

SOCIALISTS WHO WERE REELECTED OUSTED AGAIN

(By United News)
 Albany, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Standing by its original action of last spring when it cast out five Socialist assemblymen on the grounds that they belonged to an organization inimical to the government of the United States, the assembly Tuesday night expelled three of the five, but voted to seat the other two. Upon announcement of the result, Assemblymen Samuel Dewitt and Samuel Orr, who were successful in retaining their seats, resigned from the assembly.

In spite of pleas by Speaker Thaddeus Swale, who originated the ouster movement early in the year, and despite earnest endeavors of Majority Leader Adler, Minority Leader Donahue and Chairman Martin of the judiciary committee to prevent this action, the assembly took the bit in its teeth and bolted completely out of the hands of its recognized leaders. The final vote, taken separately on each man, was 40 to 45 for the expulsion of Charles Solomon, Louis Waldman and August Claessens, and 87 to 48 for the retention of Dewitt and Orr.

Mayor Refuses to Lend City Grappler

Mayor Baker has refused permission for Hugh Brady, municipal grappler, to go to Salem and search in Willamette slough for the bodies of two men who were drowned there, turning down the request of the mayor and city council of Salem. The matter came before the city council Wednesday afternoon for ratification of the mayor's action. Mayor Baker explained at the meeting Wednesday morning that Brady was too badly needed in the local harbor to be loaned around the state.

Youth Cleaning Gun Shot Through Legs

Cottage Grove, Or., Sept. 22.—Earl Van Valin was shot through the calves of both legs Monday evening while cleaning a gun. He is the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Van Valin of Dorona and was preparing for a hunting trip. The wounds are not dangerous. The gun slipped and was accidentally discharged.

Labor Federation Favors Compulsory Voting in Oregon

Pendleton, Sept. 22.—The following resolutions were proposed at the convention of the Oregon State Federation of Labor during Tuesday's session:

Advocating appointment of a working woman on industrial welfare commission; proposing an act making it a misdemeanor to pass, paint or calamine rooms or buildings used as human abodes without first cleaning the same; providing compulsory registration and voting; proposing a court amendment to extend the length of the legislative session and opposing the proposition of a divided session; endorsing the effort to secure a tenure of office law for teachers of Oregon; commending the efforts and accomplishments of officials of the Oregon Federation of Labor on organization.

Miss Josephine Colby talked on the schools of Australia, describing the zone system in operation there.

Baker and Barbur File for Reelection To City Positions

Mayor Baker and Commissioner Barbur are now officially in the race for reelection to their present positions. Mayor Baker, although declaring himself weeks ago, just applied for his nominating petition blanks from City Auditor George Funk Wednesday morning and later in the day Commissioner Barbur obtained his blanks.

With this development in the city political situation came authentic news to the city hall that Dan Kellaheer and Herbert Gordon are planning to enter the race for mayor. Gordon is a prominent real estate operator, and he has been mentioned for the last two months as a mayoralty possibility. Kellaheer began to tell his friends of hopes for the job several weeks ago. Kellaheer took out nominating petitions recently, but no one has applied on behalf of Gordon as yet.

Gordon Talk Heard By More Than 600

Actual count showed that more than 600 people attended the noon meeting at the Heilig theatre Tuesday when S. D. Gordon gave his "quiet talk" on "Temptations, an English Waterloo of French." Gordon talks each noon at the Heilig from 12:15 to 1 o'clock. The Portland Church Federation, under whose auspices Gordon is here, invites all who can to attend the meetings, which will close with the Saturday noon service. The topic for Thursday will be "The Master's Rule of Brokerage and Exchange."

Jacksonville School Principal Released

Medford, Sept. 22.—Following the recent action of the Jacksonville school board in abandoning its high school because of inability to hire a complete corps of teachers, by mutual consent the contract between the school board and G. W. Godward, principal of the Jacksonville schools for several years, has been cancelled.

JENSEN FACING TWO CHARGES IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Soon after C. S. Jensen, senior member of the firm of Jensen & Von Herberg, motion picture exhibitors, gets through telling Municipal Judge Rossman this afternoon his version of the story of an ancient and suffering horse on charges of cruelty preferred by Mrs. F. W. Swanton of the Oregon Humane society, he will be called upon to answer charges of assault and battery filed this morning by Harold Jones.

Jones, a photographer, attempted to take a picture of the Liberty theatre Tuesday night, he declares, when Jensen attacked him in an effort to demolish his camera. Before Patrolmen Simpkins and Meehan had separated the pair, it is said, Jensen had received the most painful end of a static argument. The Tuesday encounter reverberated back to the scene in front of the Majestic theatre Monday night when C. S. Woodruff, Jones' partner, declares he was attacked by Frank E. Lacy, manager of the Majestic. Woodruff has charged that Lacey struck at him with a "black-jack" when he declined to cease his efforts to get a picture of the theatre.

The photographers declare they were commissioned to take pictures of each of the Jensen & Von Herberg show houses and the trouble they have been in has been brought on by effort of the exhibitors to prevent them.

Union employees of the Jensen & Von Herberg houses are on strike and police believe the photographers were employed by the strikers. The same agency is held responsible for the circulation by airplane recently of hand bills branding the show houses as unfair.
