

Portland Sees Vacationists Return Home

THE vanguard of seashore, mountain and country visitors is already returning in small numbers to the city. In another fortnight many of the hundreds of Portlanders who have been seeking rest and recreation of the mind and body, where the ocean breeze blows or in the shade of the firs and pines, will again be established in their homes in Portland, ready for what promises to be an active and interesting season.

Of the many out-of-town visitors, who have shared the hospitality of Portland relatives and friends for the past few weeks, none have been more delightfully entertained than Mrs. Carlton W. Betts (Ruth Teal), who will leave Wednesday for her home in New York city. Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Mrs. Betts were at home in an entirely informal manner, Friday afternoon, at their home on Kings street to a dozen or more friends who dropped in to say good bye to Mrs. Betts. A number of delightful affairs are planned in her honor early in the week.

Mrs. John Forest Dickson was hostess at a beautiful luncheon given Wednesday at Forest hall in compliment to Mrs. Carlton W. Betts (Ruth Teal), who is leaving this week for her home in New York City. Covers were placed for Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Charles T. Donworth, Mrs. Maurice Dooley, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Elsie Collingwood of New Britain, Conn., Miss Lillian Moss of Berkeley, Cal., and the hostess.

Miss Virginia McDonough, who, in company with Eastern friends, has been touring Europe since May, has returned to this country and is expected to reach Portland today. She will be accompanied home by Miss Vida Dodge, one of the party who was with her abroad. Mrs. G. C. von Escholtz has issued invitations to a large bridge tea to be given Wednesday in honor of her daughter and her guest.

Mrs. Richard W. Childs of the Hotel Portland entertained with two tables of bridge Thursday afternoon in her apartments, followed by tea served in the grill. The guests were limited to friends who formerly resided in Idaho and now live in Portland.

Miss Rhoda Rumelin and Mrs. Kathryn Hoyt will entertain with a tea for Mrs. Carlton Walter Betts, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. E. H. Brooks and Miss Genevieve Brook left today for an outing at Neah-Kah-Nie.

MRS. JOHN H. BLACKBURN, wife of Captain Blackburn, U. S. N., who has returned to her home in California after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Blagen; Miss Lillian Crozman (Mrs. Charles Sinclair), who is here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crozman.

Dinner in Honor Of Mrs. Betts Is Highly Enjoyed

ONE of the largest and most delightful affairs of the week was the dinner given Saturday at the Waverley club by Miss Genevieve Brooks in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Walter Betts (Ruth Teal), who are leaving Wednesday for their home in New York city, and Mrs. Charles T. Donworth (Evelyn Carey), who is here from Seattle visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey. The table was beautiful in a large hall filled with old fashioned flowers and ferns. Following dinner the guests joined in the weekly dance held at the club house.

Covers were placed for: Mr. and Mrs. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Bidle, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squire, Mrs. Donworth, Dr. Harry Huntington, Charles Holbrook, John Kerr, John Watsick, Gerald Scoy Smith, Miss Rhoda Rumelin, Miss Kathryn Hart and the hostess.

A jolly party of Reed college young people left Portland Saturday at noon for the foot of Mount Hood, expecting to climb the mountain today. Those in the party are: Misses Margaret Scott, Clara Elliot, Polly Kerr, Margaret Scott, Louise Huntley, Virginia Wells, Ruth Plummer, Milton Bosworth and Jimmy Meese. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Evans will chaperone the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley and their daughter, Mrs. McDonald Mayer, who is spending the summer with them, have returned from Rhododendron, where they spent the past few weeks. Mrs. Mayer will remain in Portland until October, when she will join Mr. Mayer in Milwaukee, which city will be their home in the future.

One of the interesting weddings of the week will be that of Miss Marian Spoor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Spoor, to Frederick Ingalls Sipp, which will take place Saturday evening. The wedding will take place at the bride's home and will be witnessed only by intimate friends.

The marriage of Miss Helen Louise Lamar and Mrs. Francis Berkey will take place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lamar. A large number of beautiful social affairs have filled the interim between the announcement of the engagement and the marriage of these popular young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Hart entertained with a small but none the less delightful supper and dance Saturday evening at their home on Riverside drive for a dozen friends of Miss Alice Cole, who is the guest of Mrs. William C. Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laod Corbett, who are spending some time at their ranch near Metolus in Eastern Oregon, are entertaining a house party of Portland guests over the week-end.

Mrs. George Knight Clark will leave early in October for Canada to visit her sister and on October 25 her marriage will take place there to P. T. Hannigan of this city.

The Pythian Sisters announce a moonlight excursion and dance Thursday evening, September 2. The boat will leave the west approach of the Morrison street bridge at 8:30.

Mrs. Mary Scarborough entertained with a delightfully informal supper party at her home on Riverside drive Wednesday evening.

Miss Myrtle McLean entertained Wednesday evening with a card party and miscellaneous show in honor of Miss Marian Spoor, one of the popular summer brides.

Mrs. Frank E. Hart and Mrs. Frank V. DeMont of New York returned Thursday evening from Europe, where they spent a week.

Mrs. Paul E. Wolf, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lawrence R. Wheeler, and Mrs. Virginia Corbett for several weeks, will leave this week for her home in Philadelphia.

Popular Couple Give Out News Of Engagement

THE engagement of Miss Anna Finley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Finley, to Franklin A. Kenny has been announced. Both young people are exceedingly popular and a number of happy social affairs have already been given for them. The wedding will take place early in September.

In honor of Miss Finley a large and beautifully appointed luncheon was given Thursday by Miss Jessie Farrell, Mrs. Frederick Cookman and Mrs. E. Youngson. The table was decorated in garden flowers, and covers were laid for Miss Finley, Mrs. J. P. Finley, Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Mrs. Rucker of Oakland, Mrs. Barnhart, Mrs. William L. Finley, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Luther Steele, Mrs. John Bennett, Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. Julius Allen, Mrs. Samuel Connell, Mrs. David Muir, Mrs. Alexander Muir and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe have returned from Southern Oregon where they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Effingham Sutton of San Francisco, who were returning home after visiting Portland friends. The party spent two days in Medford, the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown Jr., who formerly resided in Portland, and Mrs. Brown gave a delightful supper-dance in their honor. Other Portland guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sharp. Crater lake was visited, and from there Mr. and Mrs. Beebe returned home by way of Marafield, Bend and Gold Beach. They were absent 15 days, camping the entire time.

Mrs. Holt C. Wilson entertained Wednesday with a small luncheon at the Waverley Country club in honor of Miss Alice R. Cole of Boston, who is the house guest of Mrs. William C. Alford. Covers were placed for Miss Cole, Miss Alford, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. George F. Wilson, Mrs. Samuel M. Meigs, Mrs. H. L. Mather and the hostess. The table was centered with a basket of zinnias.

Mrs. Folger Johnson was hostess at an informal luncheon at Alexandra Court Saturday in honor of Mrs. MacDonald of New York, who is the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bradley. Covers were placed for 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe returned Thursday from Ellensburg, Wash., where they were guests of Mrs. Labbe's mother, and on Friday they left for Seaside for the week-end.

Miss Edna Groves, who has spent the summer in New York city, where she has taken post graduate work at Columbia, is now visiting friends in Hillsboro, Ore. She will return to Portland about September 1.

Miss Clara Corbett, a popular Kappa Gamma girl, is here from McMinville and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Leo J. Mitchell. Many delightful affairs have been given in her honor.

Mrs. William D. Wheelwright will entertain Monday afternoon with two tables of bridge in compliment to Mrs. David Munro, who is here from the east for a visit with her daughter, Thomas Talbot, and her son, Donald Munro, and for Miss Alice Cole of Boston, the guest of Mrs. William C. Alford.

Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph and Mrs. Edward Clark III (Hazel Dolph) are spending a fortnight in the country near Hood River.

Mrs. George Knight Clark will entertain Wednesday with a small luncheon at the Hotel Benson. Covers will be placed for eight.

Mrs. Proctor of New York Honor Guest at Tea

MRS. GEORGE LAWRENCE JR. was hostess Friday at a delightful tea given in honor of Mrs. John Proctor of Scarborough-on-the-Hudson, who is here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. George Blackpole. The guests were limited to 20 old friends of the honor guest. The tea table was dainty in a simple arrangement of garden flowers and was presided over by Mrs. Edwin Caswell and Miss Mabel Lawrence.

Mrs. Blackpole and Mrs. Proctor have gone to Ocean Park for an indefinite stay. A birthday party for John McFeely, who has reached the age of 93 years and has the distinction of being the oldest citizen of Lebanon, was held at the home of his son, S. P. McFeely, in Lebanon, Sunday. Mr. McFeely was born in Pennsylvania in 1827 and at the age of 19 years enlisted in the navy. He served three years in the Mexican war, being discharged at San Francisco in 1848. Fifty-seven years ago he was married, but after 11 years his wife died. His three children are S. P. McFeely of Astoria, John McFeely Jr. of Kerman, Cal., and Mrs. Flora Smith of Lebanon.

Silver Leaf Rebekah lodge, No. 203, will have a social meeting Tuesday at Baker hall, corner Alameda and Killingsworth avenues. All other Rebekah lodges and friends are cordially invited. The Earnest Worker club will raffie a beautiful comfort made by that club. A program will be given besides other entertainment. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Gertrude Willis of Whitewood Court left for the East early in August to attend the wedding of Miss Lydia Villeneuve and Dr. Robert McCann of Marquette, Mich., which was solemnized August 10 in Escanaba. She will visit in Saginaw, Detroit and other cities before returning to Portland about December 1.

Peter A. Porter circle, Ladies of G. A. R., will give a 500 party at the home of C. A. Sundell, 423 Leo avenue, Monday evening, August 23. Take Sell-wood car. The public is invited. Prizes will be awarded.

Mrs. C. G. Hulse and daughter, Evelyn Lucile, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davies, for the past two months, will return Monday to their home in Spokane.

Mrs. Phoebe Sturtevant, aged 67 years, became the wife of R. F. Loomis, aged 64, in Lebanon Friday. Mr. Loomis went to that vicinity six years ago and the bride has resided there 28 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans and Walter H. Evans Jr. are enjoying a two weeks' motor trip, their objective being Lost Lake, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. Evans. They will return by way of Eugene.

Mrs. Morton H. Insley and daughters, Dorothy and Virginia, are spending some time at Neah-Kah-Nie Beach.

A wedding of unusual interest in Lebanon Wednesday was that of Katherine J. Kirkpatrick, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, a young business man of that city and son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Reeves. The bride is a descendant of the Ralston family, pioneers of the local high school, in which institution she has taught for four years and is retained as principal for the coming year. The young couple are spending their honeymoon on a camping trip up the McKenzie river.

MISS KATHERYN HOYT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt, who will leave Wednesday for New York, whence she will sail for France, where she will join the forces of the American Committee for Devastated France.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Phelster announce the engagement of their daughter, Violet Marien, to Herbert H. Littlefield. The wedding will take place in the fall.

Press Clubmen Frolic Aboard Barge Bluebird

THE large Bluebird has had aboard this season no more jolly crowd than that which dined on its decks, Friday evening, the occasion being a party given by the Portland Press club to its members and the members of the staffs of the Portland papers. O. C. Letter, the president of the club, was master of ceremonies, and the affair was voted one of the most successful ever given by the club. The attendance was large.

The Bluebird went some distance down the river and then a short way above Portland before the evening ended. The evening was ideal, especially for those who found enjoyment in lounging around the upper deck or in promenading. The light refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Mrs. N. J. Nelson and Mrs. E. T. Bell were joint hostesses at a picnic supper given Wednesday evening in Peninsula park in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Killing Bae, who are leaving soon to make their home in Long Beach, Cal. Covers were laid for 20. The good wishes of their friends were expressed in a happy little speech by Rev. A. Christensen, pastor of Our Savior Lutheran church. Following the supper, the company enjoyed the band concert.

The Harlequin club enjoyed a clam-bake on the banks of the Columbia river Wednesday evening. Swimming and the usual campfire pleasures were enjoyed. A special committee making plans for a trip over Labor day, of which Maynard Lyon is chairman, proposed some interesting plans for that day, and it is likely that the club will enjoy a hike to Wahum lake or to a point in the vicinity of Mount Hood.

Mrs. Spencer A. Chapman entertained delightfully Saturday afternoon at her home on Northrup street in honor of Miss Glen Shope, popular bride-elect. The affair was in the nature of a miscellaneous show. The guests numbered about 20. Dainty refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Herbert H. Smith. The table was decorated in a bowl of yellow daisies.

Miss Mae Matuck and Mrs. J. A. Rodrick and daughter, Louise, all from Denver, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matuck, 666 East Morrison street. They're making a tour of the Pacific coast, and before returning home are going to visit Honolulu and later Japan. They will spend a week or 10 days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wilson will entertain with a dinner party Tuesday evening at their home on Holladay street in compliment to Miss Alice Cole of Boston, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alford.

Former-Governor Oswald West and Miss Helen West left Portland Saturday evening for California, where Miss West will enter Mills college. Mr. West will make an extended trip through the East before returning to Portland.

Mrs. Dora Shemansky announces the engagement of her daughter, Alma, to Abe Cohn of San Francisco, Cal.

Each Day Sees New Fall Modes Arriving

Suits Exploit Fur and Buttons

Fur collars appear on many suits; and fancy buttons take an important part in trimming. Straight lines rival the youthful ripple-back jacket, as brown now leads the favored navy. The pile-like fabrics, yalama cloth, chamoiseine, duvetyn and bolivia, make unusually handsome suits—and prices are gratifying to the woman of limited means. There's a specially fine assortment of velour, yalama cloth and mixtures at

$59.50

Satin Frocks Are Beaded

Elaborate beading trims many satin dresses. Sashes outline the new low waistline. Tailored frocks of tricotine, serge and velour show brilliant embroidery or beads and are quite dressy enough for many occasions. Remarkably striking are some models at $39.50 to $49.50.

Heavily beaded in jet is a bloused satin model with ribbon sash at the low waistline. It comes in navy or brown and is only $37.50

Artfully smart is a ripple jacket suit of brown yalama with a novel back offset with stitching—at $59.50

All Honors to the Wrap Coat

Enveloping as to line and exquisite of material are the fall coats of ondulette, congo, lustrola, chasidyn. Collars are huge and cape-like, sleeve cut comfortably in one, linings gay of color. There's a splendid group at $79.50 to $89.50.

A Sensational Clean-up Sale of Blouses $12.50 to $17.50 Blouses $8.45

To make room for new arrivals this group of beautiful georgette and crepe de chine blouses are slashed in price. Materials are the finest quality—colors white, flesh, bisque, peach, Adriatic, orchid, coral and rose. Many are clever novelty styles, with beading, embroidery and lace adding to the effect. Both long and short sleeves are shown. The woman who knows values will seize this opportunity to invest in blouses for the coming season. Most of them sold for $15.

The Millinery Department Invites You to the Third Floor

Early autumn has brought a host of interesting new styles to our millinery headquarters. For present wear the small hat of duvetyn, velvet or feathers is favored, while prominent colors are vivid reds, blue, warm browns and dashing black. Prices vary, but there's a wonderful variety at $10 to $20
