Coming Week Promises to Be Highly Important in Portland Methodist Circles

VISIT PORTLAND AFTER MANY YEARS

Bishop and Mrs. Charles Edward locke will arrive in Portland early Sunday morning and will proceed to Wilbur Methodist church, where Mrs. Locke are en route to Vanfor Manila, where he will have Episcopal supervision of the work of the denomination for the next four

Bishop Locke as pastor of the First Methodist church of Portland (the old Taylor street church) from 1892 to 1893 was extremely popular. Since leaving ates in San Francisco, Buffalo, Brooklyn and for the past 12 years in Los Angeles. Under his administration the Angeles church has grown to s membership of 2800, and the Centenary quota of $250,000 was raised to $360,000 he throngs crowded the church out of the old building, which has been sold for $530,000. A new site has been pur-chased for $340,000, on which it is
