Players Blue and Cox and Umpire Byron Engage in Battle; Portland Shut Out by Couch.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—To Bill Byron, the gray-haired umpire. goes the handsome set of concrete boxing gloves. Bill and Lou Blue, first baseman of the Portland baseball club, staged a torrid three-minute battle in the ninth inning of Saturday's ball game, and before they finished the entire personnel of both clubs was in the battle.

The Seals won the game by a goore Government of I to 0, and the run which would have tied the game up in the last frame started the riot. Blue hammered a three-bagger to deep right field and tried to score off Schaller's fielder's choice to Hasbrook. The Seal first-sacker made a wonderful play of the ball and threw Blue out at the plate. BYRON HITS FIRST Whereupon Lou climbed to his fee

> The Boston Americans should have the greatest "regrettery" of them all but there have been no signs that such is the case. Boston gave Speaker to Cleve-land and here is Tris leading the first team in the American league. Boston also gave Ruth to the New York Yanks and here is Babe, the greatest drawing card in the game, and no small cog in a machine which has swept its way toward the top. Other players from Boston, fighting for pennant contenders, could be named, but Speaker and Ruth are teams in themselves.

> The Philadelphia Nationals sent Pat Meran to Cincinnati. Pat has been doing a-plenty. Fisher also foined the Reds from New York and there has been no wailing in Redtown. The White Sox long ago took Joe Jackson from Cleveland and Eddie Collins from Philadelphia. Because of them the Sox are near the top in their league.

Probably every manager and every owner has opportunities to sigh and re-mark, "If only-" England's Racing Dates for 1921 Fixed England's flat racing season for 1921 will begin on March 14 and will end on November 26, according to the Jocksy club. The Epsom derby, the world's most famous turf event, will be run on June 1. The Oaks will be contested on June 2. May 4, at Newmarket, is the date set for the Two Thousand Guineas, while on May 6, at the same track, the One Thousand Guineas will be contested.

The merriest little pennant races in the major leagues are now in progress. Never before in the history of baseball have three clubs in the National and American leagues been so closely bunched as they are at the present time. Tris Speaker's Cleveland club increased its lead in the battle for the American league title by trimming the Detroit - Tigers, while the Yankees broke even in a double bill with the Boston Red Sox before a record breaking crowd, and the White Hose split even in two games with the St. Louis Browns.

AMATEUR TEAMS TO BATTLE FOR LEAGUE TITLES

Double Header Scheduled for Sunday Afternoon on the Vaughn Street Grounds.

PODAY and tomorrow (Labor day) I mean much in the destiny of the teams in the Class AA and Intercity leagues of the Portland Baseball as-The championship of each section is at stake and the leaders are battling for all they are worth to secure the 1920 titles. The main reason for this is because a post-season series has been planned by President Jack Routledge and the winner is being billed to take a trip to Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane to battle the best in the Pacific North-

Two games are set for this afternoon on the Vaughn street grounds, the first engagement being between the Crown-Willamette Paper Mills and the Street car Men's local, while the second affair will feature the Pulpmakers and the Hesse-Martin Iron Works. The Crown-Willamette representatives are heading the Class AA league, and both the Transfer Punchers and the Ironworkers want the honor of humbling the Oregon City lads

It is said that the visitors will come well fortified with rooters and the company's band is said to be in line to make the journey to the Twentyfourth and Vaughn streets inclosure. The first match is set for 1 o'clock, with the Crown-Willamette-Hesse-Martin battle taking place immediately following the first setto. The race in the Intercity league of the Portland Baseball association is centered around Honeyman Hardware company of Portland and the Sherwood. Or., outfit. The Sherwood contingent lost to Hillsbore last Sunday, but the match was thrown out on a protest. This means that Sherwood still is in the running for the title, but they will have to win all the rest of the games in order to wrest the top rung from the hardware men. Today Honeyman meets the Multnomah Guard.

Because of the fact that the Crown-Willamette matches are scheduled for the Portland Pacific Coast league park, more interest is being centered in that Regretting Time for Big League locality, but the races in all the circuits of the P. B. A. warrant a lot of Champion Should Win in Real Dempsey Fashion Inside of Five Rounds; Miske Stale.

By Frank G. Menke (Staff Correspondent Universal Service) BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 4. -Unless all signs point away, Jack Dempsey should defeat Billy Miske in their Labor day tussleand do it in the usual Dempsey fashion. If the St. Paul youth goes more than five rounds, he will surprise a flock of talent around these parts. Dempsey right now appears to be at his best; Alske seems a little stale. Dempsey has flashed speed beyond anything that Miske has shown—and pre-ponderance of speed was supposed to be one of the factors in Miske's favor. Dempsey has shown boxing skill-on the few occasions when he has wanted -that makes Miske look a bit slow and awkward in comparison. Bantamweights Scheduled for a Return Bout at Milwaukie on September 15: Boxing Notes.

RETURN engagement over the 10-round route between "Babe" Herman, the sensational Sacramento bantamweight, and Billy Mascott, the local favorite, will headline the opening card of the boxing season at the Milwaukie arena, September 15. This announcement was made Saturday by Frank Kendall, the commission matchmaker, Saturday. It was also an-nounced that Frankie Murphy and Frankie Jones, the Spokane welterweight, would travel eight rounds on the semi-windup and Johnny Fisk would tackle Neil Zimmerman in a six round bout. Two preliminaries of four rounds each will complete the card.
