They allow an additional charge of 20 per cent on passenger rates, 50 per cent on Pullman rates, 25 per cent on freight rates in the West and 331/2 per cent in territory east of the Rockies.

TICKET OFFICES CROWDED For three weeks travelers have been sts to various points before the fare increase became effective and shippers have been making an insistent demand for a great number of cars by which hoped to get most of their intended shipments on the road before the new freight rates became effective. Railroad officials anticipated that Thursday would bring a full in the purchase of tickets, but the crowd at the consolidated ticket office was even above the normal summer crowd. A few were Trains which left Portland Wednesfay were jammed to capacity with travelers anxious to start their trips before the fare increase became effective. Four German Alien Held extra sections were placed in service to handle the additional crowds. Thursday morning it was not necessary to resort to the placing of extra trains in service, out travel was declared normal.

WITH LUMBER, OFF Dry Petitions Are To Legalize Party FOR SOUTH AFRI

Crusaders for the prohibition cause, armed with petitions asking voters to South Africa, the barkentine Monsign that the official "dry" party may regain its legal existence, started forth Thursday morning for a two days' canvass of the precents of the county. Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, secretary of the party, which because of a lack of sufficient votes at the last election has been denied representation on the November ballot, announced that she has workers from all political faiths who are pressing the petition circulation.

MOONSHINE CASES

Youth has taken to making moonshine, it was revealed Thursday morning when four juvenile offenders were brought before Judge Bean in the U.S. district court and convicted on the charge of manufac-

Gus Johnson and W. R. Dempsey. Gus Johnson and W. R. Dempsey, the country ran into the storm clouds aged 20 and 21 years, had been operat- at 5000 feet and were forced to climb ing an 80-gallon still near Silverton. to a high altitude to avoid them. When arrested by federal officers they had 100 gallons of whiskey, a large quantity of mash and 50 gallons of whiskey in an automobile for removal of the cache. They were fined $250

Knight, 19, were also haled into court and an end put to their moonshining occupations. They started operations in Portland on the east side, where they had a seven or eight gallon still, 200 gallons of mash and six gallons of the finished product. They were fined $200 each.
Abram Wallace, while not in the juvenile class, was also convicted noonshining and fined $250.

uty United States Attorney Flegel, "we shall ask the administration for an ad-ditional corps of officers." Judge Bean declared he had reached Judge Bean declared he had reached the limit of his patience and that he has resolved that the way to cure moonshining is the jail, and that henceforth he will impose jail sentences when the facts warrant. Because of the offenders this morning being mere boys, he refrained from the severer punishment.
