Gordon Will Give Quiet Talks at Heilig Theatre Under Church Federation Auspices

TALKS DESIGNED FOR BENEFIT OF GENERAL PUBLIC

Each noon at 12:15, except Sunday, from September 14 to 25, a series of "Quiet Talks" will be given at the Heilig theatre by S. D. Gordon, well known Eastern author and orator.

The services will be under the direction of the Portland Church Federation. The meetings are announced as "simple, with the brief intensely practical, quiet talk as the chief feature." They have been planned for the convenience of business men and women and will be open to the public. The printed invitation reads, "Come in when you can; slip out when you must."

Gordon is best known as the author of the 14-volume series of "Quiet Talks." A million and a quarter of his books are in circulation. Translations have been made into 28 foreign languages. He has also spoken in many parts of the world during a four year tour.

Since returning to America Gordon has been giving this series of talks in theatres in the business districts of large Eastern cities. He conducted a nine weeks' series in New York, seven weeks in Philadelphia, six weeks in Washington, five weeks in Baltimore and for two summers has given a nine weeks' course at Atlantic City.

The topics for the first week follow: Tuesday, "Tight Corners, Blind Alleys and How to Get Out"; Wednesday, "Why a Shrewd Old Jew Quit Money Making"; Thursday, "A Revolutionary Movement in a Staid Old Town"; Friday, "There's Someone at Your Side You Can't See"; Saturday, "The Biography of the Devil."

Pentecostal Folk Back in Their Hall

The Pentecostal assembly, 112 First street, has closed its eighth annual campmeeting, which has been held for the past two months at East Ninetieth and Taylor streets, and will resume regular services Sunday in its hall. Services Sunday are at 11 a. m. and 2:30 and 8 p. m. Meetings are held each night at 8 o'clock except Saturday. Old-time friends are invited to the home coming services Sunday. W. C. Trotter is pastor.

Last Tent Service

Evangelist Louis K. Dickson will speak in the tent pavilion, Thirteenth and Morrison streets, Sunday at 7:45 p. m. This will be the closing sermon in the tent where Mr. Dickson has carried on a series of meetings which has resulted in a large number of additions to the church. The evangelist will continue to hold meetings for the public each Sunday night in Women of Woodcraft hall.

Noted Speaker to Conduct Meetings

S. D. Gordon

Installation of New Pastor to Take Place

Formal installation of the Rev. Donald W. M. MacCluer, B. D., as pastor of the Rose City Park Presbyterian church will take place in the church Wednesday at 8 p. m. The Rev. D. A. Thompson, moderator of the Portland presbytery, will preside. Dr. William Moll Cas, pastor of Central Presbyterian church of Eugene, and moderator of the synod of Oregon, will preach the installation sermon. The stated clerk of the Portland presbytery, the Rev. C. W. Hays, will read the scripture; prayer will be offered by the Rev. Floyd Dorris; the charge will be delivered to the pastor by the Rev. Ralph C. McAfee, and the charge delivered to the people by the Rev. Boudinot Seeley. Special music will be furnished.

Twentieth Century Creed to Be Topic

"A Twentieth Century Creed" will be the subject of a sermon by Rev. William G. Eliot Jr. Sunday morning at 11 at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian), corner of Broadway and Yamhill. The church school will resume at 9:45 a. m. Some new plans will be put into effect. A letter from the former superintendent, Frank C. Flint, now at Balliol college, Oxford, will be read.

Important News of Portland's Churches and Young People's Societies

The first meeting of the Portland Ministerial association since the summer vacation season will be Monday at 9:30 a. m. in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. Dr. Byron J. Clark, president, announces that the address of the morning will be delivered by S. D. Gordon of New York city, author of the well known series, "Quiet Talks," which have been translated into 28 languages. All clergymen are invited.

A carload of clothing from Portland for sufferers in the Near East will be collected and shipped by the young people's societies about October 1, according to an announcement made by State Director J. J. Handsaker. Collection of the clothing will be under the direction of A. D. Bosserman, president of the Willamette association of the Baptist Young People's union; Mrs. Harry J. Miller, president of the Portland district of the Epworth League, and Roland C. Davis, president of the Multnomah County Christian Endeavor union. Information reaching Portland is that thousands will perish in the cold this winter unless warm clothing is provided. The committees propose to bale the clothing here so that it can be shipped direct to Armenia, in order to save the expense of repacking in New York city. The women of the First Christian church will serve a dinner in the church at 6 o'clock next Thursday for delegates to the Near East state conference and representatives of the young people's societies. This will be the opening rally of the clothing campaign.

BAPTIST

Dr. A. N. Hall of Muskogee, Okla., who filled the pulpit of the White Temple last Sunday, will preach again this Sunday. The quartet under the direction of J. S. Vann will be heard at both services. Strangers are invited.

Sunday will be a great day at the East Side Baptist church, when both the pastors and a large number of the people who have been away will return. Dr. W. B. Hinson will preach at both services, giving an address in the evening on the Bible as the inspired and authoritative word of God.

The Rev. Owen T. Day has returned from his vacation ready for a large work at the Arleta Baptist church. A new addition of temporary construction is being added to the church to provide room for the junior department, as the Sunday School has more than outgrown the capacity of the church. In spite of the vacation season the school attendance was high. The pastor will preach twice Sunday.

The Rev. W. B. Stewart of McMinnville, who accepted the pastorate of Glencoe Baptist church Friday, will occupy his pulpit twice Sunday.

CHRISTIAN

Sunday evening Mrs. Catherine Linton, a returned Christian missionary from South America, will speak at the First Christian church. Mrs. Linton is a sister of D. A. Grout, superintendent of city schools. Mr. Griffis will occupy the pulpit in the morning.

CONGREGATIONAL

The Sunday program at the First Congregational church includes an illustrated lecture at the church school by Major E. J. Berry on "The Embarkation of the Pilgrims." At 11 a. m. Dr. W. T. McElveen will preach, communion will be observed and new members welcomed. A musical service led by a chorus of 25 voices will precede the evening sermon. Caroline McEwen will speak on "Miracles" to the Christian Endeavor.

The Rev. J. W. Threlfall is the new pastor at St. Johns Congregational church, succeeding the Rev. W. L. Upshaw. The Rev. Mr. Threlfall recently arrived here from Boston.

"Welcome Back Sunday" will be observed Sunday at Atkinson Memorial Congregational church. The Rev. E. E. Flint announces that he will preach a morning and evening sermon dealing with present day conditions. The choir this year will be led by Miss Eva Richmond.

EPISCOPAL

Dr. A. A. Morrison will commence a series of evening talks Sunday night at Trinity Episcopal, marking the reopening of the evening services for the fall and winter months. Dr. Morrison will preach in the morning as usual. Sunday school opens this Sunday with A. C. Newill as superintendent and Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, assistant superintendent.

Bishop W. T. Sumner will leave this week-end for a visitation of the missions at Bandon, Coquille, Port Orford, Empire and other Coos Bay points. The southwestern convocation meets Wednesday at Bandon.

Miss Myla Chambers, president of the St. Stephens Pro-Cathedral Young People's society, will lead the service Sunday night. Dean R. T. T. Hicks will give a talk on "The Origin and Transmission of the Holy Scriptures." The dean will also occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and evening. A meeting of the Cathedral chapter will be held at 8 p. m. Monday, in the dean's office.

EVANGELICAL

The Evangelical church at Lents is planning a special series of meetings to commence October 10, according to an announcement made by the Rev. L. B. Culver, pastor. L. M. Bain of Tacoma is to have charge of the music. Next Thursday evening the Rev. Jacob Stocker of the Clay street Evangelical church is to preach, the occasion being the second quarterly meeting.

LUTHERAN

Our Savior's Lutheran church has resumed its regular work after vacation, including the graded system of instruction in the Sunday school. Sunday morning the sermon will be in Norwegian, followed by holy communion. On September 23, the Rev. Odd Gornitzka of Seattle, will deliver his lecture on Norway.

METHODIST

The eighteenth amendment and law enforcement will be discussed Sunday night at the First Methodist church when Dr. T. Leigh Colvin, candidate for vice president of the United States on the prohibition ticket, will speak. Dr. Colvin is a Methodist laymen. In the morning at 10:30 o'clock there will be a sacramental communion service.

The young people of Clinton Kelly Memorial M. E. church will reorganize their Epworth league Sunday night at 7 p. m. In the morning the Rev. E. S. Mace will preach.

Sunday night the Rev. J. Stanford Moore of Epworth Methodist church and the Rev. F. R. Sibley of Lents Methodist church will exchange pulpits. Each will occupy his own pulpit in the morning.

Sunday will be home coming day at Sellwood Methodist church. The three superintendents of the Sunday school are D. S. Manny, Dr. George Simon and Mrs. H. M. Huff. The Junior league will meet at 2:30 p. m. and the Epworth league at 6:30 p. m. Regular morning and evening sermons will be preached by the Rev. W. S. Gordon.

Sunday morning Mrs. Catherine Linton, a missionary to Argentina, will speak in the Mount Tabor Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Linton have been conducting an independent missionary work in South America and are well known at Mount Tabor. The pastor will preach at night.

NAZARENE

D. Leigh Colvin, prohibition candidate for vice president of the United States, will preach Sunday at 11 a. m. at the First Nazarene church. He also speaks tonight at Library hall.

PRESBYTERIAN

The First Presbyterian church will have in its pulpit Sunday its regular pastor, Dr. H. L. Bowman, who has returned from his vacation. He will preach morning and evening. At 7:30 p. m. E. E. Coursen will give an organ prelude.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will conclude its program of talks illustrated with lantern slides Sunday. In the primary room the subject will be "The Appearance After the Resurrection." In the senior room some pictures will be shown illustrating the history of the Apostolic church at the beginning.

Westminster Presbyterian church started fall work last Sunday with a good attendance. Dr. E. H. Pence will preach twice Sunday. At 12:10 p. m., following the morning sermon, the men of the congregation will organize a men's club. The men also plan to have a strong representation at the banquet and rally in Mount Tabor church on Tuesday evening.

At 9:45 a. m. Sunday an illustrated lecture will be given to the Bible school of Central Presbyterian church by Mrs. W. H. Nugent. This talk will be concluded during the Thursday evening prayer service. Beginning September 26 picture lectures on "Better America" will be given in connection with the evening service. Teachers and officers of the Sunday school met with Superintendent R. F. Barnes on Wednesday to plan for rally day exercises on September 26. Dr. W. H. Nugent will preach Sunday morning.

The Rev. D. A. Thompson has returned from his vacation at Neah-Kah-Nie mountain with his family, and will occupy his pulpit at Mizpah Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Services at Anabel Community Presbyterian church have been resumed with the pastor's return from his vacation. This includes the Christian Endeavor service at 6:30 p. m. and evening sermon at 7:30 p. m.

At a teacher's meeting of Kenilworth Presbyterian church Sunday school workers held Tuesday eveening, plans were made for a special rally day program and graduation exercise on September 26. Together with this the session plans to hold the quarterly communion service for October and to receive new members. The Rev. L. K. Grimes, pastor, will preach Sunday morning and evening.

Dr. W. S. Holt of Philadelphia, a member of the board of ministerial relief and sustentation of the Presbyterian church, will preach Sunday morning at Forbes Presbyterian church. Dr. Holt is past 70 years of age. In the evening the Rev. W. W. Long, pastor, will preach a sermon of special interest to students.

The Rev. Monroe G. Everett, pastor of Fourth Presbyterian church, announces that the Bible school hour will be changed Sunday from 10 a. m. to the noon hour and that the morning preaching hour will be advanced 10:30 a. m.

SWEDENBORGIAN

The Portland society of the New Christian services will resume services Sunday morning at 301 Central building, in the headquarters of the Theosophical society. Following the adoption of a plan presented by the pastor last spring, the services will follow a much simpler order. Another improvement in the work is a business office for the pastor in the Oregon building. This will serve also as a reading room and a publication office for the pastor's weekly letter, "The New Christian Minister."

UNITED BRETHREN

The First United Brethren church Bible school and Christian Endeavor will observe rally day Sunday with a full program. The chorus choir under the direction of Professor W. H. Moore will appear in a full ritualistic service in the morning, when Dr. G. E. McDonald, district superintendent, will preach. Sunday night the pastor, Dr. Byron J. Clark, will preach. Souvenirs will be given to all who attend the Sunday school at 10 a. m.

Closing services for the conference year will be held Sunday morning and evening at Second, Third and Fourth United Brethren churches, with each pastor in his or her pulpit. The Rev. C. P. Blanchard of Fourth church has sufficiently recovered from her illness to occupy her pulpit.

For 20 years the deaf people of Portland and vicinity have been attending the United Presbyterian Church of the Strangers. Until quite recently it has been the only place in the city where the deaf had an opportunity of hearing the gospel. Every Sunday morning an interpreter has been present to give in sign language the same sermon that the pastor, Dr. S. Earl DuBois, preaches to the hearing people. For a number of years Mrs. F. C. Metcalf has been acting as the interpreter. Not only is she an expert in the sign language, but she takes a deep interest in the deaf people. Frequent social gatherings are held, to which the deaf are always welcome. Next Sunday morning is home-coming day in this church and the deaf people are most cordially invited to be present.

Missionaries to Speak

The Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Christopherson, for 26 years missionaries in China for the Christian and Missionary Alliance movement, will speak Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. at the Gospel Tabernacle, East Ninth and Clay streets. They will also give an address at Aloha, Or., at 3 p. m.

New Pastor to Be Installed in Week

Dr. W. H. Nugent

Dr. Bowman Will Be Installed Thursday

Thursday evening Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman will be formally installed as pastor of First Presbyterian church. The moderator of the Portland presbytery, the Rev. D. A. Thompson, will preside. Dr. E. H. Pence of Westminster Presbyterian church will preach the sermon, the Rev. Levi Johnson will give the installation prayer, the Rev. Monroe G. Everett of Fourth Presbyterian church will give the charge to the pastor and the Rev. Boudinot Seeley, superintendent of Presbyterian missions in Oregon, will give the charge to the people.

Airplane mail, freight and, eventually, passenger service between the principal cities of Brazil is proposed by promoters, who have been granted a government concession.

UNITED BRETHREN TO HOLD ANNUAL SESSION THURSDAY

Thursday the sixty-seventh Oregon annual conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ will begin at the First United Brethren church, East Fifteenth and Morrison streets. The sessions will last through Monday. Bishop William H. Washinger will preside and give the opening address at 9 a. m. Thursday. He will also preach Sunday morning, September 19.

The annual session of the denomination's Christian Endeavor union will be held Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. E. O. Shepherd, president, presiding. Evangelistic services will be held each evening during both conventions, with speakers as follows: Tuesday, the Rev. D. J. Ferguson; Wednesday, the Rev. Ira Hawley; Thursday, the Rev. George Chapman; Friday, the Rev. G. K. Hartman; Saturday, the Rev. J. D. Nisewonder, and Sunday, the Rev. G. L. Bender.

Dr. Byron J. Clark, pastor of the local First church, will be the host of the conference. Ministers and lay delegates from Oregon and Western Washington will attend. The Rev. E. B. Ward, a returned missionary from China, with a record of 22 years in the foreign field, will also be present to add inspiration to the sessions.

Dr. G. E. McDonald, superintendent of the Oregon conference, reports two financial achievements for the year. The drive in Oregon for an additional $25,000 endowment for the denominational college at Philomath, Or., went $1000 beyond the mark, and the United Enlistment Movement in the state for $30,719 totaled over $31,000 when the final count was made.

CHURCH of OUR FATHER
(UNITARIAN)
BROADWAY AT YAMHILL
WILLIAM G. ELIOT JR., MINISTER
Those who desire the worship and fellowship of a Christian Church without creed tests and working for unselfish ends will probably find what they seek in the Church of Our Father. We aim in our Church School to teach children nothing they will have to unlearn when they grow older. The Church School for all ages meets at 9:45 a. m. Regular morning service at 11:00.
