

PATENT RECEIVED FOR 16,644 ACRES UNDER CAREY ACT

Salem, Sept. 24.—Patent for 16,644.60 acres of Carey act land, reclaimed under the Central Oregon Irrigation project in the vicinity of Bend, Redmond and Powell buttes, was received by the state of Oregon Thursday. These lands include all of the Oregon lists for patent numbers 9 and 10, which have been pending before the department of the interior since 1914.

The state's application for patent covered 19,241.88 acres, patents being withheld in 2,577.28 acres pending the purchase of the additional water rights by the settlers. These purchases, it is explained by the state engineer's office here, are being covered by supplemental contracts between the irrigation company and the settler and, as soon as adjustments are made, evidence of the settlement is being transmitted to the commissioner of the general land office, upon which additional patents will issue from time to time.

The patented area is all sold and improved land, most of which is subject to deed from the state. Those who have completed their contracts and hold certificates of proof on tracts covered by the recent patent may surrender their certificates to the desert land board here and receive deeds to the land, it is explained.

Acting upon the request of citizens of Turner, G. W. Stokes and H. R. Sykes, deputy fire marshals, will make an exhaustive survey of that town within a few weeks. Turner citizens have indicated a desire for a general clean-up of all fire hazards.

Fred I. Baker of Klamath Falls was admitted to practice law in Oregon on an Illinois certificate Thursday.

Any permanent bridge constructed on a public highway is essentially a permanent part of the highway, according to an opinion prepared by Attorney General Brown.

The opinion also holds that a county court on its own motion may submit the question of issuing bonds for the construction of a permanent highway at any general election. Such election, however, he holds, is a special election so far as the highway election is concerned and the court must call a special election to be held on the date of the general election, require the clerk to prepare a special and separate ballot for and notice of the special election.

A butcher is not exempt from jury duty in Oregon, according to an opinion prepared by Attorney General Brown.

The adjutant general's office has mailed out the first consignment of checks from the United States war department, covering armory drills for the period from January 1 to June 30, 1920. The consignment totals $4140.70, distributed as follows: Company I, 81-verton, 81 checks, totaling $1682.92; Company M, Salem, 29 checks, totaling $1152.11; supply company, Portland, 20 checks, totaling $992.26; staff corps and departments, $307.55. Information has been received by the adjutant general that other companies in the Oregon Guard will be paid in the near future.

Only those companies are included in this first disbursement which complied with the provisions of the law requiring 24 drills during the six month period. All other companies will be paid at the end of the year.

The Milton Creek Logging company is granted permission to cross the Pittsburg-St. Helens highway in Columbia county in two places in an order issued by the public service commission.

The city of Newport is well supplied with fire protection ordinances but is short on enforcement, according to a report being compiled by Horace Sykes and J. W. Stokes, who recently completed a survey of the town. The report orders the installation of six fire escapes on buildings in the town and recommends the purchase of a combination fire truck as necessary to insure adequate fire protection.

Driver Is Arrested For Not Reporting Accident With Car

I. W. Farrar, 430 East Yamhill street, a streetcar conductor, was arrested Thursday by Traffic Inspectors Yost and Friberg on charge of failing to report an accident and failing to give right-of-way.

Farrar, the police say, while driving an automobile at Grand avenue and Belmont Saturday morning, struck a motorcycle driven by Stewart Taylor, 242 McMillan street. Taylor suffered a broken left leg. Taylor told the police that Farrar promised to make good the damages to the motorcycle, but that he did not come to see him about it. He failed to make a report to the police. He was released on bail and will appear in municipal court this afternoon.

Vancouver Not Easy Divorce Mark; Girl Proceeds to Reno

Vancouver, Wash., Sept. 24.—Because she had been told that easy divorces were made in Vancouver, a Russian girl arrived in Vancouver some time ago and shortly after the marriage was deserted by her sailor husband. She was told by a Red Cross worker, she said, that she would have no trouble securing a quick divorce if she came to Vancouver.

After being told by a local attorney that she must remain in Vancouver at least a year before it would be possible for her to obtain a divorce, the woman,

First Trace Found Of Escaped Convicts From Oregon Prison

Salem, Sept. 24.—The first trace of Frank Wagoner and Earl Riley, who escaped from the state prison brick yard Tuesday morning, is believed to have been found in connection with the report of the theft of an automobile from the girls' industrial training school here Thursday night. Investigation revealed the fact that an old bed in a fruit house at the school has been occupied during the last few days and a quantity of fruit stored in the house has been consumed. Tracks of the stolen automobile led to Salem, but from here there is no fur-

Observe the grin which each TWIN will pull and say WILL WARE about. Whatever game they're playing in, Their Lackawanna won't wear out.

LACKAWANNA TWINS UNDERWEAR will wear. The determination to live long and usefully is manifest in every Lackawanna garment—in every strong and tidy-sewn seam, in every staunch button and buttonhole. The makers of Lackawanna accept the strenuousness of children as a healthy fact and accordingly produce underwear qualified to lead a strenuous existence.

This noteworthy "strength of character" in Lackawanna is a finely balanced combination of choice fabric, true fit and workmanship that compromises with no defect however slight. To the Lackawanna organization there are no "unimportant" details.

All Lackawanna fabrics are pre-shrunk in the making to avoid after-shrinkage in the tubbing. Sterilization in live steam makes their sanitary cleanliness absolute.

Most shops carry Lackawanna Twins Underwear in various styles and in quantities to suit every requirement of service and price.
