

Cox Attends Church, Preests Voice in Portland Sunday—Speaks at The Auditorium

CANDIDATE SPENDS SUNDAY IN REST; THROAT IS SORE

By Ralph Watson
The Sabbath, according to the precepts of the good book, should be a day of rest and devotion. It was with James M. Cox, governor of Ohio, Democratic nominee and potential president of the United States.

DOCTOR TREATS THROAT
Governor Cox and his party reached Portland from Tacoma at 7:30 and the special car in which they came arrived at the hotel at 8:30.

Once there Governor Cox sought the seclusion of his suite and the comfort of a bath, while Dr. Charles Chamberlain was summoned to treat his throat. Shortly before 11 o'clock, accompanied by Senator Chamberlain, Dr. Robert Goldsmith, John L. Shuff, a close friend from Cincinnati, and one or two others, Governor Cox came down into the lobby of the hotel on route to the Westminster Presbyterian church.

He was immediately surrounded by those in the lobby who recognized him. He held an impromptu reception on his way to the automobile waiting for him at the curb. Once in that he was whisked away to church and, after the services there had been completed, was taken back to the hotel, where the ban of silence was put upon him and he was immured in his room until time for his departure for Salem at 4:40.

Once there Governor Cox sought the seclusion of his suite and the comfort of a bath, while Dr. Charles Chamberlain was summoned to treat his throat. Shortly before 11 o'clock, accompanied by Senator Chamberlain, Dr. Robert Goldsmith, John L. Shuff, a close friend from Cincinnati, and one or two others, Governor Cox came down into the lobby of the hotel on route to the Westminster Presbyterian church.

THREE ADDRESSES TODAY
Governor Cox left for Salem at 4:40 Sunday afternoon and spent the night there. From 8 to 9 o'clock Monday morning he held an informal reception at the Hotel Marion, and at 9 o'clock delivered an address at the auditorium. The introductory address being by B. F. Irvine.

PLATFORM SPEECHES
Dr. Robert Goldsmith, internationally known as an authority on the League of Nations covenant, and who was the personal adviser of President Wilson at the Versailles peace conference, also spoke at the 1:30 meeting on the League of Nations. Dr. Goldsmith presided at this meeting and Governor Cox was introduced by B. F. Irvine.

GOV. COX QUITS PEW FOR MORNING WORSHIP

By Lewis Havermale
James Middleton Cox, who, by the grace of the votes of the American people, may be the next president of the United States—the proudest gift within the power of human beings to bestow—humbly worshipped almighty God Sunday morning in the Westminster Presbyterian church, East Seventeenth street north at Schuyler street.

GREETED BY OHIOANS
After a period of rest in his rooms at the Multnomah hotel Sunday morning, Cox descended to the lobby and after a few brief greetings with friends went directly to the automobile that took him to the Westminster Presbyterian church.

PROGRESSIVE RECORD
Cox has a record of progressive action in Ohio seldom equaled. And he is fighting the same crowd that Theodore Roosevelt fought in 1912 and 1916, and Governor Lister was twice elected to the governorship largely on his stand for progress.

THE PEOPLE OF WASHINGTON apparently have a League of Nations. They don't want more war, more taxes and more death. Their invariable applause left no question as to the crowds' feeling in the league and war. And Cox in several instances, lifted the fog cast out by the irreconcilables as to the real effect of the league. He showed that America could not win any war, and that the article of Article X or any other article in the covenant, without the consent of congress, and he showed that America's power in the council is equal to that of any other nation.

THREE ADDRESSES TODAY
Governor Cox left for Salem at 4:40 Sunday afternoon and spent the night there. From 8 to 9 o'clock Monday morning he held an informal reception at the Hotel Marion, and at 9 o'clock delivered an address at the auditorium. The introductory address being by B. F. Irvine.

PLATFORM SPEECHES
Dr. Robert Goldsmith, internationally known as an authority on the League of Nations covenant, and who was the personal adviser of President Wilson at the Versailles peace conference, also spoke at the 1:30 meeting on the League of Nations. Dr. Goldsmith presided at this meeting and Governor Cox was introduced by B. F. Irvine.

GOV. COX QUITS PEW FOR MORNING WORSHIP

The party was then driven back to the hotel, where Cox spent the remainder of the day in rest until time for his departure Sunday evening. Pastors and official boards of several of the Portland churches had extended invitations to Cox and his party to worship in their respective churches. It was not known until shortly before their departure what church would be selected, as Cox had clearly stated that he wanted no display made over the fact that he was attending a church service. It is said that this has been his attitude at all times during his tour regarding his religious life.

DUTY OF CHRISTIANS
Dr. Edward H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, conducted the service and preached. His text was from First Thessalonians, fifth chapter: "Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded—see that none render evil for evil to any man."

GREETED BY OHIOANS
After a period of rest in his rooms at the Multnomah hotel Sunday morning, Cox descended to the lobby and after a few brief greetings with friends went directly to the automobile that took him to the Westminster Presbyterian church.

PROGRESSIVE RECORD
Cox has a record of progressive action in Ohio seldom equaled. And he is fighting the same crowd that Theodore Roosevelt fought in 1912 and 1916, and Governor Lister was twice elected to the governorship largely on his stand for progress.

THREE ADDRESSES TODAY
Governor Cox left for Salem at 4:40 Sunday afternoon and spent the night there. From 8 to 9 o'clock Monday morning he held an informal reception at the Hotel Marion, and at 9 o'clock delivered an address at the auditorium. The introductory address being by B. F. Irvine.

PLATFORM SPEECHES
Dr. Robert Goldsmith, internationally known as an authority on the League of Nations covenant, and who was the personal adviser of President Wilson at the Versailles peace conference, also spoke at the 1:30 meeting on the League of Nations. Dr. Goldsmith presided at this meeting and Governor Cox was introduced by B. F. Irvine.

COURT USELESS WITHOUT LEAGUE, ASSERTS DOCTOR

He knows all about LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The speaker, Dr. Robert Goldsmith, student of sociological and international problems, publicist, author and lecturer, in discussing the League of Nations Sunday morning at the Multnomah hotel, said that it is absurd to suppose that the eminent jurists who labored with Mr. Root under the authority given them by the Council of the League of Nations are going to permit their labors to go for naught in order to please protoplasmic politicians or ministerial statesmen in America whose principal concern, first, last and all the time, is to destroy, if possible, the work of the present administration.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The speaker told of the advantage his present trip would be next when in Washington because of his better understanding of the conditions of the Pacific Northwest. He then turned to the campaign fund situation and was frequently applauded as he expounded regarding the subscription lists of the Republican party, declaring that financial corporations had clearly violated the law.

SLAPS MORNING PAPER
After paying his respects to the Oregonian at the Multnomah hotel, he was asked a question from the audience: "Where do you stand on prohibition law enforcement?"

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

COURT USELESS WITHOUT LEAGUE, ASSERTS DOCTOR

He knows all about LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The speaker, Dr. Robert Goldsmith, student of sociological and international problems, publicist, author and lecturer, in discussing the League of Nations Sunday morning at the Multnomah hotel, said that it is absurd to suppose that the eminent jurists who labored with Mr. Root under the authority given them by the Council of the League of Nations are going to permit their labors to go for naught in order to please protoplasmic politicians or ministerial statesmen in America whose principal concern, first, last and all the time, is to destroy, if possible, the work of the present administration.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The speaker told of the advantage his present trip would be next when in Washington because of his better understanding of the conditions of the Pacific Northwest. He then turned to the campaign fund situation and was frequently applauded as he expounded regarding the subscription lists of the Republican party, declaring that financial corporations had clearly violated the law.

SLAPS MORNING PAPER
After paying his respects to the Oregonian at the Multnomah hotel, he was asked a question from the audience: "Where do you stand on prohibition law enforcement?"

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

COURT USELESS WITHOUT LEAGUE, ASSERTS DOCTOR

He knows all about LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The speaker, Dr. Robert Goldsmith, student of sociological and international problems, publicist, author and lecturer, in discussing the League of Nations Sunday morning at the Multnomah hotel, said that it is absurd to suppose that the eminent jurists who labored with Mr. Root under the authority given them by the Council of the League of Nations are going to permit their labors to go for naught in order to please protoplasmic politicians or ministerial statesmen in America whose principal concern, first, last and all the time, is to destroy, if possible, the work of the present administration.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS
The speaker told of the advantage his present trip would be next when in Washington because of his better understanding of the conditions of the Pacific Northwest. He then turned to the campaign fund situation and was frequently applauded as he expounded regarding the subscription lists of the Republican party, declaring that financial corporations had clearly violated the law.

SLAPS MORNING PAPER
After paying his respects to the Oregonian at the Multnomah hotel, he was asked a question from the audience: "Where do you stand on prohibition law enforcement?"

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

DR. GOLDSMITH EXPLAINS LEAGUE WHILE CROWD WAITS
When 11:30 o'clock had been reached and the Auditorium was already well filled, Milton A. Miller, acting as temporary chairman of the meeting, pending the arrival of Governor Cox, stepped to the front of the rostrum and in a few words introduced Dr. Robert Goldsmith of New York, international authority on the League of Nations.

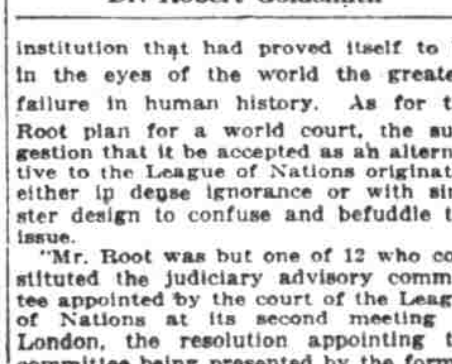

WRITERS, GUESTS, ACCOMPANY COX

Governor James M. Cox is accompanied on his trip through the Northwest only by a few specialists, his secretary and stenographer, a few guests and by newspaper men. The governor's secretary is Charles E. Morris, Walls Hawks, formerly with the publicity office of the United States navy, is publicity man for the party.

Other newspaper men are: Herbert Walker, United Press; Bond Geddes, Associated Press; Harry Rogers, International News Service; W. R. Harris, Universal Service; James Faulkner, Cincinnati Enquirer; Rodney Dean, New York Times; Robert B. Smith, Chicago Tribune; Donald MacGregor, New York Sun-Herald; Harry Hopkins, New York World; W. D. Howell, Cleveland Plain Dealer; Robert Barry, Philadelphia Public Ledger; Louis Ludlow, Columbus Dispatch; Duncan Allaman, New York Evening Post.

UNANIMOUS VOTE NEEDED
"Whatever is more, the new Court, just like the old Hague court, can have no force in the prevention of wars without the moral economic and, if necessary, the military forces of the civilized nations of the world, definitely standing behind their decision. The issue simmers down to this: No league, no court.

As to the other organizations of the league, such as the council and the assembly, they have no power to determine matters of vital interest of national honor to us in such a way that we would not necessarily sacrifice our sovereignty."

Dr. Robert Goldsmith

Modish Coats for Women of Larger Build
No woman who wears larger than a 44 wants a coat that's simply an enlarged version of a model built for a sixteen-year-old. She wants a coat designed especially for HER needs, carefully planned to give modish lines and correct proportions, as well as dignity. The Eastern has an unusually good assortment of such coats just adapted to the mode for the full-formed woman's requirements.
Silvertone, broadcloth, bolivia, timseltone and plush are used to advantage in a distinctive array of coats in sizes 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51 and 53.
YOU CAN HAVE YOUR CAKE AND EAT IT, TOO
You need not pay more than $65 for your Suit
YOU CAN HAVE YOUR CAKE AND EAT IT, TOO
Washington Street at Tenth The Gray Tile Corner

School Days Can you keep enough clean clothes for the children?
Thor Electric Washer
Over 500,000 women use the Thor, why?
10 Dollars DOWN—BALANCE EASY PAYMENTS
Thor Electric Washer demonstrated at our store by Factory Demonstrator all week. Special demonstration by appointment.
AUTHORIZED THOR AGENTS
Electric Supplies and Service
104 FIFTH ST. BET. WASHINGTON & STARK 571 WASHINGTON BET. 17th & 18th STREETS

"LIQUOR ISSUE DEAD AS SLAVERY" --COX
(Continued From Page One)
We had alignments as definite when we fought our fight in Ohio.
The history of your fight and of our fight is particularly interesting now," Governor Cox said, "because the same alignments which existed in the fights for progress in these two states in the past years are still in existence, which confront the people of the nation now."
"THE PEOPLE OF OHIO," the governor continued, "demanded laws that would provide for progressive conditions and the constitution of the state stood in the way of their enactment or enforcement and it was not until 1912 that we were able to win a new constitution."