was then that he fell madly in love with Mile Jeanne Lambrino, a fair daughter of Roumania.

The marriage which occurred August 27, 1913, failed to meet the approval of the king because the young woman was not of royal stock. A tremendous discussion of the marriage followed. The king had about decided to allow succession of the throne to go to the next son but Queen Marie prevailed in her plea for leniency and at the king's instigation the Roumanian courts issued a decree annulling the marriage.

Before the war it was planned that Prince Carol should marry Grand Duchess Olga, eldest daughter of the then Czar of Russia. He was very young and his affections were not involved in that scheme.

Prince Carol was deeply in love with his bride and finally the royal family decided to send him upon a long journey in an effort to turn his mind to other affairs.

The trip has been a hurried one. The prince will have to no reception while in this country and during his visit here he will be informally the guest of the chamber of commerce.

Since leaving Roumania the prince has visited a number of foreign lands. He first visited Egypt, where he was received by General Allenby, on whom he conferred a Roumanian military decoration. From Egypt the prince and his suite went on a British battleship to India, where he was received by Lord Chelmsford, viceroy.

Then the party went to Japan, where a royal welcome was given them. He carried a personal message from his father, the king of Roumania, to the emperor of Japan, upon whom he conferred the highest Roumanian order, the Order of Carl. A truly royal reception was given the prince on the eve of his departure from Japan.

Knabe Wonderful Value $525

Knabe Wonderful Value $525

Guild Good Practice Piano $135

Guild Good Practice Piano $135

F. Radle, $385 Cannot Be Told From New

F. Radle, $385 Cannot Be Told From New

Hobart M. Cable Almost Like New, $375

Hobart M. Cable Almost Like New, $375

City Officials Reveal Their Real Names in Burst of Confidence

Deep family secrets of the city commissioners were discussed at the council meeting Saturday morning during a lull in business while the mayor and three of his four stallions sat fanning themselves.

"You know, they named me after Honest Abe," said Commissioner Barbur, whose initials, publicly at least, are A. L. "But the A in that doesn't stand for Abraham, it's for Asbury. And the G stands for Gibbs, the governor of Oregon when I was born."

"Where have you got an initial G?" asked Baker. "I never saw it on anything."

"I don't use the G," replied Barbur, "but it's there just the same. My full name is Asbury Lincoln Gibbs Barbur." "Who's the oldest man in the council?" asked someone. The honor was unan-

Burglar Steals $7 From Grocery Store

A. J. Hockinson, proprietor of the H. & H. grocery store at 561 Unatilla avenue, reported to Patrolman Wilson Saturday night that his store was entered Friday and $7 in small change was stolen.

During the month of July, $800 auto tourists camped at the Cottage Grove camp grounds.

RIOTING BREAKS AFRESH IN DUBLIN

Dublin, Aug. 14.—(U. P.)—Rioting broke out here tonight when a crowd of armed men boarded street cars to seek out soldiers. The soldiers fought back in hand to hand frays.

Armored cars appeared and firing volleyed over the heads of the crowd, dispersed it. It later reassembled, however, but without further trouble.

Davidson Comes to Advertising Staff of Western Farmer

J. A. Davidson, for 12 years a member of the advertising staff of The Farmer of St. Paul, Minn., has joined the organization of the Western Farmer, at Portland, and will be manager of that paper's advertisers service bureau.

The St. Paul Farmer is one of the largest agricultural journals of the central states and its advertising department has done notable work in compiling and distributing agricultural and sales statistics. Davidson had charge of this work for The Farmer and will do work of a similar nature for Western Farmer. He has been for several years a member of both the Town Criers Advertising club of St. Paul and the Advertising forum of Minneapolis.

Open Evenings During Sale

Bush & Lane Piano Co.

Announces

To Home Makers, to Home Owners, to Parents with Growing Children; to Young Couples just starting out in life, and to any others to whom a piano is a necessity yet who are restricted by a limited income

ITS GREAT ANNUAL Sale of Used Upright, Grand and Player Pianos

Starts Tomorrow

YOU, no doubt, have been intending to buy a piano or player piano soon or within the next few months—perhaps even in the next few years. If so, here is a large stock of slightly used instruments at prices you cannot resist. And terms cut in half!

Such prices will take you back in memory to the piano-buying days of ten or twelve years ago. Here are prices bound to interest everyone who is thinking of buying an instrument, especially those who are familiar with present-day prices of the makes such as are mentioned here.

Many of these pianos and player pianos—some almost new—are of the world's best makes. They come to us from homes of the better class and whose owners have given them in exchange, as part payment for new instruments.

They comprise such well-known makes as the Knabe, Bush & Lane, Chickering & Sons, Hobart M. Cable, Pease, Victor, Radle, Farrand and many others.

How Can We Sell at Such Low Prices?

This question has been asked us at former sales. Answer: FIRST—Our policy is that of selling at actual cost to us the instruments taken in exchange, we being satisfied with the profit made on the sale of the new instruments on which these were taken as part payment.

SECOND—Largest volume of sales in the shortest possible time, eliminating expense.

Our Advice: When stencil pianos are selling these days by certain houses throughout the country as high as $525, surely it is better to buy a fine used Piano of such well-known makes as these offered in this sale.

Our Guarantee: of exchange, allowing all money paid, any time within six months, on any new Piano of equal or higher price, makes it positive that these are Wonderful Values.

TERMS CUT IN HALF DURING SALE

New Standard Make Player Pianos, $625 Up—New Standard Make Pianos, $450 Up.

Bush & Lane Piano Co.

Home of the Famous Cecilian BUSH & LANE BUILDING, BROADWAY AT ALDER

This Beautiful Nearly New Bush & Lane Grand $1175

We Do As We Advertise

Bring This Ad With You

Wellington Splendid Tone $335

Farrand Player Piano Almost Like New, $675

Open Evenings During Sale