'FOLLOW ROAD TO FOREST GROVE,' IS ENDEAVOR SLOGAN

"Follow the Road to Forest Grove." Such is the slogan of the Oregon Christian Endeavor union which will hold its summer conference on the Pacific university campus August 30 to September 6.

The gathering is advertised as a "Worthwhile Vacation," in which Christian training and wholesome recreation will receive equal attention. Young people from all over the state have signified their intention of attending for the full time, and a hundred or more Portland Endeavorers are expected for the Labor day week-end. The morning class work will be under the instruction of able state leaders; prominent speakers have been secured for the evening addresses. Paul Brown, the well known California field secretary, is one of the chief attractions on the program.

Miss Faye Steinmetz, president of the Oregon C. E. Union, says: "This is the biggest thing we have yet attempted. Oregon Endeavorers must unite with their leaders in making our conference a success." Lloyd R. Carrick, Oregon field secretary, says: "If interested in Christian things, eight days spent at our summer conference will teach you how to make Christian endeavor a practical asset in your everyday life. Meet me at Forest Grove."
